Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She Newman, Vinnie Newman, his wife, Elmer Newman, Florence Smith, Jacob Smith, her husband, Harry Robinson, a minor over fourteen years, James Robison, a minor over fourteen years, E. J. Ferguson, first and real name unknown, Margaret Anderson, the unknown heirs and devisees of Olive Ferguson, deceased, defendants.

 Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale directed to me by the District Court of Holt county, Nebraska, on the 3rd day of October, 1914, in the above entitled action wherein James W. Anderson is plaintiff and Harriett McAtee and other defendants heretofore named are defendants, commanding me to sell in the manner provided by law the real estate hereinafter described to-wit: Northwest quarter of section Nine, in Township Thirty, North of Range Nine, West of the Sixth Principal Meridian, and to divide the proceeds of said sale among the owners of said real estate according to their respective shares as found by a judgment of partition entered in the above entitled action on the Sixth day of August, A.  Now therefore, by virtue of said judgment and of said order of sale to me directed as aforesaid, and by virtue of the power vested in me by law, and having given bond and taking the oath required by law, I will, on the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the front door of the county court house (that being the place where the last term of District Court in said county was held) in the city of O'Neill, county of Holt, and state of Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand the following described real estate to-wit: Northwest quarter of section Nine, in Township Thirty, North of Range Nine, West of the Sixth Principal Meridian, when and where due attendance will be given by the undersigned. Said sale will remain open one hour.

Pleased With Fauquier's Letter.
 Editor Frontier: I read with a good deal of pleasure the answer of Mr. Fauquier, one of the Supervisors, with reference to the cable to which I called attention in my previous letter; and I for one am glad that some one who had an opportunity to know how some of the things that the board of supervisors is doing, had honor enough to come forward and plainly state it. This shows to me, and undoubtedly to many others that he could at the same time have told what became of the fence, posts, and the rest of the cable; he probably also could tell what became of the storm windows which used to be used on the court house. At the time they were procured as I remembered, they cost the county about

CONGRESSMAN KINKAID FOR RE-ELECTION

Make special effort for development of Western Nebraska. Seeks legislation yet this Congress for guarantee of payment of deposits in national banks; for the making of farm loans at low rates of interest; and for monthly payment of soldiers' pensions.
 Favor economizing in expenditures to avoid the necessity for a war tax. Believe purchase of ships under flags of belligerent nations would constitute violation of neutrality policy. Assume voters have recognized it to be my duty to remain in attendance of the session until adjournment, notwithstanding the campaign is on. Highly appreciative of former generous support, I thank voters for their consideration in the present campaign.

M. P. KINKAID.

Three dollars a window, and there must be some fifty, or sixty windows all told in the building. I remember being present in the Supervisor's office one day, and heard a party ask, "Who had charge of those storm windows, that he decided to get some of them if not all to use for a hot-bed sash." The reply was made, all right they would go out and see. I thought no more about this circumstance until a few days ago I was at the court house and a remark was made that they were glad the board would soon be in session as it was necessary to get new storm sash before cold weather set in. Probably Mr. Fauquier can explain this transaction, if not, maybe he can prevail upon some of the other members to do so; and while he is explaining, probably he can and will explain what has become of a resolution drawn up, reconsidering and rescinding an order of the board before that time made, illegally and unlawfully allowing a claim for between Four and Five hundred dollars, and ordering the clerk to issue a warrant therefore. This resolution was signed by every member of the board except one, and at the time it was shown me it was stated it would be put on record at the next meeting of the board about two weeks later. I have already stated to the board personally that if they allowed this claim to be paid by warrant, an effort would be made to recover it from them on their official bond, and now state this fact publicly, so that no complaint can be made that they were not advised of the true condition of affairs. It may be true that anything I may have said through the papers is not worthy the consideration or reply of any self respecting or honorable gentleman, but let me assure Mr. Fauquier that when he is called into court he will make reply to some things that I have spoken about, and he will then find out perhaps, that the board of supervisors do not sit as a court of equity, but rather as a limited court, whose duties and powers are pointed out specifically by the statute, and that they must keep within that limitation or pay the penalty.

You are interested, almost as much as we are, in extending the use of the Safe Home Match.

It is the most reliable, the most efficient and the safest match that can be made. It is absolutely non-poisonous. It is made under conditions that forever do away with one of the worst of occupational diseases. It removes a poison from the reach of children in American homes.

We ask you to use this new non-poisonous match and to urge others to do likewise. If Safe Home Matches were universally used, scores of lives and millions of dollars worth of property would be saved every year.

Gleanings.

F. A. Hatch bought Clarence Simonson's automobile and will have a few joy rides this pleasant fall. I understand Calmer Simonson has bought a new car; so has Adam Martin. There are also some others in this vicinity who are planning on buying an auto some time in the near future. That is taken to indicate the prosperity of the farmers. It also shows that the farmers have begun to realize the value of the car as a time saver when they wish to go to town for a few groceries, and incidentally a few repairs for their farm machinery in the busy season.
 C. P. Siders has finished up the last of the threshing in this vicinity today, and the yield of oats and rye was very good this season.
 W. S. Roberts, the up-to-date farmer and rancher, has equipped his farm with a complete water works system and will have hot and cold running water in his house all the year around. He has also bought a furnace which he has installed in his basement to heat up his house in cold weather. He is certainly an enterprising man and we are wondering who will be first to follow his lead.
 Edward Norwood is teaching the school in the Berger district this fall and winter, and the patrons of the district like him fine. The new school house in the Berger district was just completed a short time ago, and adds very much to the attractiveness of the village of Opportunity. Just watch us grow.

Just a little over two weeks until election day. Let every voter be sure to go and go early, as we understand that the ballot is a rather complicated affair, and you will need a little extra time to study it. Vindicate your conscience at the polls, and discharge your duty as a public spirited citizen.
