J. P. GALLAGHER

LOCAL MATTERS.

T. J. Fleener has been confined to his home the past week with a severe attack of illness. W. J. Hammond won the weekly seven-up tournament at the K. C.

In the see-saw of life you need money to play with

if you are to get all enjoyment possible out of life. Only a bank account will help you to that pleasure. With money you can travel where you will and have whatever enjoyment the heart desires. Commence today to save against that time.

A very small sum will open an account at this bank.....

NEBRASKA STATE BANK

JAMES F. O'DONNELL, CASHIER
5 PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

The depositors of this bank are protected by the depositors' guarantee fund of the state of Nebraska.

hall Monday evening. McMillan & Markey have purchased the bakery building now occupied by them of T. V. Golden.

J. D. Selah and Roy Butler, pioneer residents of Ewing, were in O'Neill on business last Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Souser, living northwest of this city, won the handsome rug given away by J. P. Gallagher on New Year's day.

Frank Heenan and William Kloke of Spencer came over Friday to attend the funeral of Mr. Heenan's sister, Mrs. Loy.

Mrs. John Biglin of Hastings, Neb., arrived in the city last Tuesday evening to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Frank Lorge of Akron, Iowa, was in the city the first of the week visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lorge.

Jack and Dr. Will Dwyer, who had been visiting relatives and friends here, returned to their home at Butte, Mont., last Monday night.

Charles Petr, son of John Petr, living south of this city, was taken to Omaha last Tuesday morning to be operated upon for appendicitis.

John Heenan came here from Redington, Nebraska, last Friday morning, having accompanied the remains of his sister, Mrs. E. P. Loy, to this place.

Miss Mayme Murray came over from Gregory last Thursday and returned to that place Sunday, having been called here to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. E. P. Loy.

Mrs. John Heenan and daughters, Helen and Mrs. J. N. Staley came up from Omaha Thursday night to attend the funeral of their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. P. Loy.

Frank Heeb, one of the prosperous farmers of western Shields, was a caller at this office last Monday and extended his subscription to this household necessity for another year.

Herbert Jensen, one of the progressive farmers of Grattan township, was a caller at these headquarters Monday last and oiled the wheels of the new machine with a few years' subscription.

Sister Mary Borgia and Sister Mary

Beneveia of Omaha were in the city over Sunday, visiting Sister Borgia's mother, Mrs. Timothy Dwyer, and her two brothers, who were here from Montana.

Tom Hughes, traveling passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Hughes was looking after his land interests and says that Holt county looks better to him the more he sees of it.

A Mr. Vanderhiden of Elgin last week purchased the T. J. Fleener farm, seven miles northeast of this city, paying $50.00 per acre for it. Mr. Vanderhiden will move here with his family in the spring and will farm the place.

E. O. Root of Oxford Junction, Iowa, was a pleasant caller at this office last Friday afternoon. Mr. Root was for many years a resident of Inman township, moving to Iowa some five years ago. While he likes his new home fairly well, Holt county still looks very good to him.

A local merchant received a forged money order last Saturday evening, the name of the payee being forged to the order by the party who obtained the cash upon it. The next day after cashing the order the party left town and the matter has been referred to the postal authorities.

M. A. Whaley, one of the bustling and energetic farmers of Shields township, sold on the market today one of his thoroughbred Poland-China hogs that tipped the scales at 650 pounds. A man would not have to have a very large herd of this kind of hogs to be able to own several automobiles.

One of the most successful farm sales that we have heard of this winter was that of William Bell, held upon the old Fleener farm, northeast of this city last Wednesday. Horses, as well as everything else, sold at splendid figures; the sale running several hundred dollars more than it had been estimated.

M. J. Schmitt of West Point was in O'Neill last Tuesday looking over the city with a view to getting a suitable location to start a large clothing store. Mr. Schmitt and his brother have been in the clothing business in West Point for several years and he was very favorably impressed with this city as a business center and will probably engage in business here, if a suitable location can be secured.

Skin Preserving Soaps

"WHY NELLIE, what makes your skin so rough today?" How often have you heard that question asked—maybe of you?

How often have you, after washing, felt a shriveling up of your face and hands—and didn't know how to account for it?

IT'S THE SOAP.

It may be deliciously scented—an attractive smell and pretty wrapper often covers a multitude of skin torturing sins.

Here are soaps we know—and you should know. They contain only the purest of skin helping vegetable oils, and nothing to detract therefrom.

English Process Glycerine Soaps      Lana Oil Buttermilk Soap

A complete line of Imported and Domestic soaps.

Gilligan and Stout
