Saloons or No Saloons.

Saloons or no saloons will probably be the main issue at the spring election next April. Petitions are now in circulation asking for a referendum vote on the question of saloons or no saloons and there is no question but what the necessary number of signatures can be secured so it will be the big question at the election. The question has never been raised at an election here before and there is a good deal of speculation as to what the outcome will be.

Gets $7,000.00 Verdict.

In the case of Harry McDaniel vs. the Burlington railroad company, tried in district court last week, the jury awarded McDaniel $7,000.00. In this case Gerald Harrington, son of M. F., made the opening argument for the plaintiff, and it was likewise Gerald's first address to a jury in district court, but those who were present in court and heard him could hardly believe it was his maiden effort. He delivered a splendid argument, and gave evidence, that with a little more experience, he will be an eloquent pleader before a jury. The nervousness, that is so often apparent in young and inexperienced lawyers and in many of the older ones when they are addressing a jury, was entirely absent. He was perfectly at home and had the several points made in the case, that were advantageous to his client, arranged in form and used them in his argument to drive home the point that he was making. Gerald is a bright young man and The Frontier predicts a brilliant future for him in his chosen profession.

Miss Kate Grady left the latter part of last week for Chicago, where she will purchase her spring stock of millinery.

MORE LOCAL MATTERS.

Mrs. V. Alberts returned from Omaha last Tuesday evening, where she had been to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law.

Last week S. F. Wysocki sold his store to Lindquist & Palmer of Wausa, Neb., who took possession the first of the week. It is the intention of the new owners to stock the store with a new stock of up-to-date goods and they will endeavor to conduct a high class general mercantile establishment. The Frontier wishes the new firm success. Mr. Wysocki will return to Omaha as soon as he gets his business matters here cleared up.

Ezra Sprague died at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Mills, in this city last Sunday, after but a few days' illness of pneumonia. He was born and raised in the Dorsey neighborhood, leaving this county last July and moving to Wyoming where he had taken a homestead. He was taken sick about a month ago and determined to come back to this county and remain here until spring. He reached this city last Thursday in a very weakened condition. Although all that medical skill and loving hands could do was done it availed naught and he passed peacefully away Sunday evening. The remains were taken to the cemetery at Dorsey for interment Tuesday. Mr. Sprague was a little over 21 years of age at the time of his death. The friends of the family in the county tender their condolence in the hour of sorrow.

Aged People

sometimes forget that poor teeth and improper mastication prevent sufficient nourishment from ordinary food and burden the digestive organs, but if every man or woman past fifty would fully realize the bountiful, sustaining nourishment in Scott's Emulsion they would take it after every meal.

Scott's Emulsion contains the renowned body-building fats of pure cod liver oil, so medically predigested that it distributes energy, power and strength all thru the body and simplifies the stomach's work.

To people in declining years we say with unmistakable earnestness—Scott's Emulsion will add years to your life and life to your years.
