Barney Corrigan, one of the old timers of this county and who resided north of Emmet for over thirty years, was a caller at this office last Monday. Last spring Mr. Corrigan purchased a farm east of Chambers and is now a resident of southern Holt.

Elmer Merriman and family moved to this city Wednesday from their ranch near Middle Branch and are again residents of O'Neill. Elmer says there is some fascination about the old town, that no matter how often he leaves he has always to come back.

Neligh Semi-Weekly News: The Neligh Mills received three cars of buckwheat from Ewing and Page this week which, for milling purposes is as fine as any buckwheat ever handled by the mill people. Mr. Spirk says the best buckwheat they get comes from this vicinity in Holt county.

Everett Brown, of the Ditch Company, left for Omaha last Tuesday afternoon with two car load of cattle which he will dispose of on the Omaha market. Mr. Brown says this disposes of all the cattle that they will sell off this fall. They still have 1,600 head on the ranch south of town and he expects to purchase a few car load of feeders while in Omaha to add to the herd here.

Pat O'Malley, who was a resident of the south country for many years but who now lives near Creighton, was an O'Neill visitor the first of the week. Pat says that it does him good to get back to O'Neill occasionally and visit with his many friends in this vicinity. He says that crops are just as good around this city as they are in Knox county.

Dr. John Bogue of Hartington, who was in the city last Friday and Saturday, had a pleasant time renewing old acquaintance with Frank Campbell whom he knew when they were boys together in eastern Iowa some thirty-eight years ago. Dr. Bogue said that he had not met Mr. Campbell for thirty-eight years and they spent a pleasant time together discussing events of the long ago.

The fire alarm was sounded about 8 o'clock last night announcing a fire in the Third Ward and in a few moments the streets were filled with people heading toward the fire in the western part of town. After the people had reached the scene of the fire it was discovered to be a straw stack at the home of Clinton Metz in the extreme western part of the city. The people who went out there did not see any excitement but they had a good walk.

The many Holt county friends of W. J. Gray, for many years a resident of this county, will be grieved to learn that he is suffering from a paralytic stroke, his entire right side being partly paralyzed. About a month ago his team ran away throwing him out of the wagon striking on his head and it is believed that the attack of paralysis was caused from the injury then received. His many friends hope that he will speedily recover from the ailment.

Fremont Tribune: Phil Primley, a former Fremont state league baseball player, has returned to old haunts from Winnipeg, Canada, where he has been managing a team. It is Phil's intention to hold forth at Mead, which is his former home for the winter. He says that heavy rainstorms during the summer put baseball on the blink in Canada. In 1914 he bought the Winnipeg nine through the season in a manner that netted several hundred dollars to the stockholders, but last summer the association went in the hole.

Ewing Advocate: The four-year-old twins of Postmaster Waugh and wife were visiting in the country about seventeen miles out of Ewing and suddenly becoming homesick they wished to return home. Mr. Waugh being unable to go after the young scions, telephoned for their return by parcel post and accordingly Perry Saiser, who runs route No. 2, brought the youngsters home safe and sound to anxious, waiting parents. The twins weigh thirty-seven and thirty-eight pounds respectively and their safe transit home cost the trifling sum of only 23 cents and 24 cents.

When you execute any instrument that requires a revenue stamp you want to be sure that you have the proper amount of the democratic war tax stamp—imposed in times of peace—affixed or the government will get you. Last week O. N. Stuke, deputy collector of internal revenue for this district, was in the city and spent a day at the court house examining instruments that had been filed with a view of ascertaining whether the proper amount of stamps had been affixed or not. We understand that he found several instruments that had been filed without the proper amount of revenue thereon and those filing them will be called on to come across with the difference.

The coming attraction at the Opera House will be "Panhandle Pete" dramatized from Geo. McManus' well known New York World Cartoon, which for years has caused more laughs than all others put together shown in our great Sunday papers; a well known competent cast has been engaged to portray each character, and a full scenic, electrical and mechanical production is carried by this company, and will be a most thoroughly enjoyable evening, covering over two solid hours of wit and beauty never before equalled, a joyous jubilee, bubbling, effervescent and spontaneous, just roaring excruciating delicious fun all condensed into one great entertainment. The date for this big laugh play will be Thursday night, November 4th.

Chronic Constipation. "About two years ago when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine," writes Mrs. John Newton, Irvington, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere. 17-4
