Words Don't Describe Glacier National Park

If your tour the Pacific Coast this summer, this is your chance to visit Glacier National Park, on the Great Northern Railway, and if you are plann ing a vacation in the Rocky Mountains you will never know their magnificence until you have spent two or three days in Glacier; this region is the indescribable climax of the grandeur of the Rockies. Here you penetrate into localities of mountain lakes and forests; you see actual sources of cascades and W. Roberts, Sarah Bigford ,and huswaterfalls from melting glaciers; you zigzag over mountain shoulders along band, Samuel M. Bigford, Lulu Sullifinely built government trails that yield to the beholder from viewpoints one or two miles high, such scenic and bizarre perspectives, embracing canyons and mountain sides of multicolored walls, broad expanses of weird topography in countluess hues, that word-painting or any kind of painting seems cheap and futile. This is indeed a perfectly delightful vacation region—with modand futile. This is indeed a perfectly delightful vacation region-with modern hotels and fascinating chalets, trout streams, horseback trails, a fifty-mile automobile road that takes you right into the heart of this silent enchantment. Preparing For Peace.

St. Louis Globe Democrat: It can readily be imagined that the address President Hibben of Princeton made before the Lake Mohonk Conference and after its passage approval and created the greatest sensation in the recollection of the oldest members. This conference has for its concern the protection of dependent peoples. Its addresses have usually been made by professional humanitarians, who have dwelt on the woes of the Indians, negroes and Filipinos. Of late years NOTICE OF CHATTEL MORTGAGE universal peace advocates have painted kinson, Neb. for it pictures of the millennium, when FOR SALE-HOUSE AND ONE altruism shall have full sway and nations shall make war no more forever. These doctrines are being widely inculcated by the spoken wordand the printed page. The president of Degen to secure the payment of $6,889.17 and upon which there is now due the sum of $5,726.30, default having been made in the payment of said and he has outlined peace programs for use in all public schools of the country. As a result the number of people who dwell in security of dreams is constantly growing.

> Realizing all this, Dr. Hibben, speaking as a student of history, gave a salutary warning. He reminded the conference of a few fundamental facts of human nature. Just now "the most insignificent accident may chance to precipitate for us a national catastraint of passion, long suffrance, sacrifice of material wealth and of every personal convenience and comfort are not too great a price to pay for peace." But like every other self-respecting man he insists that we cannot trade he subscribe to the fatuous view that good humor and helplessness will be sufficient guarantee for petace. He wouldnot prepare for war, but he would prepare for peace. Militarism has in it the idea . of aggression. Jingoism means eagerness to fight. But men who fear that we may have to fight, and who deplore our lack of who, like Dr. Hibben, have retad the history of our own and other countries of the world. Dr. Hibben choose the
