City Clerk, H. J. Hammond.
City Treasurer, J. F. Gallagher.
Police Judge, Fred Gatz.
Councilmen, First Ward, J. B. Ryan; Second Ward, P. D. Mullen; Third Ward, Sam Barnard.

The election was a very quiet one and notwithstanding the fact that the town was voting upon the liquor question direct, for the first time in the history of the city, but little interest was shown. There was no opposition to any of the successful candidates upon the ballot, but efforts were made to defeat P. D. Mullen in the Second ward and the name of T. J. Coyne was written in and he received 38 votes to 43 cast for Mr. Mullen. In the Third ward an effort was made to defeat Sam Barnard for the council and the name of Mike Johnson was written in on the ballot and Mr. Johnson polled 41 votes to 54 cast for Mr. Barnard.

Following is the vote by wards on the liquor question, the city staying in the wet column with a majority of 59 votes.

Sam Fried Injured.

Butte Gazette: Sam Fried, one of Holt County's prosperous ranchmen, sustained a double dislocation of the knee by being thrown from his buggy, while enroute home from Butte last week. The accident occurred in the evening and Mr. Fried, being unable to walk was compelled to lay out all night before being discovered. Dr. Beatty, of Butte, was called and attended to his needs. It was necessary to put his leg in a sling, thus having the weight of his leg hold the bones in place as they had been dislocated so long that nature did not want to do its part.

At last reports Mr. Fried was doing as well as could be expected and it is sincerely hoped that he will soon be about again, but owing to his age the time may be extended for some weeks.

this morning on account of the arrival of a twelve pound son at his home Wednesday evening. Mother and child are getting along nicely and Bill is expected to recover.

K. F. Siemsen of Atkinson was in the city last Wednesday wearing the smile that wouldn't come off. The huge smile was brought about by the result of the village election in Atkinson, where the voters decided after a year of drouth to be wet again.

The daily papers, under a New York date line, carried the following news item last Tuesday: "Several clean punches to the jaw of Gene Sullivan of O'Neill, Neb., gave Al Dewey of Wilkesbarre credit for a victory today after two rounds at the National Sporting Club last night."

J. H. Dunn of Algona, Iowa, arrived in the city last week and has decided to locate here and has opened up a real estate office in the rooms over Gallagher's store. Rushville Standard: For County Clerk the Standard hereby places in nomination Miss Maud Gillespie, the present efficient deputy in that office. Miss Gillespie is well qualified for the position, is accommodating and very accurate. She is a splendid accountant, a good scribe and her work is neat. She has been mentioned to us by several voters of the county and there seems to be no second choice for the office. If she can be prevailed upon to make the race we believe she would have but little opposition in the campaign.

The village of Atkinson that went dry at the spring election last year reversed itself at the annual election last Tuesday and voted the saloons back in by a majority of 43. This was a larger vote for the saloons than the most ardent champion of high license had expected. While Atkinson was going wet Ewing changed into the dry column by a majority of twenty-three for the first time in years, and for the coming year the thirsty of that village will have to go to Clearwater for their liquid fire or have it shipped in from some of the wet towns of the neighborhood.

William J. Barrett, by his father Arthur Barrett his next friend, has brought suit against the Burlington railroad company for $5,000.00 damages for the loss of the thumb of his left hand, which he lost while in the employ of the company as a brakeman on March 23, 1913. On above date, according to his petition, he was braking on a freight train between O'Neill and Sioux City and in said train was a car with a defective coupler and while coupling said car his hand was smashed so badly that the thumb of the left hand had to be amputated. In addition to the above amount he also asks costs of suit.

At the regular meeting last Monday night the school board elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Frank E. Marren, superintendent; Miss Emma Snyder, principal; Miss Mayme Mullen, domestic science; Mr. Taylor, agriculture; Mary Horriskey, Margaret Donohoe, Lovina Adams, Mary Stannard, Agnes Kelly, Catherine Devlin and Mary Timlin, grade teachers. Mr. Marren succeeds Miss Gorby as superintendent, the latter not being an applicant for re-election. Mr. Marren has been one of the teachers in the high school for the past year and possesses the qualifications to make an efficient and capable superintendent.

Exchange: The Mexican Indian may be the laziest man in the world, but he is probably the only man who really works while he sleeps. A traveler relates that one afternoon he came upon an Indian hut romantically situated beside a stream. A hammock of native grass was swung across a narrow branch of the stream, an Indian slept in the hammock, and a string, tied to his foot, dangled in the water. As he approached the string tightened with a jerk. The Indian awoke. Another healthy tug. "Mercedes, a feesh," he called, without moving. His wife came, hauled in the line, and removed a three-pounder from the hook, after which she rebaited and cast the line back into the stream. The Indian resumed his slumber.

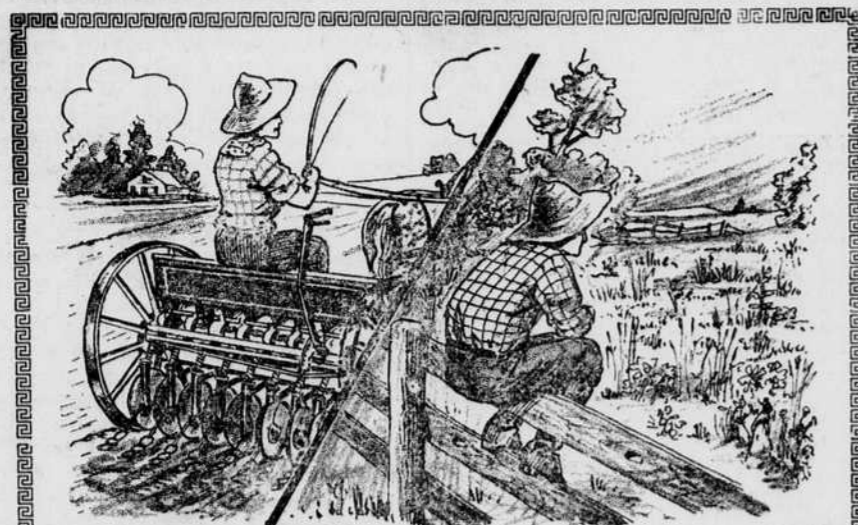

James W. Cook, through his attorneys, filed suit in the district court asking for $20,000.00 damages from the Chicago & Northwestern railroad company, for injuries alleged to have been received while in the employ of the company as switchman in the yards at Norfolk on July 9, 1913. He alleges that on above date, while engaged in the performance of his regular duty in the yards at Norfolk, on account of the negligence of the defendant in using cars that were defective, the board upon which he was standing on the car gave way and he was thrown to the ground and his left foot was so badly mashed that part of the toes had to be amputated. That as a result of such injuries he has been unable to perform any labor since that time and that said injuries are permanent, and asks that he be remunerated in the above amount with costs of suit.
