gentlemen in the party will attend the grand lodge session, Mr. Harnish being one of the grand officers.

George Gaughenbaugh started his new flouring mill last Monday and is now making flour at the rate of a barrel an hour. W. K. Craven, a mill-right of Dennison, Texas, has been here the past three weeks installing the machinery and getting the mill in running order. The mill is a small compact one and is turning out a splendid quality of flour. It is what is known as the Midget Marvel, manufactured by the Anglo-American Mill Co., of Owensboro, Ky., and is a new process that is revolutionizing the flour mill business in this country. The mill has a capacity of a barrel an hour, or 296 pounds. The mill is run by an oil engine and Mr. Gaughenbaugh is of the opinion that it is much cheaper power than water, when the up-keep of mill dam and race is taken into consideration. Next Saturday there will be demonstration given at the mill of the flour and the manufacture thereof and the people of this vicinity are cordially invited to visit the mill that day. This mill is somewhat has been needed here for several years and the people of O'Neill and vicinity should lend Mr. Gaughenbaugh encouragement by purchasing "Our Own" flour, the brand of the flour made in the O'Neill mill. The Frontier wishes the new flouring mill and its proprietor success.

For Sale.

360 acres eight miles south of O'Neill, formerly the T. V. Golden land; or will lease for the season of 1915. Price reasonable.—Jones Bros., Owners, Remington, Ind. 16-4

War News Scarce.

The European war still continues to occupy the center of the stage, even to the exclusion of American politics. News of the struggle is very scarce but from what can be learned the armies are still in about the same condition they were a month ago, except that there have been several thousand men killed since then.

A False Report Corrected.

It was reported on the streets last week that I had withdrawn from the race for supervisor. There was some talk of it, I'll admit, that is, for Mr. Sullivan and myself to withdraw and let the committee fill the vacancy, but it "died a bornin'," as the fellow said, so I am still a candidate.

JOHN Q. HOWARD.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers. 16-5

Don't forget the communion service and sermon by Dr. J. M. Bothwell at the M. E. church Sunday morning at 10:30. Sunday school every Sunday at 11:30. We have a place here for every one.—Pastor.

Miss Nellie Payne, who has spent the summer visiting her brother, James Payne north of this city, returned to her home last Sunday morning, being accompanied on the journey by her brother.

George Shoemaker will have a public sale of his personal property, consisting of horses, cattle, hogs and machinery at his farm six and a half miles south of O'Neill, Tuesday, October 27th.

W. H. Decker was up from Page last Tuesday. William says that politics are very quiet in his section of the county, the people being so busy harvesting their splendid corn crop that they have no opportunity to talk politics.

Hon. R. L. Metcalf, formerly governor of the Panama canal zone, arrived in the city this morning and will address the voters of O'Neill and vicinity on the issues of the day from a democratic standpoint at the Opera House to-night.

Col. Neil Brennan was seriously ill the latter part of last week, suffering from a severe attack of stomach trouble. His many friends throughout the county will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering and will be able to be at his accustomed place of business in a few days.

J. E. Biley came into town the forepart of last week wearing the smile that would not come off. Upon being asked the reason for his evident happiness he said that he was the father of a charming young daughter that gave every evidence of being the boss of his home from this time on.

James O'Donnell returned last Saturday morning from his hunting trip to Cherry county. He says that the short chilly spell a couple of weeks ago drove all the native ducks out of the country and as it had not been cold enough to bring in the northern ducks they did not get much shooting. He expects to make another trip later in the season.

Governor Eberhardt, of Minnesota, will address the voters of O'Neill and vicinity on the issues of the day from a republican standpoint at O'Neill on Friday evening, October 30. Governor Eberhardt will deliver three political addresses in this state and O'Neill is fortunate in being one of the cities selected by the state committee for the governor to speak in. The next afternoon he will speak in Neligh and in Fremont the next night.

T. T. Waid was in Friday with a sample of some of the finest potatoes we have ever seen grown in this county, which he raised on his farm east of this city. The potatoes are called "Pat's Choice" and thirty-one of them make a bushel. T. T. says that the name and where they were grown shows that they are the genuine article, the only drawback to their perfect lineage being that they were raised by an Irishman. But he says he has lived so long among the Irish that he is about three-fourths Irish himself.

The case of William Lell, et. al., of Chambers, against the Board of Supervisors in which they sought to have the county board enjoined from paying the state appropriation of $875 to the Holt County Fair Association was tried in the district court last Saturday before Judge Westover. The protestors alleged that the South Fork Fair Association was the eldest association in the county and that they were entitled to the state appropriation. The case occupied the attention of the court all day and was bitterly contested on both sides. The court decided in favor of the Holt County Fair Association, holding that the South Fork Fair Association was never legally organized and therefore not entitled to receive the county appropriation. A motion for a new trial was filed and overruled. Representatives of the Chambers people say that they will appeal the case to the supreme court.

Charles E. Green has filed a petition in the district court asking for a divorce from Amanda Green on the grounds of desertion and adultery. The petition alleges that they were married in David City, Neb., on December 8, 1883, and for more than ten years last have been residents of this county. He alleges that the defendant left her home on August 10, 1914, and is now living at Chadron, Neb., and that she lived in the latter city with one Earl Transue as his wife. He asks for an absolute divorce and the custody of the minor children. His wife, through her attorneys, filed an affidavit in court asking the court to require the plaintiff to pay into the court for her $200 attorney fees; $200 alimony pendente lite, and $100 suit money, in order that she may be able to prepare herself to procure testimony, by deposition and otherwise, in defense of the charges against her contained in the petition filed by plaintiff.

The degree team of Eden Valley Rebekah Lodge, of this city, left Tuesday morning for Grand Island,

Those making the trip are: Mrs. Roy Townsend, Mrs. J. H. Meredith, Mrs. P. Curtis, Mrs. J. H. Peeler, Mrs. J. M. Hunter, Miss Goldie Martin, Miss Mary Waring, Mrs. Harry Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. ## MR. DEPOSITOR:

We invite you to Deposit your funds in this bank for the reason that all depositors are protected by the Depositors' Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

That the Deposits are amply protected in State Banks was exemplified in the failure of the State Savings Bank of Superior, Nebraska, a few months ago. Shortly after the bank closed the depositors were paid in full, together with interest up to the time the bank suspended payment.

At the same time the First National Bank of Superior failed and up to this time the depositors have not received a cent, and prospects of ever receiving a substantial portion of their deposits are not very bright.

The harvest of the farmers and stockmen is now at hand and they will soon be disposing of their products and will want to deposit their surplus funds.

Kindly keep this bank in mind, as this is the only bank in O'Neill operating under the Guarantee Law of the State of Nebraska.
