

MR. DEPOSITOR:

We invite you to Deposit your funds in this bank for the reason that all depositors are protected by the Depositors' Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

That the Deposits are amply protected in State Banks was exemplified in the failure of the State Savings Bank of Superior, Nebraska, a few months ago. Shortly after the bank closed the depositors were paid in full, together with interest up to the time the bank suspended payment.

At the same time the First National Bank of Superior failed and up to this time the depositors have not received a cent, and prospects of ever receiving a substantial portion of their deposits are not very bright.

The harvest of the farmers and stockmen is now at hand and they will soon be disposing of their products and will want to deposit their surplus funds.

Kindly keep this bank in mind, as this is the only bank in O'Neill operating under the Guarantee Law of the State of Nebraska.

We understand that there was a heavy hail storm in the vicinity of Emmet yesterday afternoon, that done considerable damage to corn. The storm covered but a small area. There was also heavy hail in the south country, about ten miles south of this city. We understand that hail fell there for twenty minutes and that some hail was as large as walnuts. A little hail fell in this city about five o'clock, but there was no wind with it and no damage resulted therefrom.

A newspaper coming into your home is such an intimate part of your daily life that you should choose it as you would a friend. First, you want one in which you have implicit confidence. Even with a friend you are more watchful in matters in which he has a self-interest. Why not more so in the case of a newspaper? The State Journal is the one state paper that does not have some sort of personal interest in political affairs, its owners and publishers not being office-holders or office-seekers. Why not choose such a paper? Just to show you how different The Journal is, it will be mailed from now until Jan.

1, 1915, for only $1, including the Sunday Journal. This is a great reduction just for a trial and the paper will stop when the time is up. Send in your order today and the paper will start at once. Address State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

Hall, who had been elected secretary of the Holt County Fair Association, resigned and his place was filled by the selection of P. J. Donohoe to that position. At the conclusion of the Fair meeting the O'Neill Commercial Club held a meeting and elected officers for the ensuing year. T. V. Golden was elected president; O. O. Snyder, vice president and J. P. Golden, secretary. This was one of the most interesting meetings ever held by the Club.
