Will be the next land folder issued by the Burlington and will be ready for distribution about Feb. 25th.

Valuable Information:.. This new folder will contain much valuable information—not exaggerated statement about what a few good farmers have produced, but information about what a large number of farmers have accomplished under ordinary conditions.

The New Railroad just now being completed, to the south, connecting the Big Horn Basin with Denver, Omaha, and other eastern markets will make this folder especially interesting. Write for it today. It is free and contains a large map of the Big Horn Basin.
