

NO!

Learn to say No! It's the biggest little word in the English language. Every day—each hour of the day—there is the temptation to spend money. Yield to it—and you will be poor all your life. Learn to say NO—put every dollar and every penny you can possibly scrape together in your Bank Account here and you will become both rich and successful. If you say NO to-day to the little things you will be able to say YES in the future to the big things.

"A time comes to the most easy when he must answer 'No,' or go open-eyed to ruin. Then he finds that, from long disuse, the word will not shape itself.—Stanley J. Weyman.

TRIBUTE TO WOMEN.

This often quoted tribute to women by Robert G. Ingersoll enlivens appreciation on the part of most men: "It takes a hundred men to make an encampment, but one woman can make a home. I not only admire woman as the most beautiful object ever created, but I reverence her as the redeeming glory of humanity, the sanctuary of all perfected qualities of heart and head. It is not just nor right to lay the sins of men at the feet of women. It is because women are so much better than men that their faults are considered greater. The one thing in this world that is constant, the one peak that rises above all clouds, the one window in which the light forever burns, the one star that darkness cannot quench, is woman's love. It rises to the greatest heights, it sinks to the lowest depths. It forgives the most cruel injuries. It is perennial of life, and grows in every climate. Neither coldness nor neglect, harshness nor cruelty can extinguish it. A woman's love is the perfume of the heart. This is the real love that subdues the earth; the love that has wrought all miracles of art; that gives us music all the way from the cradle to the grand closing symphony that bears the clouds away on wings of fire. A love that is greater than power, sweeter than life and stronger than death."

Dick Jenness Still Lucky.

The following taken from the Okmulgee (Okla.) Daily Democrat refers to R. H. Jenness, formerly editor of the Atkinson Graphic and later receiver of the United States land office in this city. After retiring from the land office here about twelve years ago he went to Okmulgee and a few weeks afterwards was appointed postmaster of that city, a position he held for some seven years, being succeeded by a democrat. After retiring from the postoffice he was elected one of the commissioners of the city and, as will be seen by the following he will be re-elected without opposition. Dick has many friends in this city and county who will rejoice that good fortune still smiles upon him.

"The old saying that 'It's better to be born lucky than rich' is a good one, or at least Commissioner of Finance R. H. Jenness so believes.

"Jenness' term of office expires on April 4 and he is a candidate for re-election and on Friday night at midnight, the time limit under which candidates for this office could file as a candidate expired. No one but Jenness filed as a candidate and in consequence his election is assured.

"Candidates for public office as a general thing are very numerous, it being very seldom that a man is allowed to glide into office without opposition, as will be the case with Jenness on April 4.

"R. H., or Dick, Jenness was elected commissioner of finance of Okmulgee three years ago, and it is certainly a compliment to his ability as an official that no one is willing to enter the race against him for re-election."

Ye scribe read in a recent issue of an Omaha daily that President Wilson has warned the people of this country against believing all the stories that are sent up from Mexico, since there is both Americans and Mexicans who are influenced by the special interests to bring about intervention in Mexico by their country. At the same time his course in dealing with European affairs is such, that most people are wondering how he is going to keep this country out of the great European holocaust, and pursue at the same time his present policy in dealing with them. Also it is a matter of general belief that the special interests are dictating his present policy with a view of precipitating this country into a war with the central powers that they (the special interests) may add an enormous amount of money to their already swollen fortunes, without any regard whatever for the rights of suffering humanity. President Wilson has made many bad blunders during his administration, but the blunder he made in recognizing Carranza before he had established a stable government, and suppressed the anarchy that is raging in Mexico, is likely to cost a lot in human lives and money before the bandit Villa is captured. Had Wilson waited until some form of government had been established in Mexico, and all lawlessness been suppressed, this punitive expedition into Mexico at this time would not have been necessary, and perhaps at no other time either. Therefore I say that all voters should not fail to go to the primaries on Tuesday the 18th of April to enter their protest against the assumption of government for, of, and by the special interests instead of for, of and by the people as it should be.

Summary of News.

Another Mexican Massacre.

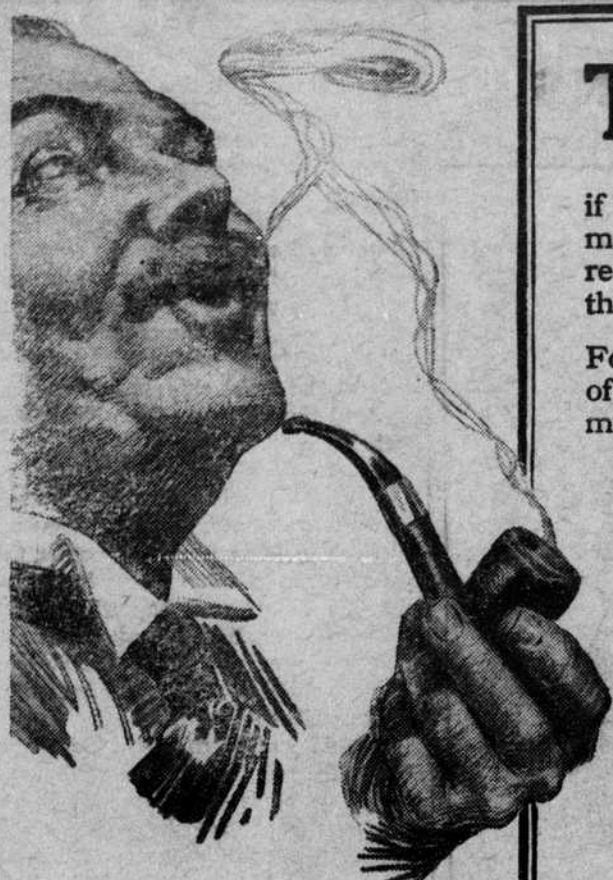

Three Americans, two women and one man, were killed near Gibson's line ranch, on the New Mexico-Mexico boundary, eight miles west of Columbus, N. M., between 4 and 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, presumably by Mexican raiders, according to the story brought to Douglas, Ariz., by a party of five Douglas residents, who said they arrived on the scene shortly after the bodies had been removed by United States soldiers. A command of United States soldiers stationed at the Gibson ranch was said to have crossed the line in pursuit of the slayers.

House Army Bill Goes to Senate.

The Hay army increase bill, providing for a regular army peace strength of 140,000 fighting men instead of the present 100,000, which passed the House by a vote of 402 to 2, was sent to the Senate for consideration. The negative votes in the House were cast by Representatives Britten (Republican) of Illinois and London (Socialist) of New York.

British Take Men of 45.

A recent London cablegram says that while there has been no official announcement to justify the reports that the military age limit is to be extended to men of 45 years, the first step in this direction is indicated in instructions issued to recruiting depots for field artillery, garrison artillery and army veterinary corps. These instructions state that the recruiting of-

Armored Train Sent to Border.

A train of armored railroad cars loaded with thirty-two motor trucks for use of the United States army in Mexico passed through Topeka, Kan., Thursday.

The armored steel cars were made for the United States war Department, it was said, by the Michigan Central Railroad Company and were being sent to the Mexican border in the expectation that by the time the train reached El Paso arrangements might have been made between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico whereby the American forces will be permitted to use Mexican railroads.

Battle in North Sea Reported.

Illinois' new $17,500 fish car, filled with thousands of fish of all sizes, including 2 and 3 pound black bass, came to Springfield Thursday on its first trip. Most of the fish were deposited in lakes in local parks. The car will return tomorrow to Havana where it will be loaded anew. It will be taken to East St. Louis, where its collection will be liberated in the inland waters in that vicinity. It has a capacity of 6000 fish.

British War Widows.

The number of widows of British soldiers who have thus far been reported to the Army Council is 41,500, according to William Hayes Fisher, parliamentary secretary of the local Government Board, in a speech to the House of Commons Committee on the War Pensions bill today.

There are about 8000 widows of soldiers, Fisher added.

Women to Clean Up Chicago.

The Thirty-first Ward will be the Mecca of Chicago sightseers April 1, for on that day the women of the ward, or many of them, will don overalls and clean up the ward.

The alleys in the ward are said to be in bad condition and repeated requests that they be cleaned were without result. The women say they will do the work which the city has neglected.

Franking Abuse Denounced.

Abuse of the congressional franking privilege is denounced in a report of the House Printing Committee which has included a provision in the pending revision of the printing laws designed to stop the practice.

The report charges that members of Congress furnish franked envelopes to individuals, committees and organizations interested in promoting a particular propaganda at the public expense.

China Again a Republic.

A China State Department mandate issued Thursday night announces the abandonment of the monarchy and resumption of the republic.

The mandate says the revolution shows the demand for a monarchical form of government is not unanimous, and that, therefore, Yuan Shi Kai rejects the emperorship and resumes the presidency.

The imperial documents, the mandate calls, will be returned by Yuan Shi Kai to the State Council, which will reconvene at the Senate, preparatory to the resumption of the republic.

Hsu Shih Chang, who left the cabinet because of the monarchical move, signed the mandate as secretary of state, having re-entered the cabinet.
