Miller-Horiskey.

William H. Miller of Salina, Kansas, and Miss Kathryn Horiskey of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Cassidy at his residence in this city last Monday morning at 7:30, in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

After the wedding ceremony the bridal couple partook of a splendid wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Horiskey, after which they left on the Northwestern at 10 o'clock for a short wedding trip to Omaha and Kansas City, before going to their future home at Salina, Kansas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Horiskey and grew to womanhood in this city. She is one of O'Neill's fairest daughters, of pleasing personality and winning ways. For several years she was the efficient bookkeeper in the store of her brother, and is well known and admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The groom is a traveling salesman who made this territory for a couple of years for an Omaha cracker company and it was while traveling in this section that he first met the lady he led to the altar last Monday morning. At the present time he is representing an Omaha company in Kansas and has his headquarters at Salina, Kansas.

Mrs. Miller's many O'Neill friends wish for her and the man of her choice many years of happiness and prosperity.

McKeown-Harrington.

Married, at the Catholic church in this city Wednesday morning, at 7 o'clock, Bert S. McKeown to Miss Katherine Harrington, Rev. Father Ballou officiating, in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKeown who lives six miles northeast of this city, and is a young man of good habits and sterling integrity.

The bride is a native of Holt county, a sister of Philip and D. J. Harrington who live northeast of this city. She is a very affable and agreeable young lady and will make a worthy helpmate for the man of her choice.

The young couple will go to house-keeping on a farm northeast of this city, where they will remain for the winter, and in the spring they expect to move to Omaha to make their future home.

The best wishes of scores of friends are extended in wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity.

WANTS TO SEE YOU

Most people fall for the Butter and Egg Game. Did you ever stop to think? How can a store pay you 30c a pound for butter and dump it into a tub and sell it to the Creamery or Zimmerman for 20c?

No, of course, your butter don't go into the tub. Nobody's butter goes into the tub—to hear the stores tell it? But it stands to reason somebody's does. Who's is it? Why don't you take your butter right to Zimmerman, Yantzi or the Creamery—get your cash—go to a Cash Store and buy for cash—you easily save that dime and a few more Dimes besides?

Why don't you bring in last month's store bill and let me check it over for you?

Next to the man who protects your name the man who protects your pocket book is the best friend you have got. Instead of slipping in a nickle here and a dime there I chop it off.

The reason you pay two prices for your shoes is on account of the numbers of pairs given away free to people who abuse them.

There are a good many people who buy shoes and take care of them just the same as a good dress or a good suit and the shoes last them from one to two years. Others knock the same pair out in a week. I am going to sell shoes for what they are worth. If you want a dress shoe to plow corn or mix cement, don't expect them to give satisfaction. While the Company backs the Shoes I sell—I don't. If you want the best shoe value for your money come to me. You don't have to pay for the shoes the other fellow abuses. The little I make on a pair of shoes does not allow me to furnish shoes to those who abuse them. I want to sell shoes at a right price and believe me, if you don't want to buy my shoes on these conditions they can rot on the shelves and you can pay the price of two pair everytime you get one. NOW, before you get it into your head that these shoes are going to rot on the shelves—Come and see the prices.

Cash does it—Cash did it—and Cash is going to sell you your shoes.

Sophie Rosen, 17 years, candy packer, who died in New York Thursday of anthrax, was the fourth person to succumb to the disease in that city within ten weeks. Death came in less than a week of infection. Serum, recently tried in a similar case, was not used. The infection came to the girl, physicians believe, from a collar of inexpensive fur which adorned a new black velvet suit bought a week ago by her father.

The southwestern territory including about half of Missouri, parts of Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, is suffering from a dollar bill and small change famine. The cause is assigned to the fact that extensive purchases in grain and hogs are being made by the farmers, and this activity calls for a large amount of odd change. All the banks of the city are being pressed for large supplies of small money.

The Paris Dressmakers' Syndicate has blacklisted two American customers of German origin, one of them named Kurzmann, reputed to have been commissioned to buy gowns for Mrs. Norman Galt, who is to be the bride of President Wilson, according to the newspaper L'Oeuvre. The newspaper avers Kurzmann has threatened to raise a diplomatic issue because of the modists' refusal to accept orders from him. L'Oeuvre declares, however, that each house from which he ordered gowns has offered to supply them with its compliments to Mrs. Galt without having them pass through the hands of an intermediary.

Shipments of turkeys from Texas are under way in volume, and farmers are reaping profits to add to bank accounts started with the proceeds from agricultural products and food animals. More than 3000 of the Thanksgiving and Christmas birds have gone from this center to Eastern and Northern cities, the growers receiving from 12 to 18 cents per pound. Reports from other centers of the turkey-growing industry show returns as low as 11 cents per pound.

A tea chest full of pirate treasure has been taken to New York by Randall C. Lewis, a magazine writer of that city, from Santa Marta, Columbia. The treasure includes pearls of rainbow color, due to the action of the salt from the sea, gold ornaments, gold bracelets, anklets and a gold breast-plate, 400 old Spanish and French coins and a flint musket and a powder horn in the chest.

Five men were in the firing squad that put Jos. Hillstrom to death in Salt Lake City, Utah Friday morning. Four of the rifles carried ball cartridges. The fifth was loaded with a blank. The guns were loaded by one man, another mixed them and a third placed them on the rack from which the individual members of the firing squad chose them. No one will ever know who fired the blank cartridge. All the firing squad were expert riflemen. Four bullets pierced the target over Hillstrom's heart. Each member of the squad received $40 in gold for his services. Hillstrom was the nineteenth person to be executed in Utah. Fifteen chose shooting and four hanging.

The Great Blessing.

By Walt Mason: We have much reason to be grateful since there's no warfare, grim and hateful, within this smiling country's borders; we slay not at some marshall's orders. In Europe men are now preparing for months of freezing and despairing; they'll spend the winter in the trenches, while foes, with guns and monkey wrenches, make daily efforts to dislodge them, and they'll be too blamed cold to dodge them. Oh, when you're seated in your rocker, with trusty pipe and shilling shocker, with peace and comfort all around you, and not a peril to confound you, think how your trans-Atlantic cousins are being shot up by the dozens. There are no comforts in the trenches; no rocking chairs or padded benches; there are no sprightly evening papers, to tell the latest football capers. The men must stand in muddy water, and wield the musket and Distress in the Stomach.

There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after meals. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Padgham, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere. 21-4
