O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1915.

NUMBER 16.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Charles McKenna is in Norfolk this week where he is sitting as a juror in federal court.

Attorney W. J. Hammond was looking after some legal matters in Atkinson last Saturday.

Services will be held at the St. John's Church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.—Rev. Ullerich, Pastor.

Mrs. Sopha Alberts returned home Wednesday after a three month's visit in Omaha and Fondulac, Wis.

Mrs. F. M. Pixley returned last week from Brainard, Minnesota, where she had spent the summer visiting relatives.

Margaret London of Danton, S. D., and Anna Langdon of Spencer were in the city last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hartly.

The time for holding the evening services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday has been changed to 7:30 instead of at 8 o'clock as formerly.

Cecil Deeder and Miss Martha Schifflin, both of Atkinson, were united in marriage by Judge Carlon at the county court room last Saturday.

Attorney W. J. Hammond went to Burwell last Tuesday morning to attend the session of the district court of Garfield county, in session at Burwell this week.

Dr. William and Bernard Haller and William Cheeley of Blair, visited K. A. Pound in this city a few days last week while on their way to Wood Lake on a hunting trip.

Ed. Nolan of Butte, Mont., arrived in the city last Thursday afternoon for a short visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Sullivan east of this city, and his uncle, County Treasurer M. R. Sullivan.

Ben McKathnie of Atkinson, one of the pioneers of western Holt, was in the city last week attending the Holt County Fair and made a short call at this office extending his subscription to this household necessity.

John Timmerman and Miss Sarah Clark, both of Page, were united in marriage by County Judge Carlon at the county court room yesterday afternoon. They will make their home on the farm of the groom north of Page.

Edward Gallagher left last Sunday morning for New Haven, Conn., where he will enter Harvard college for the ensuing year. Edward says that he will see at least one of the world's series ball games if it is at all possible to do so.

Harry Dowling of Harlan, Iowa was in the city the first of the week looking after his interests in this section and visiting old-time friends. Harry says that corn in just as backward in Iowa as it is here, on account of the excessive wet weather.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sullivan are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter at their home who took up her residence with them last Monday night. The mother and little girl are getting along nicely and Mike now wears the smile that won't come off.

Mary D. Smith of Olewein, Iowa, arrived here Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Clarence Simonson, to see the Holt County Fair and look over her land in Saratoga Township. Miss Smith says the crops around here are away ahead of the crops around Olewein.

F. J. Manchester was in from his ranch in the northern part of the county last Thursday. Frank says that he has in stack seventy-five tons of alfalfa hay, which he put up from twenty-five acres. This amount of alfalfa would pay interest on twenty-five acres of $500 land. Alfalfa is one of the great crops of this county and farmers who have planted liberally of this crop the past few years are now reaping their reward.

P. J. Kennedy and Jane Garrity of Elkador, Iowa, arrived in the city last Thursday night for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Horiskey. Mr. Kennedy is a brother of Mrs. Horiskey, while Mr. Garrity is her brother-in-law. This was their first visit to this section and they were very agreeably surprised with the appearance of the country. They say that the corn in their portion of Iowa was killed by a heavy frost the latter part of August.

William Hunter of Rockport, Mo. was in the city last week visiting at the home of his son, W. V. Hunter north of this city. Mr. Hunter left for home Sunday morning and was accompanied as far as Omaha by his son, who is going back to the hospital to receive further treatment for his foot which became infected by stepping on a rusty nail something like a year ago. This is his fourth trip to Omaha for treatment and he hopes that the physicians there will be able to effect a cure this trip.

Rev. G. W. Bruce returned last Tuesday night from Cherokee, Iowa, where he was called by a message a week ago announcing that his mother was seriously burned. The burns resulted fatal, Mrs. Bruce passing away last Thursday morning. She was burning some rubbish in the street next to the curb line. She watched it for a time and thought it was about all out when she turned and started for the house. Her skirt caught fire and she was terribly burned before the flames could be extinguished. This was on Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock and she lingered until Thursday morning when death put an end to her suffering. She was fifty-two years of age and had many friends here where she visited her son the past summer.

THE LAST PRIZE VOTE OFFER

This is the Last Prize Vote Offer in the Great Automobile Contest. By Taking Advantage of the Offer this Week Candidates Can Send their Votes into the Millions. All Prize Ballots are Added to the Regular Schedule.

HUNDRED THOUSAND VOTES FOR 3 TEN YEAR SUBSCRIPTIONS

Fifty Thousand Extra Votes For Every Club of Three Five Year Subscriptions and Fifty Thousand Extra Votes For Every $20.00 Turned in That is Not Included in Above Three Offers—This is the Last Offer of Special Votes and Candidates Should Make the Most of Their Opportunity.

This week you have the last offer of extra votes of the contest. It is the offer that will show who are the hardest workers and one that will go a long way in deciding who will win the Maxwell. It is the offer that will get big results and will give the workers a chance to head all others in the contest. Popularity has had its day and now the question has come down to the final point of whether you are the best worker or not. It is up to you this week to make use of every moment you have during the week to get votes. You should get your friends out and have them hustle for you. Do not stop at one club for you cannot get too many votes. Every day should mean at least one club to you, if you do not get more. Get out after the big result and do not accept "no" for an answer. There are hundreds of dollars in every part of the county that can be secured if you get right after the people and get it. There are but few left in the contest now and you can be the winner if you make use of this offer good and strong.

This is absolutely the last offer of extra votes that will be made during the contest. After the next report is made, next week, the ballot box will be sealed and the key will be turned over to one of the judges and thereafter the candidates will place their list in the ballot box with the money or check for the amount of subscriptions turned in, and no one but themselves will know the amount they turn in until the judges open the ballot box and count the votes on Wednesday night, October 13. The judges will be three business men of O'Neill and their names will be announced next week.

You should get to work now in earnest and keep at it until the contest closes. There are probably 500 people in your neighborhood that would take the paper if you would go to them and show them where their subscription would greatly assist you in winning the car. You should impress upon the people that it is necessary for you to have their votes. They will be for you if you are strongly into the work for yourself, but they are not for you unless you are for yourself. Show the proper enthusiasm and that will get results. It is anybody's car yet. Make a winning for yourself now while you can. Work every day and win, or sit idly by and see your opponent take the equivalent of $685.00 right out from under your nose.

Here Is The Offer.

Between the dates of September 29th and Wednesday, October 6th we will give 100,000 extra votes for every club of three ten year subscriptions, 50,000 extra votes for every club of three five year subscriptions, and 50,000 extra votes on every $20.00 turned in, that is not included in the first two offers. Make use of this offer. Three ten year subscriptions will give you 100,000 extra votes; you should be able to get at least one club of ten year subscriptions. Then for a club of three five year subscriptions you will receive 50,000 extra votes. There is not a contestant in the race who cannot secure two or three clubs of five year subscriptions. Then in addition to this for every $20 turned in, not included in above offer, you will be allowed 50,000 extra votes. Now the question is, who will get the most clubs?

Don't.

Do not get discouraged for now is the time to back up your work with courage and not despair. Make every moment count for we know full well that there is not a contestant in the race at the present time but what has winning qualities. You can win so go after the work with a renewed energy and work to beat the hand. You can do what others have done and we have seen many a contestant that was a way down on the list at this stage of the game come to the front and win simply because they backed up their work with courage and not despair. Keep a stiff upper lip and go to win.

Below is the standing for this week up to Wednesday night at 8 p. m. There is a little widening among some of the candidates which goes to show that these people failed to take advantage of last week's extra vote offer. However at that there is a grand opportunity for anyone that cares to make use of this week to come to the lead. There is no one in the race that cannot be beaten out this week. During the rush last week the name of Miss Simmons was inadvertently omitted from the list of contestants. We regret the error very much but it is one of these things that will occasionally happen. She has made a splendid gain during the past two weeks.

J. C. Murphy	771,000
Viola Morgan	732,750
M. Simmons	565,500
John Hanley	439,000
Homer Mullen	371,000

Holt County Fair.

The Holt County Fair closed its second annual exhibition last Friday afternoon. While the weather was not ideal for a fair, it was much better than we have had this week, and the officers of the association were fortunate in that respect.

The fair was a success. While the attendance was not as large as expected, nor as it would have been with favorable weather, there was a splendid exhibition and there was splendid amusement furnished the people that attended. The receipts were sufficient to pay all premiums and purses and they will have a little money left to apply on the improvements that were made this year. The officers of the association worked hard to make it a success and it was not their fault that the weather man did not smile a little more brightly upon their efforts.

They have splendid buildings now and there is no reason why Holt county could not have as good a fair as any county in the state. We raise the necessary material to exhibit and farmers should see to it that they have exhibits at the fair. The fair belongs to the people of the county and with liberal support can be made one of the greatest attractions in this portion of the state.

The ball games were the center of attraction, in the sporting line, during the three days and the hustling little village of Emmet walked away with the championship of the county. But it was a fight, boy, they had to scrap for every game, which made it very interesting to the spectators.

Emmet Beats Atkinson.

The game Thursday afternoon was between Atkinson and Emmet. The latter having won on the two previous days was the favorite with the sporting element, but Atkinson looked the strongest on paper. Denny, who has been twirling for Emmet the past month, was on the mound for Emmet and deserved the victory his team won. He pitched a good game, allowing seven hits, and fanning six, holding the Atkinson team to two runs, both of which were earned runs.

Hoffman, one of the Lincoln Western League pitchers, was on the mound for Atkinson. Hoffman pitched a good game, but from the score sheet was not entitled to the victory as Emmet succeeded in making three earned runs, one of them being the result of a wild pitch. He held Emmet to seven hits, but two of them and a double, coming in the first inning, gave Emmet two scores and they were never headed. He fanned nine men. He was defeated by the opposition bunching their hits.

Emmet started scoring in the very first inning. After Douglas had been retired by the fan route, Rose secured a hit; Forsythe rolled one to the pitcher and Rose was thrown out at second; Rouse secured a double on the first ball pitched and Forsythe scored; Stuart then drove a single into right field and Rouse scored; Corey retired the side going out third to first. Nothing more in the run line until the eighth inning, although Rouse secured another double in the third, but died on second. In the eighth Rose, first up, secured a single; Forsythe secured his first hit of the series and Rose took third, scoring on a wild pitch, Forsythe taking second; Forsythe scored on a sacrifice fly by Rouse to center. That ended the scoring as the next two fanned.

Nothing doing for Atkinson until the third inning, although Cox secured a double in the second after two were down and died on second. Weber opened the third by connecting for three sacks; Raymer sent one to center for a single, Weber scoring. Doering rolled one to first and Raymer was thrown out at second; McKee walked, Doering taking second. Clare sent a long fly to center which Forsythe grabbed after a hard run and doubled Doering at second. It was one of the best plays of the game. The fourth inning opened auspiciously for Atkinson but there was nothing doing. Leahy opened with a single but was doubled at second when Hoffman rolled an easy one to short. Cox retired the side by going out on a pop fly to first. Atkinson secured their second and last score in the fifth, tying up the game. Kirkland walked; Weber fanned but Raymer connected for a single, Kirkland taking third; Doering went out on a fly to center, Kirkland scoring and Raymer taking third; McKee was given a life on an error by third, Raymer going to third; Clare went out from third to first, retiring the side. Atkinson had an opportunity to get the jump on them in the eighth inning, but poor base running put them out of it; Doering opened the inning with a hit; the next two were easy outs; Leahy connected for a hit, Doering taking third; Hoffman rolled one to short which was fumbled but he recovered the ball in time to get Doering at the plate when he attempted to score on the fumble. They went out in order in the next inning and the game was over.

Score by innings:
Emmet.....2 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—4
Atkinson.....0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0—2
Hits: Emmet, 7; Atkinson, 7. Errors: Emmet, 2; Atkinson, 2. Struck out: Denny, 6; Hoffman, 9. Batteries: Emmet: Denny and Douglas; Atkinson: Hoffman and Raymer.

Emmet Wins Championship.

The game Friday afternoon was one of the most interesting of the series. Emmet had won all three former games and many wanted to see their pride humbled and wanted to see the farmer boys from Dorsey walk away with the money, but as Guy Cole said it "couldn't be did" and I guess Guy was right. It was a very interesting game although there were several glaring errors and bonehead plays on both sides that were expensive. The errors of omission were about as numerous as the errors of commission. Cutting out the errors the game should have been 2 to 1 in the ninth inning, Emmet securing two earned runs and Dorsey one, but the game ended 5 to 3 in favor of Emmet.

Corey was on the mound for Emmet and while he held the Dorsey boys to five hits they were bunched and two hits in the seventh inning with two infield outs gave Dorsey the only earned run they made during the game. He was also erratic and fielded his position very poorly, making two wild throws in the sixth inning that resulted in a run. Corey is a splendid pitcher as long as everything goes his way, but is liable to "blow up" under grief. He whiffed five.

Cox, of the Lincoln Western League team, was on the mound for Dorsey and pitched a splendid game, but his support in places was very ragged. He allowed seven hits, one a home run by Clare, but kept them well scattered except in the seventh and eighth innings, when they scored four of their seven hits, although Emmet had already made three runs.

Emmet started scoring in the second inning. Rouse was given a life on an error by third; Clare went out on a pop up to second; Denny got a hit to left, Rouse taking third; Corey went out on a pop fly to first; Rouse scored on a passed ball; Richardson struck out. Nothing further in the scoring line until the sixth inning when errors and bonehead plays gave Emmet two runs. McKee, first up, secured a hit; took second on a passed ball and scored when Hoffman dropped Forsythe's fly in center; Forsythe going to second; Rouse sent one down to short that Rose let get away from him and Forsythe scored, Rouse going to second. Clare went out on a fly to left, Rouse taking third; Denny went out on a foul fly and Corey struck out. They gathered another in the seventh inning and it was an earned run. Richardson fanned; Trochyski secured a short hit to left; stole second and scored on a hit to left by Douglas, who died on first as McKee fanned and Forsythe went out on a fly to left. Emmet gained their other earned run in the eighth inning; After Rouse had been retired second to first, Clare met one on the nose for a home run into deep left; Denny fanned but Corey connected for a scratch single to short center; he died on first as Richardson was thrown out catcher to first.

Dorsey sent their first run across the rubber in the third inning. Richter went out on a long fly to center; Raymer went out from third to first; Cox connected with a single to right; took second on a passed ball and scored on a hit to center by Rose; Stuart ended the inning by going out on a fly to Corey. They added another in their half of the sixth inning and took the lead. Rose was safe when Denny dropped his fly in left; Stuart laid down a bunt to Corey and the latter threw the ball away and Rose took third and Stuart second before the ball was recovered. Leahy fanned; Doering was given a life on another error by Corey who again threw the ball away and Rose scored; Stuart taking third. Hudson was safe on a fielders choice but they ran down Stuart between third and home and caught Doering trying to take third while they were making the out. It was pure bone head playing. They added another in the seventh. Hoffman got a hit; took second when Richter went out from second to first; took third when McKee let Raymer's roller get away and scored on a hit by Cox; Rose went out on a long fly to center ending the inning. They went out in order in the next two innings and the game was over.

Score by innings:
Emmet.....0 1 0 0 0 2 1 1*—5
Dorsey.....0 0 1 0 0 1 1 0—3
Hits: Emmet, 7; Dorsey, 5. Errors: Emmet, 4; Dorsey, 4. Struck out: Corey, 6; Cox, 10. Batteries: Corey and Douglas; Cox and Raymer.

Fair Notes.

Cox had the heavy batters of the Emmet team helpless Friday. Neither Forsythe or Rouse, the two heaviest hitters on the team, get anything that looked like a hit.

Rouse of Battle Creek is a terror to pitchers. Rouse is especially strong in a pinch. If a hit is needed to win a game he generally delivers the hit. He won two of the four games for Emmet with his hitting.

Harry Jordan and Joel Parker are some auto race drivers. Joel won the race Thursday afternoon but Harry Jordan was pulling away from the field Friday when Horst's machine turned over. Considerable money was bet on the outcome of the race between
