decided to locate here. He will open a fancy grocery and meat market here and expects to close a deal for a suitable business building today or tomorrow. Mr. Dunn has been engaged in the meat business for years and says that he expects to give O'Neill one of the neatest and most up-to-date markets in the entire west. O'Neill's school facilities was one of the greatest cards that finally prompted him to locate in this city. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Dunn to O'Neill and hopes that his business expectations will be realized.

The contest for base ball honors between Boston, champions of the National league, and Philadelphia, champions of the American league and present champions of the world, will commence in Philadelphia tomorrow, and the result will be eagerly watched for by thousands of sport lovers throughout the country. O'Neill sports have made arrangements to secure the game by innings and those desiring to witness this contest can do so by visiting Brown's cigar store tomorrow afternoon, shortly after 1 o'clock. In this city, like nearly every other place, most of the base ball lovers are pulling for Boston to win, although they are afraid that Philadelphia with their greater experience in world's series, will probably cop the honors and the big end of the purse that goes with it. In our humble opinion Boston has a chance to win, although the talent are figuring the American champions at about three to one. With a three to one bet Boston should be the favorite on the showing they have made during the past three months. But boys there is a long hard winter coming on and pork chops are high. We can tell you more about our predictions next week, when the contest will have been decided.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mrs. Roger McGinnis, of Cody, Wy-

day evening and defeated the High School team of this city by a score of 19 to 7. The Brown county boys threw a scare into the locals in the first ten minutes of the game by walking right through their line for a touchdown, but after they had scored the locals got over their scare and held them safe at all stages of the game, their goal never being in danger after that. O'Neill High has a splendid team this year and the boys should be encouraged by liberal patronage from the people of the city. Attend the game tomorrow and by your attendance help encourage the team of 1914 to add new laurels to their crown.

The county board at their regular session on September 23, 1914, allowed the Holt County Fair Association the state appropriation of $875.00, which is allowed for the support of county fairs. On October 2nd, William Lell and Charles Conarro, acting as citizens and taxpayers of Holt county and in behalf of the South Fork Agricultural Society filed objection against the delivery of the warrant for the amount to the officers of the Holt County Fair Association and deposited a bond with the county clerk to protect their appeal. The case is now in district court and will be tried on October 17. Attorney C. H. Stowell, of Chambers, and Brome and Brome, of Omaha, are looking after the interests of the objectors.

At the regular meeting of Charles Carrollton Council, Knights of Columbus held last Wednesday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Golden, Grand Knight; H. E. Coyne, Deputy Grand Knight; D. H. Cronin, Chancellor; Neil P. Brennan, Recording Secretary; H. J. Hammond, Financial Secretary; John H. Hickey, Warden; W. H. Hart, Inside Guard; John Kane, Outside Guard; F. J. Biglin, Trustee. The members decided to put on a class either the last Sunday in November or the first Sunday in December. Several applications have been already received and the officers and members of the local council expect to have at least fifty new members for adoption at that meeting.

J. F. Dunn, of Crofton, Neb., is in the city this week looking over the city with a view to locating here. Mr. Dunn has visited this city three times during the past two months and says that every time he has been here he has become more favorably impressed with the city than he had been upon his former visit and has about de-
