

GIRL DENIES STORY

New York, Oct. 6.—There was made public here what purports to be an affidavit of Lucille Singleton, setting forth that she was not stabbed by Herman Oelrichs, as she had previous-ly charged. The affidavit was made and signed in the presence of James O'Malley, an assistant district attorney. In substance the affidavit says Oel-hichs and the girl had been drinking and that Oelrichs lost control of the automobile in which they were riding.

and that Oelrichs lost control of the automobile in which they were riding. "I don't know why I .said I was stabbed," states the affidavit, "unless it was because I was so excited. It was not because I want money." Herman Oelrichs, who is a law stu-dent at Columbia university, was dis-charged in police court today when ar-ranged on the charge of stabbing Lucil-le Singleton, daughter of a Texas mine owner.

Washington, Oct. 6.—With the demo-rratic tariff law consummated activity today was transferred from the halls of congress to the treasury department of congress to the treasury department where Secretary McAdoo and Assistant Secretary Hamlin began the develop-ment of a plan of enforcement. Treas-ury officials declared that the new act will be the lowest tariff law in the his-tory of the country, with the possible exception of the Walker tariff of 1846, and its amendatory tariff of 1857. With President Wilson and the congressional framers of the law they declared it was a "competitive tariff" and freely ex-pressed conviction that business would be invigorated and sustained through its operation.

Compared with the Payne-Aldrich act this will mean a loss of $10,000,000 to the government. Treasury officials maintained that these withdrawals would have no perceptible effect on the business of the country. General regulations will be issued within a few days covering the tariff as a whole and these will be followed by specific rules regarding each of the intricate schedules. ## UNKNOWN GIRL IS SLAIN BY GUNMA

New York, Oct. 6 .- The batter body of a fair haired little girl-kill by a blow on the head-lay in the Ha lem morgue today while the pol by a blow on the head—lay in the Har-lem morgue today while the police sought Joseph Puma, a notorious Ital-ian gun man as her slayer. The child's body was brought to the morgue in a marcaroni box last night by Ralph Pasqua an undertaker, who told a tale of having been coerced at a pistol's point to go to the gunman's flat and remove the body. In the flat he saw a blonde woman weeping. When detectives reached the flat later she was gone and with her the gun man. The theory advanced was that the little girl had been kidnaped and was being held for ransom. There is no police record, however, of a child of that description being missing. The undertaker was held today pend-ing further investigation of the mat-ter. He says the gun man told him that he had hit the child as she begged for water at night.
