

You can now go from New York to Chicago in 20 hours for $20.00--because scientific methods applied to railroad building and operating have made it possible.

You can go out of this store in a few minutes wearing a fine suit of clothes for $15--because scientific methods applied to clothes making and selling have made it possible.

Science has made more comfortable trains go more miles at less cost--science has made better clothes wear longer at less cost--that is, if you make sure that your clothes have the Clothcraft label.

The makers of Clothcraft have carried out the science of clothes-making to the last degree--making it practical for us to offer you better values than can be found in any other make--that is why we bought them for you.

Spring Styles are ready--TODAY.

Lynch Journal: Wednesday was Uncle John Hubby's seventy-fourth birthday and most of their children and families gathered at their home to celebrate the event. One of the leading features was the taking of a four generation picture including Mr. Hubby, Mrs. Bradstreet, Howard Bradstreet and their son.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Whelan went down to Omaha Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Whelan will attend the state convention of the Knights of Columbus, which was held in Omaha yesterday and will take the fourth degree in that order today. Mrs. Whelan will spend the week visiting relatives and friends.

McMillian & Markey are building a large addition to their bakery and confectionary and will install a modern up-to-date oven therein. The improvements that they are making will cost close to $3,000.00. This addition to the bakery was made necessary on account of their large and steadily growing business.

Rushville Standard: B. S. Gillespie of Extension precinct was brought to Rushville last Friday night and taken to Hot Springs. He was suffering from an acute attack of diabetes and was taken there for treatment. His daughter, Miss Maud, accompanied him and Sunday Mrs. Gillespie joined her son Lloyd of O'Neill, here and they also went to the Springs.

Hugh J. Boyle, district deputy of the Knights of Columbus, went down to Omaha last Sunday morning to attend the state convention of the Knights, which was held in Omaha yesterday. An effort will be made by the O'Neill delegates to have the next convention of the order held in this city and Mr. Boyle went down a few days ahead to try and lineup matters favorable to this city.

F. W. Phillips was in from his Knox county ranch yesterday and favored this office with a short call. Frank says that things are looking fine in his section of the country, alfalfa looking especially good. While Mr. Phillips lives in Knox county, just across the line, he says that his taxes are twice as high in Knox as they are in this county and the quality of the land is the same.

Waterloo Gazette: Mrs. Cora E. Meredith, of O'Neill, sister of the editor, was here this week visiting at the Riggs home. Mrs. Meredith was on her way home from Oskaloosa, Ia., and Des Moines, having been at the former place about three weeks with her sister and mother, and also visited the old home at Eddyville a short time. She left Thursday morning for home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell returned last Sunday evening from Omaha where they had gone to bring back the car Mr. O'Donnell bought a couple of weeks ago. The car had not arrived and they were compelled to come back without it. Jim says they have now got to deliver the car in this city and looks for a man to drive in the latter part of the week behind the wheel of his car.

Last Monday Henry Bousch of Saratoga township filed as a candidate for the democratic nominee for supervisor from the First district. This makes the second candidate that has filed for the nomination in this district, Fred Siebert, also of Saratoga township, having filed for the republican nomination a couple of weeks ago. F. O. Hammerberg is the present member of the board from this district.

A. Peterson, one of the hustling farmers of Shields township, was a caller last Monday extending his subscription. Mr. Peterson came to this county and filed upon his farm on May 3, 1883, so that he has been a resident of this county for thirty-one years. He was of the opinion that he had put in sufficient time upon the farm, and as he has accumulated a nice juicy little pile of the "long green" since his arrival in this county, this spring he rented his farm and as soon as he finishes the improvements he is now making thereon will move to this city where he expects to build a home and take life easy during the balance of his allotted time upon earth.

O'Neill is now listed as one of the important Nebraska towns in the directory of the Western Union as it has an up-town office. Last Saturday the furniture and wires were installed in the Brown cigar store and are all ready for business. Mr. Brown is an old telegraph operator and will have charge of the up-town station. It is something that O'Neill has needed for a number of years and we predict that the Western Union will notice a material increase in their business in this city as a result of the new station.

A man had borrowed some money from a friend and refused to give it up. There had been no witnesses to the transaction. When the lender sued the borrower took advantage of his constitutional rights of not testifying against himself, with the result that the lender could not recover. When they met on the street some time later the lender ran up to the borrower and shouted: "I've got four witnesses anyway who know that I loaned you the money. God and I know and the devil and you know it."

T. V. Golden and Parnell went down to Lincoln last Sunday morning, where they will spend a few days visiting and will also look after some business matters in Omaha before returning home.

Sheridan county was visited by a heavy fall of snow last Monday night. It was quite cold here but heavy clouds prevented a frost that would have done serious damage to the fruit crop.

A heavy frost visited this section last Tuesday night and fruit growers are afraid that it has killed the fruit crop. Most of the early varieties of fruit were in full bloom and the frost probably killed the blossoms.

Last Saturday was a very warm day and about every one you met on the street had to remind you of the fact that "it was very hot." We heard it so often during the afternoon that we imagined it was warmer than it really was.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Parker left yesterday afternoon for Spencer, in their reliable touring car, and will spend a few days visiting relatives and looking after business matters in that village and surrounding territory.

F. J. Dishner returned Monday evening from a couple of weeks visit at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Frank says that popular resort is well patronized this spring and that there are an unusually large number of residents of Nebraska there.
