O. F. BIGLIN, O'Neill

Wednesday proving up on his last quarter of land in southwestern Holt. Mr. Pfund has now made proof upon a section of Holt county soil.

Bert O. Bergeson, aged 38, of Fayette county, Iowa, and Mrs. Lucy F. Jones, aged 42, of Lusk, Wyo., were united in marriage by the county judge at the county court room last Saturday.

Charles F. Roe, aged 41, and Miss Josie Pech, aged 21, both of Lynch, were united in marriage by Rev. Longstaff last Tuesday. Mr. Roe is engaged in the banking business at Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. O'Malley of Buffalo, N. Y., were in the city the first of the week. They have been visiting at the home of Mrs. O'Malley's sister, Mrs. B. J. Gaffney, for the past week.

The state fish car went through yesterday afternoon and unloaded twenty cans of trout and two cans of cat fish at this station. These fish will be taken out and planted in the various streams in this county, most of them going to the Redbird, Blackbird and Steel Creeks.

Miss Julia Howard closed a very successful term of school in the Cavanaugh district last Thursday and left for Lincoln Saturday morning where she will take a course in the Lincoln Business College. Her brother and sister, Clarence and Maude, are attending the same school.

The Ladies' Aid and the Young Women's Kensington of the Methodist church wishes to take this opportunity of expressing their sincere appreciation of the kindly assistance given voluntarily by those not immediately connected with the church, in the sale and exchange held last Saturday, which was a financial success.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the death and burial of our beloved daughter, Christena, and to assure them that their kindness to us in our hour of trouble will never be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jensen.

Attention Comrades.

There will be a meeting of Tammany Lodge No. 1, at the headquarters midway on Fourth, between Everett and Grant streets, Saturday, April 18, at 2 p. m. Business of importance will be transacted. The report of the president will be received, commented on, discussed and finally digested according to the rules of the order. Payment of dues and fines always in order. M. Slatterery, President.

Notice.

Sealed proposals for grading the following described roads will be received by C. F. Naughton, township clerk, or J. J. Kelly up to 2 p. m. Saturday, May 2, 1914:

First: One mile between sections 11 and 14.

Second: Commencing at the northwest corner of section 5, thence due south to join the grade on same section line, all in township 29, range 11.

Also for building a concrete culvert in the above last named grade, near Mr. Page's residence. For further particulars see J. J. Kelly, O'Neill.

Death of Mrs Elmer Hagensick.

Mrs. Elmer Hagensick died at her home in this city this morning at 10 o'clock of peritonitis, after an illness of but a few days. A little daughter was born to Mrs. Hagensick last Monday morning and that day and evening the mother seemed to be getting along nicely, but the dreaded disease set in the next day and she peacefully passed away this morning. Arrangements have not been completed for the funeral but it will probably be held Saturday morning.

The bereaved husband and orphaned daughter and the aged parents of the deceased have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in the hour of their affliction.

Burned to Death.

John Kohen, father of Mrs. P.

Sauser, was frightfully burned last Wednesday morning and from the result of which he died at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of his daughter seven miles northeast of this city.

Mr. Kohen was 87 years of age and quite childish. Wednesday morning he was out in the pasture and it is supposed that he was attempting to light his pipe and in so doing he set fire to his clothing. Joe Murphy was working in a field about 60 rods from where Mr. Kohen was and he seen the accident and grabbed a horse blanket and ran to the assistance of the old gentleman and attempted to put out the fire, but before the flames were extinguished he had been so badly burned that he died a few hours afterwards.

The remains will be shipped to Randolph, Neb., to-morrow morning, the former home of Mr. Kohen, for interment.

Wedding Bells Are Ringing.

On Wednesday evening, April 8th, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Martin, their daughter Miss Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Irwin Harding.

As the clock struck 8 the bride and groom entered the room, which was decorated with light blue and white decorations and white bells; they advanced to the center of the room and stood beneath the beautiful white bells and were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. George Longstaff, the Presbyterian minister of O'Neill, using the ring service.

The bride wore a silk chiffon and shadow lace dress over light blue silk. The groom wore the conventional black suit. The bridesmaid, Miss Sibyl Harding, the groom's sister, was attired in a light blue silk dress, with slippers to match; Ben Martin, who acted as best man, wore a heavy blue serge suit.

Immediately after the ceremony a bountiful three course supper was served.

After a few days Mr. and Mrs. Harding will be at home to their many friends on the groom's farm north of O'Neill.

The young couple were the recipients of the following beautiful presents: Ed. Jones and family, parlor table; Mrs. William Ermer, lamp; Willie Ermer, berry set; Charles Ermer, water set; Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy, berry dish; Mr. and Mrs. Lowery, berry set; William Ream, table set; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Meilky, water set; John Cavanaugh, parlor clock; Dora and Clara Stein, plates, cups and saucers; Walter and Herman Stein, bed spread; Mrs. Ives, table linen; Mr. and Mrs. William Jutte, table cloth; Lena Ott and Arthur Roberts, bread knife; George Lisher, set table spoons; Anna Viquist, butter knife and shell, Lena Zaboroski, dolly and table spoons; Inez and Lester Harding, berry dish; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ermer, table linen; A. Toy, table cover; D. Abdousch, broach and tie pin; Ida Hamilton, New York City, natural linen table cover; Jane Taylor, dresser scarf; Ben Martin, parlor lamp; M. C. Buffington, Kansas, sugar shell and butter knife.

When the birds are on the boughs Retiring love to rest,

And the sun is gently setting in the west;

Then I am roaming with my Pearl My one my lovely bride.

My sweet, my blue eyed Pearl, Thou art all the world to me,

Though I bless the hour of gladness When both our hearts we tied,

And the noon-day sun will brightly glimmer,

And we will always be the same When Pearl will cook the dinner.

Laws Governing Subscriptions.

Most readers of newspapers and many publishers are not familiar with the laws governing subscriptions. Here are the decisions of the United States court on the subject.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.

If the subscribers order a discontinuance of their publication the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid.

If the subscribers refuse to take periodicals from the post office to which they are directed he is responsible until he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, the subscriber is held responsible.

The courts have held that refusing to take periodicals from the post office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.

If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the subscriber is responsible until express notice with payment of all arrearage is sent to the publisher.

The Frontier is always glad to take a name from its subscription list if the paper is not wanted. We do not seek to impose on any one but it does look cowardly for a subscriber to take the paper from the post office without paying for it and then order the paper "refused."
