"The Spoilers."

In days gone by the thrifty, energetic press agent of theatrical entertainments could only cry the virtues of his entertainment in advance of its appearance. Times have changed, the representatives of big moving picture concerns are setting a new fashion. They appear with a copy of their entertainment in advance of its appearance and through the courtesy of Martin and Estes, the newspaper fraternity were given the opportunity of witnessing at the Press Club, Mr. W.

N. Selig's mammoth production, in three acts and nine parts, of Rex Beach's famous novel, "THE SPOILERS." We were invited, we attended, and this is what we saw, vivid scenes, strong action, picturing the passions of true men, dance hall scenes in the Alaskan frontier towns, wanton murder in the streets of Nome, the seizure of the valuable mine, the Midas, by a political boss, the organization of vigilantes, the blowing up of this valuable mine, gambling hall scenes, the awful night Helen Chester, a pure, innocent girl, spent in the Roadhouse alone with the passion crazed Struve, then that terrible barefisted fight between two hate maddened men, the coming of the law, and the onward march of civilization to a barren rugged country, all of which has gone to form part of history. All of these scenes and many others were wonderfully, graphically and interestingly portrayed. "THE SPOILERS" is really a wonderful picture, and now the O'Neill public will have an opportunity to witness this thrilling, powerful picture for it is to receive its initial presentation at the Royal Theatre, and is to remain for an engagement of one day starting Monday, September 13, 1915.

When one considers that "THE SPOILERS" in book form when first published, sold for $1.50, and was the largest of the six big sellers of its time; requiring six hours of one's time to read and thoroughly digest; the best seats for the play of the same name sold for cost $1.50, taking three hours for presentation—and those who have seen the play, read the book and witnessed the picture proclaim the picture superior to both; the picture being exhibited for one-sixth the price which the book sold for in the first edition, requiring only two hours of one's time to thoroughly digest the entire story, one will readily realize that the moving picture business is worthy and deserving of its prominence, its importance, and educational value. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.

"I have tried most all of the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harner, Montpelier, Ind. When you have a cold give this remedy a trial and see for yourself what a splendid medicine it is. Obtainable everywhere.

Kola Items.

W. L. Handy, who suffered from a stroke of paralysis a couple of weeks ago, died at his home near Kola last Thursday from where he was taken to Wood Lake, Neb., for burial. His daughter, Mrs. Ed. Welton, also her brother and sister from Spokane and North Yakama, Wash., attended the funeral.

Walter Fray and family of Ellensburg, Wash., visited for a week at the home of J. Pfund. Mrs. Fray being a daughter of Mr. Pfund.

The Kola school begins next Monday with Evert Lis as teacher. J. Pfund took his daughter, May, to Atkinson Friday from where she visited her brother, Jacob and wife at Norfolk and there on to York, Neb., where she enters school for the coming year.

Suggest A Name.

Two dollars will be given to the person who suggests the accepted title for the new Golf Links. Each person will be limited to five names. In case accepted name is received from two or more persons the first one received will be the one to win first. All names must be presented or mailed to the secretary on or before Monday night, September 13.

E. M. GALLAGHER, Secretary.

More Local Matters.

Roy Spindler and Ralph Pinkerman of Meek, marketed hogs in the city yesterday.

Miss Mayme Coffee went to Omaha the first of the week to spend a short time visiting with friends.

B. P. Smith of Ewing came up yesterday with Boslaw & Versaw, contractors, of Ewing, who were in the city looking after a contract for the building of the new M. E. church.

Misses Loretta and Myrtle McKeegan of Walthill were visiting at the home of John Hickey the first of the week. Miss Loretta returned home Tuesday morning while Miss Myrtle will remain here and attend the convent for the coming school year.

The Ladies of the M. E. church will have their regular Food Exchange on Saturday, September 11, at Morrison's Store. Will have plenty of good things to eat—fried spring chicken, roasted or fresh, cakes, pies, doughnuts, cookies, bread and baked beans. If you can't come, telephone your order early. Attend the Woman's Civic Club Street Carnival at Atkinson, September 16, 17 and 18.

To the one giving me the best Holt county Farm Loan, not the largest, but the best farm loan on my fifteen year and six months amortization plan, before September 21st, I will give a family ticket, including team and automobile, for the entire four days of the Holt County Fair.

Everyone placing a farm loan with me, large or small, I will give a family ticket, good for one day to the Holt County Fair

ANOTHER LINK WITH CREIGHTON.

Creighton Citizens Add Their Praise. Another link with our neighboring town of Creighton is provided in the following grateful and generous statement of a well-known resident there, Mr. Fred C. Schneider, retired farmer, who says: "I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and was in such bad shape that I could not move without pain. The kidney secretions caused me annoyance, especially at night and I had rheumatic pains in my back and shoulders. Colds aggravated the trouble and made me feel miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me and in a short time I was able to do my work without suffering."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Schneider had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
