In the Matter of the Guardianship of Catherine Dykman, a Mentally Incompetent Person.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a license granted to the undersigned by the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska, in an action therein pending entitled, In the Matter of the Guardianship of Catherine Dykman, a mentally incompetent person, on the 10th day of January, A. D. 1916, said Court found that the sale of the hereinafter described real estate is necessary for the maintenance of said Catherine Dykman, a mentally incompetent person, and said Court duly ordered Daniel A. Doyle, guardian of said Catherine Dykman, a mentally incompetent person, to sell at public sale to the highest bidder the following described real estate with all improvements thereon to-wit: Lot Twelve (12), in Block five (5), in the original town of O'Neill, County of Holt, and state of Nebraska, for at least two-thirds of the purchase price in cash and the balance paid on or before three years after said sale with interest thereon at five per cent. per annum payable annually, said balance to be secured by notes and a mortgage upon said real estate.

NOW THEREFORE by virtue of said license and the authority in me by law vested, having given the bond and taken the oath required by law I will offer said real estate to-wit: LOT TWELVE (12), IN BLOCK FIVE (5), IN THE ORIGINAL TOWN OF O'NEILL, COUNTY OF HOLT, AND STATE OF NEBRASKA, for sale on the 7th day of February, A. Constipation and Indigestion.

Hal Johnson in Miss Modiste.
Hal Johnson, a far famed actor, has written a mirth-provoking farce in Miss "Modiste", full of brisk action and tuneful music, which makes it a veritable scream from start to finish. This is not a "one man" show and consequently Mr. Johnson has surrounded himself with such talented people as George Murdock, Gene Harpor, George Collins, Lillian Forrest, Eva Swinburne, Agnes Falle and Laura Martere. Inasmuch as there have been many imitators of Mr. Johnson, who were no doubt encouraged by his phenomenal success in the "Arrival of Kitty" we wish to state emphatically that Hal Johnson (himself) will positively appear at the K. C. Opera House on January 17th, when the above attraction plays here. Secure your seats early as Mr. Johnson's past record is a future guarantee.—Adv.

The Gist of It.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of this remedy, ask any one who has used it. Obtainable everywhere. 30-4

Gleanings.

What's the matter with this kind of weather for January? All right, Eh?

L. A. and C. T. Simonson were down on the Eagle fishing last Friday. F. A. Hatch stayed at C. T.'s and looked after the chores while he was gone.

On Tuesday, January 4th, a large company of ladies of this vicinity and O'Neill, swooped down on Mrs. Emily Hatch and gave her the surprise of her life. Before they had been there long a long table had been set out and piled mountain high with good things to eat, until ye scribe thought the table would literally break down with the weight thereof. After partaking of the feast, ye scribe felt as though he could get along for a week without any more nourishment for the inner man. The ladies present were: Mrs. James Brennan, Mrs. M. A. Whaley, Mrs. C. R. Young, Mrs. H. B. Hubbard, Miss Fern Hubbard, Mrs. C. J. Simonson, Mrs. Tom Simonson, Mrs. Irving Simonson and Mrs. W. S. Roberts. Every lady lady seemed to enjoy themselves, including ye scribe, who is not used to attending an exclusive ladies party.

Tuesday, January 12, 1916, is the twenty-eight anniversary of the worst blizzard that ye scribe ever saw, and he has good cause to remember it, as he was going to school at that time and was obliged, with thirteen other scholars and teacher, to remain in the school house all that day and night, but fortunately we had coal enough to burn to keep us comfortable throughout that long night, although we had no supper or sleep. A brave man working for a near family there tried to bring supper to the school that night, but got lost and wandered a mile in the opposite direction before he found a house where he had to stay until morning. I hope never to see such a storm again.

There is much being said in the daily press nowadays about citizens of foreign birth or aliens, who it is charged by persons high in the councils of the nation, of disloyalty to this government on account of certain bomb outrages in munition plants, and ships loaded with that kind of a cargo, that would naturally be classed as contraband of war, in times like these, and also on account of this criticism of the present administration for its unnatural attitude towards the warring countries. The charge imputed to them of seeking to blow up munition plants and ships carrying contraband of war, may be true, but that is not prima facie evidence of disloyalty to this government, and since they have not sought to do injury to any government property or officials, we must conclude that it was only men of criminal instincts, who have only sought to injure the capitalistic class. As for their criticism of this governments unnatural policy, people of this country, whether citizens or aliens, have a right to criticize the head men when their acts do not accord with what they believe to be right, and let me say right here that this government is anything but neutral in its attitude towards those countries at war, and the people generally know it.
