Our Holiday Offering

Dear Customers and Friends: To show our appreciation of your past liberal patronage we have made arrangements with the management of the Royal Theater whereby yourself and family may attend the Saturday afternoon Show, as our guests, entirely free of charge. Just call at our store and we will give you tickets which will admit you. This is done with considerable expense to us, but we feel that we have been and will be more than repaid by your patronage and friendship. We shall feel disappointed if you do not call for tickets for yourself and family for the initial entertainment next Saturday afternoon. Remember, it is our treat and we want you to take advantage of it. Not only on next Saturday, but on each Saturday for the next four Saturday's. Children must be accompanied by either of their parents. These tickets are not transferable.

Respectfully yours,

J. C. HORISKEY, O'NEILL, NEB.

the home of her mother in Lincoln. Mrs. George will be remembered by old settlers as Miss Anna Lowrie, for many years a resident of this city.

Judge Dickson moved his law library to one of the new rooms upstairs in the court room last week. The judge has one of the finest law libraries in this section of the state and having the books withing easy access of the court room will be of great benefit to the attorneys who practice in this court.

Swan Alm, one of the pioneer residents of the Mineola country, died at his home northeast of this city last Sunday and was buried in the Mineola cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Mr.

Alm had been a paraletic for nearly twenty years, the past few years being practically helpless. He was about fifty years of age.

Jack Sullivan returned last Sunday night from Omaha, where he gathered in a nice piece of "ready money" by putting a Missouri pugilist to sleep in a battle in the squared circle Friday night. Jack is quite a favorite among the lovers of the fistic game in Omaha and when he is on for a bout there the "standing room only" sign is always displayed.

Mrs. S. J. Weekes and Mrs. D. B. Whitney entertained the members of the Whist Club at the home of Mrs. Weekes last Tuesday night. The guests

He carries with him a ringside seat and will be able to witness all the thrills of the match, which promises to be one of the best seen in the United States for years.

Hugh Boyle made the acquaintance of Col. Boggy on the links of the Idle Hour Golf Club last Tuesday afternoon. For the past three months Hugh has been vainly endeavoring to make the acquaintance of the Colonel, but that gentleman has been very elusive and try as he might Hugh never could get close enough to grasp the Colonel by the hand until Tuesday afternoon when he made the Golf course in 43 and met Colonel Boggy, the first member of the O'Neill Club that has won that honor. Now the rest of the high class players of the Club say they are not going to allow Hugh to pack this honor around all alone and they are determined to get close enough to meet the Colonel and if it is nice tomorrow the links will be headquarters for more than one aspirant for the Boggy.

Opera House November 30.

The musical novelty event of the season as this is the date set for the appearance of the Royal Hawaiian Dramatic and Concert Company. There are seven people in the company and are well known here. They were the talk of the Chautauqua here two summers ago. The company is the same as was here at that time. Their program on the evening of the 20th will consist of Hawaiian and American numbers. There is a romantic Hawaiian playlet interwoven into the concert which gives much tone to the performance. These talented players have been to the coast where some of them played at the Hawaiian building, during the month of July, on the exposition grounds. The price of admission will be 25 cents for children and 35 and 50 cents for adults.

"Montana" Jack Wins Scrap.

Omaha Bee: Jack Lutz of St. Joseph was outclassed last night in his bout with "Montana" Jack Sullivan of O'Neill, when they started to stage a ten-round affair at the Eagles club at Florence. Sullivan was careful at the start and used two or three rounds to feel out his man and to keep away from the haymakers which Lutz swung in his direction. He then began his persistent left jabs, which soon began to tell on the Missourian. In the fifth round Lutz went down on his knees for a count of two and the sixth saw his finish. He took a count of seven, and then took counts nine twice and finally was not able to come back and his seconds threw up the sponge.

The eight-round bout between Young Dudley and Kid Dinneen was a draw or rather the referee did not make a decision.
