BEAUTIFUL ESTES PARK

paradise of mountain air, wild flowers, trout streams and auto roads,a natural ampitheatre of 150 square miles, with snow-capped panoramic barriers, forming the most attractive picture in all the Rockies. 30,000 tourists visited that Park during the Summer of 1913. It is reached from Denver by the Burlington through Lyons, thence by auto along the St. Varin River, or by the C. & S. through Loveland, thence by auto through the scenic canyons of the Big Thompson. Through tickets are interchangeable over the two routes. There are a dozen excellent hotels and lodges in the Park, with rates from $12.00 a week and upwards; also many camps, ranches and cottages. Ask for the new Estes Park descriptive booklet, now on the press.
