FAMOUS DRAMATIST STONED BY FRENCH

Accuse Rostand and Wife of Cowardice for Fleeing Paris.

Paris, Oct. 5 .- The Intransigeant says that Edmond Rostand, the famous poet and dramatist, his wife and the Countess Noailles, who were induced to leave Paris when the Germans approached on the argument that the enemy would make them hostages, were stoned by a crowd at Chateauroux during an automobile journey to Pierrences.

Mme. Rostand and the countess left Mme, Rostand and the countess left so hurriedly that they traveled in low-cut evening gowns. When they attempted to get dinner at Chatauroux a crowd surrounded and accused them of cowardice. The party left dinnerless amid a shower of brickbats.

The French boxers, Stuber and Adrien Hogan, are wounded. Georges Carpentier, contrary to the English report, is not wounded.

BUSINESS INTERESTS EXERCISING CAUTION

Situation Better But Dealers In All Lines Show Conservatism.

New York, Oct. 5 .- Dun's Review to-

"The abnormal business conditions created by war continue and caution and retrenchment still halt enterprise, and retrenchment still halt enterprise, yet there is a significant growth of confidence. Several factors contribute to this situatitn. Undoubtedly the improvement in the financial markets is slow, but it is steady and the measures taken to permit limited regulations make at least the partial opening of the London and New York exchanges a nearer possibility.

"Another factor is the active export movement of grain.

"Failures for the week in the United States were 415 against 254 last year, and in Canada, 60 against 53 last year.

CANADIAN TROOP MOVEMENT LARGE

31,300 Men and 800 Horses Embark for European War Zone.

Montreal, Oct. 5 .- A correspondent of the Daily Mail has sent from Rimouski the following description of 'he departure of the Canadian troops from

Quebec:
"Thirty-one ships were required to carry the men, the horses and supplies of the overseas expeditionary force. To convoy that number of ships a fleet of 11 war vessels was requisitioned, the whole movement being the largest and most important ever effected on the Atlantite. It was carried out in a splendid manner. The movement from Valcartiers was effected in fine style, and the embarkation and sailing fol-lowed as a part of a well ordered plan. The movement of 31,300 troops and 800 horses was the biggest war action that was performed almost faultlessly.

LONDON IS PREPARED FOR ZEPPELIN ATTACK

London, Oct. 5.—Among themselves, Londoners frankly discuss the possi-bility of a Zeppelin raid over this city. For a month all needless illumina tions and electric signs have been done away with. Such conspicuous affairs as the lighted dome of the Coliseum as the lighted dome of the Coliseum and the row of lights along the Em-bankment, have been put out of com-mission, water even has been drawn from the lake in St. James park, so that it cannot reflect lights.

Manila, P. I., Oct. 5.—The North German Lloyd steamer Mark, which sailed from Yokohama on July 31, for Hamburg and Bremen and touched at Hiago, August 5, is in the habor at Nasugbu, whither she was pursued by a British cruiser.

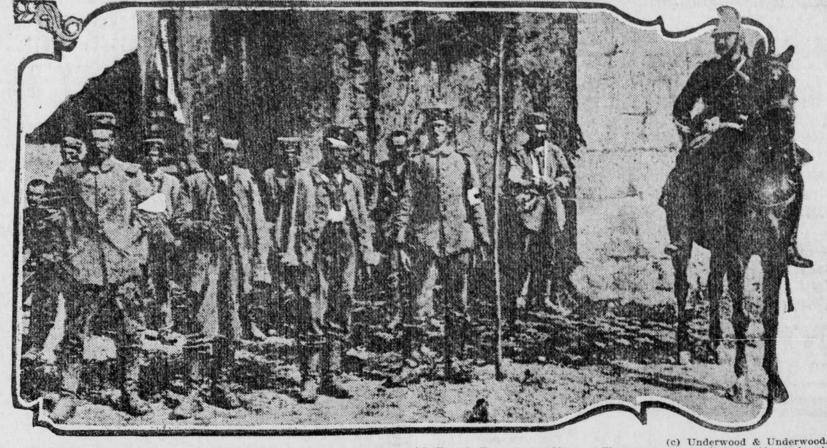

The ship's agents telegraphed here expressing the fear that the vessel would be seized within the three mile limit and the American cruiser Galveston was at once dispatched with orders to observe the situation at Nasugbu closely, but not to communicate with either the cruiser or the British ship unless it was imperative to do so. The local consular officials are in agreement with the Philippine authorities to observe consistently the strictest formalities of neutrality.

FRENCH SHOOT SPIES WITHOUT FORMAL TRIALS

Paris, Oct. 3 .- A French court merrial has begun hearing the case of Germans taken prisoner by the French while in disguise, and on whose persons there have been found objects of value. All German prisoners in French hands thus suspected of pillage are to be tried. Austria Says She's Licking Servia and Serbs Come Right Back With a Counter Claim.

London, Oct. 5.-The first Austrian staff report with any details issued by Field Marshal Potiorek gives flat de nial to the Servians' vivid stories of victory, but it is only fair to say that the Serbs are equally emphatic in giving the lie to the Austrian claims.

According to Field Marshal Potiorek the process of clearing up the Servian litter in the province of Bosnia is progressing apace, while the Austrian of-fensive in Servia is proceeding satisfactorily.

The Servians and their Montenegrin allies, however, maintain that they have Sarajevo the Bosnian capital almost in their grasp.

"The announcement from Servia concerning the annihilation of the Fortieth division of the Hungarian Honved is a further proof of the vivid imagina-tion of the Servians. This division of troops, as the Servians during the last few days have had repeated opportu-nity to learn, is in the best of condition at the battle front and it par-ticipated gloriously in engagements last week at Vichigrad and elsewhere."

AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT

IS CONSIDERING MOVE Rome (via Paris), Oct. 3.—A deep impression has been produced by a report circulating in diplomatic circles here to the effect that the Austrian government, in view of the present ses-sion, is urging Emperor Francis Joseph to transfer the court and seat of gov-ernment either to Prague or Salzburg. It is asserted that the emperor dislikes the project because of the dis-comfort it would produce throughout the empire.

Prague is better adapted for a provisional capital, but it is objected to, it is said, because of hostility of the Bohemians. At Salzburg the emperor would have a magnificent castle as a residence, but there would be poor ac-commodations for the government offi-

One order has been placed at Northampton for the delivery of 109,000 pairs to France before October 25. The short time limit of these contracts shows how imperative is the need.

The war has caused an artificial manufacturing boom throughout England. Where there were formerly hordes of unemployed, factories are running night and day on military supplies. The needs have a wide range and include cannon, shoe strings, razors, traction engines, cartridges, socks, saddles, rations, cloth, uniforms, underclothes, oilskins, bayonets, kitchen equipment, tents, meter trucks, and explosives. tents, metor trucks, and explosives. long as the circumstances warranted.

Close friends of the administration say the bill if passed as desired by Senator Reed and others would be too radical.

Mighty Host of Teutonic and Austrian Soldiers Will Be Massed to Assume Offensive Against Muscovites In Eastern Theater of War-Petrograd Dispatches Continue to Relate Stories of Successes Against the Enemy.

Petrograd, Oct. 5.—Emperor Nicholas, it is announced, has left for the theater of war.

London. Oct. 5.—While Germany is massing four armies to be sent against the Russians intending, it is said, to threaten Warsaw and other Polish centers and regain, if possible, the lost province of Galicia for the Austrians, the new army of the czar is advancing toward the field of action.

The great battle of Cracow, begun yesterday, has been without results, so far as known. Neither side has given out any details of the action in that region, though the Petrograd dispatches state that the Russians have had fur-against the Germans north of that point.

The new army of Emperor Nicholas is on the march, and according to the Petrograd general staff the Russians once more have crossed the German frontier at Szczuczy and Grajewo, Russian Poland. This is conceivably awkward for the German invaders, who are said to be retreating from the Zuwalki district.

The official statement issued by the Berlin war office today makes only brief mention of affairs in the eastern arena of war. It says:

"In the eastern area of the war an advance of Russian forces across the Niemen river against the Germans in the province of Suwalki seems imminent."

The official French statement issued today describes the situation in Prussia and along the Polish border as fol-

"In the Russian field of operations a strong German army of four corps has taken position between the frontier of East Prussia and the River Niemen. "Its left wing has been thrown back on Mariampol and Suwalki. At the cen-ter the city of Agustovo has been taken by the Russians. On the German right wing the struggle continues around Ossovetz (between Lyck and Bielo-stok).

"In Galicia the rear guard of the Austrians has retreated in disorder as far as the Vistula.
"In Bosnia, Servian and Montenegrin columns are advancing on Sarajevo."

GREAT WAR STIRS WEST INDIES TO FUNNY READINESS

All Natives of Tiny and Unheard of Isles Prepare Against German Invasion.

TAKE KINDLY TO THE WAR

Carrying Flintlocks and Riding Bicycles Behind Brass Bands Are Welcome Substitutes to Day Labor.

New York, Oct. 5 .- The steamer Korona today brought a cargo of war tales from the West Indies. Every native there sleeps with his gun under his pillow, said the Korona's sailors. Little specks of island that no one ever heard of north of the Tropic of Cancer are throwing up towering earthworks, and bare footed natives, yesterday's nobodies, are today's generals; roustabouts are soldiers; every town has a guard; every island distrusts every other island. Ten thousand rusty flintlock muskets rule the land, and from the sea comes tales of strange men-of-war threading in and out among the islands, always seeking and never flinding one another.

out among the islands, always seeking and never finding one another.

"This was the war gossip current among sailors from other ports, whom they met in docks at St. Lucia. "One of the interesting things," said Frank De Legarde, the Korona's assistant purser, "was the native guard. Every native on the island is happy these days for he totes a gun, rides on a bicycle, and marches behind a brass band and the government pays for it all.

It's Some Army, Believe Him! it's Some Army, Believe Him!

"Some of the strangest looking bicycles I ever saw have been commandeered by the authorities. Some of away. And the arms they carry are in the same class.

"At Barbadoes, every negro and Chinaman on the island has joined the army. They have what they call a 'life guard' to protect the place. What they are afraid of, I don't know; but I heard that they had been told that the kaiser was planning to send his fleet over and and capture the possessions. That was enough for those natives. They threw up a line of breastworks that the whole of Europe could not take. They fire a cannon every time a ship is whole of Europe could not toke. They fire a cannon every time a ship is sighted. They have burnt up a lot of powder that way, I understand. Whenever that old cannon cuts loose, the army comes, lickety-split for the shore. The line up behind the breastworks with their muzzle loaders and their derringers, and you've got to show them that you don't mean any monkey buslness.

Look Out, Your Majesty!

"At Dominues, near St. Thomas, the natives have built a little fort just to fight the German navy when it does come over. There are not enough white men in Dominues to hold a meeting, and not many more colored. In the center of their fort they have planted center of their fort they have planted a tall flag pole. Every morning at daya tall flag pole, Every morning at day-light a man pulls himself up to the top of that flagpole with a pulley, un-folds a camp stool and sticks there looking out to sea. He is looking for the German navy. Two hours later he comes down and another man takes his place. This has been kept up every day for weeks, from dawn till dark "English, French and German ships chase each other around the islands, and it's no wonder the natives are figgety. At St. Lucia there were 19 ships tied up, all afraid to stir outside the harbor.

"At St. Lucia we saw the Hamburg-

American liner, Spreewald, loaded to the gunwales with prime South Amer-ican beef, was nosing around the islican beef, was nosing around the islands when the Berwick spotted her about daylight one morning. The German boat did not have a chance, so she lay to. When the British were launching their boats to send over a prize crew the Spreewald's captain got busy with the refrigerator and the machinery. He opened up the hatches and shut down the plant, and I heard he fixed it so that a lot of the beef spoiled. Then he threw a wrench into the wireless plant and put that out of commis sion."
