LOCAL MATTERS.

Arthur Ryan made a business trip to Omaha the first of the week.

H. E. Coyne left Wednesday for a few days' business and pleasure trip to the city of Omaha.

Mrs. S. A. Shull of Neligh is in the city visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Brittain.

Miss Mable Meredith came up from Omaha last Monday and will spend the balance of the winter at home.

R. W. McGinnis of the McGinnis Creamery Co., was in the city last Sunday, looking after his business interests here.

Miss Alice Barrett came up from Sioux City Sunday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Barrett.

Miss Lucille Meredith left for Omaha this morning, where she will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Ward Brayton of Stuart was a pleasant caller at this office last Friday and inspected the working of the new Linotype machine.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a demonstrator of wall papers, draperies and carpets here next week. Watch for date and place.

Mrs. William Smedley and daughter of Randolph arrived in the city the first of the week for a few days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lorge.

Last week J. A. Brown, proprietor of the O'Neill News and Cigar store, purchased the Mrs. Ryan residence on east Douglas street and will take possession the first of March.

Otto Nilson, one of the pioneer residents of Saratoga township and formerly a member of the county board, was an O'Neill visitor the latter part of last week and made this office a short call.

F. J. Dishner returned home last Thursday evening from a two weeks visit in New York City, Washington, D. C., and other eastern points of interest. Frank says that he had a delightful time and met many of the eminent statesmen at Washington, where he put in one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beaver left last Tuesday morning for Granite Falls, Minn., being called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Beaver's aunt, a sister of W. E. McRobert of this city. Before returning home Mr. Beaver will visit relatives in northern Wisconsin.

Miss Alice Corbett of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived in the city last Friday and will make her future home here with her brother, Dr. A. H. Corbett. Miss Corbett visited here last fall and became so fascinated with the country that she decided to return and make this city her home.

Michael Horrisky, the efficient mail clerk on the Burlington, won the grand prize at the "Seven-Up" tournament at the K. C. Club Rooms last Monday evening. Mike must have greatly improved in the science of the game since the night we played with him, some four weeks ago.

The county board completed their work of checking up the various county officers last Friday and adjourned until February 17. The work of checking up the county officials usually takes the board six to eight weeks, but this year the work was done in a little over three weeks.

Clyde and Dell Johnson, pioneer settlers of Rock Falls township and among the largest cattle owners in the northern part of the county, were callers last Saturday and left orders at this office for sale bills for their large sale which will be held at their ranch on March 18. See their advertisement of the sale on another page.

George D. Perkins, the old-time and brilliant editor of the Sioux City Journal, passed away at his home in Sioux City last Tuesday morning. Mr. Perkins was one of the ablest newspaper men of the country and his passing will be greatly mourned by newspaper men throughout the entire west, who loved to read the brilliant editorials penned by him.

The great number of sale ads carried by The Frontier this week is proof conclusive that the farmers of this section know the paper that has the circulation in Holt county. Newspaper advertising of public sales pay the investor many times over, and if you are going to have a sale you do not want to overlook this great medium of publicity.

Mr. Ground Hog seen his shadow Monday morning and that same evening we had a little storm. Nothing to it you say! Well, perhaps not, but it seems funny to have spring-like weather all winter until the confounded Ground Hog came out and seen his shadow and then it turned cold. The way it feels at noon today we do not blame Mr. Hog for crawling back into his hole.

Manager P. C. Donohoe of the K. C. Opera House is going to offer the theatre lovers of this city a treat next Tuesday night, when that musical drama "Freckles" will be presented at the opera house. The company presenting "Freckles" played three days to crowded houses at the Brandeis theatre in Omaha and it is said to be the finest production that was ever billed for this city.

E. W. Bloemker and family left last Saturday for West Point where they will make their future home. Mr. Bloemker has been a resident of this county for the past six years, but decided to quit farming and will engage in teaming in West Point, where he formerly resided. The Frontier wishes him success in his new home and will visit him each week to keep him posted upon the happenings in this portion of the state.

All members of the local camp of the Modern Woodmen of America are requested to attend the next meeting of the camp on next Tuesday evening, February 10. On that evening delegates will be elected to attend the county convention, where delegates will be elected to attend the state camp. The rate question will be discussed at this meeting and it is a question of vital importance to every member of the order. It is to your interest to attend.

Jack Sullivan is billed for a fistic encounter with Young McCarthy of Ravenna on March 17 and arrangements are being made to try and have the bout pulled off at Denver. Sullivan and McCarthy met at Grand Island about a year ago and the scrap between these two exponents of the fistic game is still the talk of the lovers of the manly art in the southern part of the state. Jack is now doing a little light training, getting in shape for the fray.

Mrs. Amelia Hoehne, wife of Otto Hoehne, who lives about twelve miles northwest of this city, died at her home last Tuesday morning and the remains were interred in the Protestant cemetery here this afternoon.

funeral services having been held at the German Lutheran church in Emmet. A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hoehne about ten days ago and the immediate cause of death was blood poisoning. The many friends of the family tender their sincere condolence to the heartbroken family in their hour of trouble.

The Palmer Journal prints a real pointed and timely little article under the head: "Are You Guilty?" We are tempted to print it again with the addition of another little head: "Consistency, Thou Art a Jewel." A farmer carrying an express package from a Chicago mail order house was accosted by a local merchant. "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have patronized a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." The farmer looked at the merchant a moment and then said: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know you had the stuff I have here."

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harty returned last Friday from a business and pleasure trip to Chicago and northern Wisconsin, of two weeks duration. While away Mr. Harty purchased the stock for the gents' furnishing store that will be opened by Harty Brothers & Mullen about March 1. They will put in a brand new up-to-date stock and by handling nothing but the best lines hope to be able to merit a share of the business. Harty Brothers have been in the tailoring business in this city for the past five years and have been very successful. They will continue their tailoring business in connection with the gents' furnishings. The other member of the firm is Bernard Mullen, son of Mrs. Mike Mullen of this city and was born and raised here. He is an energetic, bustling young man. The Frontier wishes the new firm success.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mary Cronin died at her home in this city on Saturday, January 31. Tuberculosis was the immediate cause of death. The deceased same to O'Neill about four years ago and lived at her home, about four miles north of this city, until about two months ago when she moved to this city and lived in the northeastern part of town until her death. With the disease from which she suffered there was no hope of recovery and she quietly and patiently bore her sufferings with Christian resignation until the last. Nine children survive her, namely: Marie Margaret, Charles, Francis, John, Clara, Paul, Theresia, Helen and Lucille, the latter being but a few months old. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from the Catholic church, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating. The sympathy of all go to the afflicted family, whose great loss never can be repaired.

Lovers of the grappling game were given a rare treat last Monday night. On that evening the match between Big Thompson of Omaha and Young Carley of North Dakota, was pulled off. The North Dakota man proved to be Ben Pavelek of Verdigris, one of the toughest wrestlers in the state. When Pavelek sized up his opponent he thought he would have very little trouble winning the match as he was considerably heavier than Thompson, but Thompson made up in quickness and science what he lacked in weight, and it was only after an hour and ten minutes of the toughest kind of work that Pavelek was able to pin him to the mat for the first fall. The second fall came easier, Pavelek securing it after about five minutes of work. Thompson surprised the big man from Verdigris and several times had dangerous holds on Pavelek, but the latter's great strength enabled him to break them. Thompson several times broke holds that looked dangerous and proved himself a finished wrestler. Thompson is a son of Elliott Thompson for many years a resident of this city and he spent his early boyhood here. Local sports are now trying to get up a match between Thompson and Cobb of Stuart and men who have seen them both on the mat say it would be a great contest.

The Henry Lorge sale north of town last Tuesday was successful, but could have been more so had his hogs brought the prices that hogs of that grade should have brought. Mr. Lorge had the finest herd of pure bred Poland China hogs in this section of the state. At the head of his herd he had Pawnee Mastiff No. 203363, one of the best bred hogs in the entire state. His sire was a ribbon winner at the Sioux City Inter-State fair and the Nebraska State fair at Lincoln in 1912. This hog was worth $100 or $150 to hog breeders in this county, who desire to raise hogs for the market, yet many Holt county farmers were present and seen a Cedar county man walk off with the pride of the herd. The man who bought him is from Wynot, Cedar county, and he is engaged in the pure bred hog business and knew a good animal when he seen one and was prepared to pay twice the sum he paid in order to get him. In addition to walking off with the head of the herd he also purchased 2 of the young brood sows. The Frontier is of the opinion that the hog raisers of this county made a mistake when they allowed such a splendid animal as Pawnee Mastiff to leave the county. The pure bred sows brought a better price than did the head of the herd but at that, those who purchased were fortunate, as they would have paid double what they did at a pure bred sale and then possibly would have secured an inferior grade of stock.

Woman Takes Carbolic Acid.

Mrs. Samuel Hoshaw, living north of Page, was found dead in bed by her son, Arthur, about 8 o'clock last Wednesday morning. Coroner Wilson was notified and in company with Sheriff Grady and County Attorney Hodgkin went to the Hoshaw residence Wednesday forenoon. A coroner's jury was impaneled and the jury returned a verdict finding that the deceased had come to her death from carbolic acid, taken with suicidal intent. Mrs. Hoshaw was about 57 years of age and had always enjoyed the best of health. Her husband died about eight months ago and she was made administrator of the estate. She had some trouble over the settlement of the estate with one of her sons and was in this city last Thursday and secured an injunction to keep him from interfering with her as administrator of the property of her deceased husband. It is thought that worry over the conduct of her son brought on a fit of temporary insanity, and while in that condition she took the poison.

Children's Accounts

draw "grown up" interest at this bank

The best way to secure a child against the future is to open a bank account in its name. Even a dollar at a time will, in a few years, provide a sum that helps the youngster in any misfortune that may befall.

When the child is able to earn money, it is but natural that he will add to the savings himself. Start an account today. It will draw interest the same as yours.
