but now practicing law at Fremont, was united in marriage to a Fremont girl at Denver last week. His bride was for ten years a clerk in the county judge's office at Fremont and is said to be one of Fremont's most charming young ladies. The groom's many O'Neill friends tender congratulations.

J. L. Shanner of Page was transacting business in this city yesterday. Mr. Shanner says that he has the finest field of oats this year that he ever seen in this or any other county. He says the field is splendid to look at as the grain stands up so nice and even that it looks as if a man could walk on top of the heads. He is looking for a record-breaking yield from this field.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Boggs and children returned Monday night from a couple of weeks visit at the home of her parents at Clear Lake, Iowa. Mr. Boggs says that they have had too much water in Iowa and that corn is as backward there as it is in this section. A large amount of the small grain has been lodged, on account of the excessive rains, and farmers will be unable to cut it.

Mort Schuller has filed suit in the district court asking $20,000.00 damages from the Northwestern railroad company for injuries alleged to have been received while in the employ of the company at Norfolk last March. His right foot was crushed in a turn table that he was operating and in his petition, he says that on account of the injuries there received will never be able to perform manual labor and asks judgment for the above amount with costs of suit.

It is said that arrangements have been about completed for a match between Joe Stecker, the Dodge, Neb., farmer boy and Frank Gotch, the Humbolt, Iowa, farmer and champion wrestler of the world, for the championship. Arrangements are about completed for the match to be pulled off in Omaha on labor day, September 7. If this match is pulled off in Omaha the Nebraska metropolis will see the largest crowd within its borders that ever assembled at a sporting event in the country. It will be Nebraska against Iowa and the Nebraska boys will go the limit upon their favorite.

JORDAN'S STORE NEWS.

Get our prices on binding twine before you buy and you can see by it, as well as many other articles we handle, that it pays to pay cash.

We are selling goods so cheap that most people ask whether the goods are all right or not. We sell nothing but guaranteed goods. But our prices are less on account of our small selling expense and cash basis.

We have two or three nice loads of kindling we would like to dispose of, nice for this kind of weather when you want a quick fire. Don't you need a good second hand Range. We have one that is a bargain.

We can make 30c look like a dollar.
