The governor is said to be a very pleasing speaker and those desiring to hear a good address are invited to attend.

Thomas McMahon, of Timber Lake, S. D., arrived in the city last Sunday being called here by the serious illness of his father, who has been quite ill the past two weeks. Mr. McMahon is a little better the past few days and hopes are now entertained for his complete recovery. Tom says that things are quite lively in his section of South Dakota. They had a good crop the past year and things are generally in a flourishing condition.

Ben McKathnie, one of the pioneers of western Holt county and an old time Frontier reader, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters yesterday, extending his subscription to this household necessity. Mr. McKathnie has retired from the farm, where he spent many years, and is now taking life easy in Atkinson. He returned a couple of weeks ago from an extended western trip and says that Holt county looks better to him since his return than it ever did before, and he has lived here over thirty years.

At the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held at Grand Island last week, J. C. Harnish, of this city, was elected to the position of Grand Master, the highest position in the order in this state. This is the second time that a member of the O'Neill lodge has been selected as the head of the order and speaks well for the activity of the membership of the order here in the councils of Odd Fellowship in the state. The Frontier tenders Mr. Harnish and the members of the local lodge its congratulations upon the election of Mr. Harnish. O'Neill people always make good.

C. E. Pickering, of Kearney, Neb., Deputy Grand Master Workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, has been in the city the past two weeks working in the interests of the Order. Mr. Pickering is meeting with splendid success and has already secured fifteen applications for membership in the local lodge and expects to secure at least fifteen more before the class is initiated, November 10. He is one of the most successful solicitors in the fraternal life insurance field and during the past two months has put in good classes in the lodges at Ewing and Inman. He says there is a splendid field for work in this section of the state and will make his headquarters in this city until January 1st.

The Rebekah's will give a Chicken Pie supper next Tuesday (Election) night from 5:30 to 9:00 o'clock and oyster stews from that on to midnight, in the old Land Office building.

Reiser-Armstrong.

Married, at the Catholic church last Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating, Charles Reiser, of Catalpa, to Miss Mary Armstrong, of this city, in the presence of a few of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Armstrong, of this city, and was born and grew to womanhood in this vicinity. For several years she has been one of Holt county's most successful teachers. She is a winsome and charming young lady who has a large circle of friends in O'Neill and vicinity.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reiser, pioneer residents of northwestern Holt and among the largest ranchers in the county. He is a young man of sterling integrity and very popular with his acquaintances throughout the county.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple repaired to the home of the bride's mother in this city where a splendid four course wedding breakfast was served. The bride and groom left on the morning train for a honeymoon trip to Denver and other western points and upon their return will make their home upon the farm of the groom in northwestern Holt.

The Frontier joins the large number of friends of this happy young couple in wishing them long life, happiness and prosperity.

Lodge Entertains Grand Master Harnish.

Elkhorn Valley Lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F. had one of its "Good Fellowship" meetings last Wednesday night. The meeting was a joint meeting of the subordinate and Rebekah lodges, both joining in a reception to J. C. Harnish, who was elected Grand Master of Nebraska at the recent session of the Grand Lodge held at Grand Island.

After a bounteous spread a number of speeches were made, Past Grand Master J. H. Meredith acting as toastmaster. The speakers of the evening were: Past Grand Master O. O. Snyder, C. J. Malone, of Inman, Past Grand Weekes, Representative to the Grand Lodge Dr. Pettibone, and Grand Secretary I. P. Gage, of Fremont, all responded in a feeling manner by Grand Master Harnish, who starts out in his official capacity as Grand Master under the most favorable conditions.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Nebraska has some 350 subordinate lodges with some 30,000 members, over which he has jurisdiction. It is certainly a recognition worthy of note when Elkhorn Valley Lodge, of O'Neill, has had chosen from its membership by the Grand Lodge two grand masters within a period of a few years.

Elkhorn Valley Lodge No. 57, of O'Neill, was instituted March 26, 1876, over thirty-eight years ago, and is one of the best subordinate lodges in the jurisdiction, and has enjoyed a reputation for degree work second to none, and the Grand Lodge justly recognized the worth of the lodge by having selected as its executive officer two of its members, Past Grand Master O. O. Snyder, who was elected in 1889, and J. C. Harnish, who has just been elected.
