Sensation Did Not Materialize.

What gave promise of being a sensational divorce case, in which charges and counter charges were made and denied in the petition, cross petition and answer, was tried before Judge Dickson last Monday and the promised sensation did not materialize as the question of alimony, which was causing the great scrap, was settled out of court. It was the case of Justis Spindler vs. Catherine Spindler. The defendant did not contest the case and a decree of divorce was granted the plaintiff and costs charged to him.
 He is also to pay the defendant $900, $300 of which is to be paid at once and the balance, $600, in fifteen days. He also was assessed $200 as attorneys fees for the defendants attorney. The defendant is to give the plaintiff possession of his residence property within fifteen days and is to remove all her property therefrom. She was also allowed to take her former name, Katherine Weisgerber.

The Live Stock Market South Omaha, Neb. Sept. 9.—From the Standard Live Stock Commission Co.

We had a very liberal run of cattle again at the beginning of this week and while choice killers ruled nearly steady other grades were 10 to 15 cents lower. There was a further decline in cow stock which puts them about the low point of the season. Trade was also decidedly sluggish in stockers and feeders and values are fully 25 to 40 cents lower than a week ago.

SHOWING SECTION OF MILLION DOLLAR STOCK PARADE

AN INTERSTATE FAIR FEATURE IN BLUE-BLOODS.

One of the most attractive features of the Interstate Live Stock Fair, at Sioux City, is the annual parade of blue-blooded cattle and horses. This year the parade will be staged on Friday, September 19. Over $1,000-000 worth of stock will be represented in the parade, and all the animals will wear the badges captured during the show.
 The parade is always lead by a military band and other musical organizations are worked in to break up the various sections. From ten to fifteen states usually are represented in this stock promenade, and the proud bloods of their kind are lead by the owners. The parade takes place before the grandstand, and the crowds in motor and bleacher row.

 Entries now in the hands of Secretary Joe Morton, of the fair association, indicate that "this stock parade will rival any similar showing in the big fairs, east and west. Many members of the horse and cattle aristocracy entered in the Sioux City show have carried off the honors in Chicago, Des Moines, Lincoln, Huron and Hamline. The pick of the animals shown at these fairs this year will be entered at Sioux City. Because of the excellence of the Sioux City market and the interest in better stock in the adjacent territory breeders make hard fights for recognition at the Interstate Fair.

LINED WITH GOLD.

Alaska's Enormous Deposits Will Last a Thousand Years.

Like a tale out of the "Arabian Nights" is the opinion given recently by an expert on the future of Alaskan gold mining, only this expert bases his opinion on facts, whereas the oriental story teller specialized in fancy.
 But the testimony given by Falcom Joslin is doubly interesting because it exceeds the imagination of the wildest fancy while being based on the facts in the case.
 "In my judgment," says Mr. Joslin, "the placer mining industry in Alaska will last a thousand years, the area suitable for placer mining is so enormous. What we are working there now is only the gravels that will carry from $3 to $10 a yard. You cannot work gravels that carry less than that, but once we have transportation there and can work gravels such as they do in California, which carry 7 cents a yard, we have got so nearly an unlimited area of it that no man can foresee the end of that industry in Alaska.
 "One great thing is that nearly the whole area of Alaska is gold bearing.
 There are placers and quartz. It has been said, and I believe the statistics and explorations of the geological survey show it, that you could go from the extreme southeast of Alaska at Ketchikan, where there are important mines, along this route by way of Hains clear out to Nome, a distance of 2,000 miles in a straight line, and that in every twenty mile section along that route you could develop gold mines. It is infinitely greater than any other area of gold country that has ever been found in the world." Engineering and Mining Journal.

Nice For the Lady.

Quite regularly a certain London school teacher invited two miserable little girls to spend Saturday afternoon at her house. Knowing how overburdened with work the mother was and how much the children's moral education was neglected at home, a settlement worker ventured to congratulate the parent.
 "What a great advantage for them!" she said. "How exceedingly kind of her!"
 "No doubt she's glad of comp'ny," complacently returned the mother.—

FIGURES OF SPEECH.

Just Suppose For a Moment That They All Turned to Facts.

No situation is more difficult to deal with than that in which a figure of speech becomes a fact. I mean that when we have been using a phrase truly, but in its general and metaphorical sense, we are rather embarrassed than otherwise if we find that it is true, even in its strict and literal sense.
 There does not seem to be anything more to say. Suppose you heard a family remark casually, "It's madness in papa to go to Norway!" And suppose the next instant papa sprang into the room through a smashed window with straws in his hair and a carving knife and howled aloud: "Ubbubboo I'm going to Norway!" The incident would be disconcerting. It would not be easy to pursue the subject.
 Or suppose we said to some stately silver haired woman who was a noyed, "I think it childish of you to take offense so easily." And suppose she sat down suddenly on the floor and began to scream for her doll and her skipping rope. We would be at a loss. Words suited to the situation would not easily suggest themselves.
 Of if a wife said to her husband apropos of a luxurious friend to whom he gave expensive dinners, "He's simply robbing you," her remarks would be cut short rather than further encouraged by the sight of the friend climbing out of the window with the silver teapot under his arm. The wife would have the extremely unpleasant sensation of having said the worst thing she could and having nothing more to say.
 Cases, of course, could be multiplied indefinitely, as the case of one who, entering a lodging house, should say "Rats!" in disparagement of its praises and find himself instantly surrounded by those animals, or one who should remark, "Uncle Joseph has lost his head over this," and should find him decapitated in the garden.—Illustrated London News.
 He Dodged.
 "So Burroughs owes you money?" Well, I think he'll pay you back some day, but you can't make him hurry." "Don't you believe it. The mere sight of me walking along the street has made him hurry several times lately."—Philadelphia Press.
