

MOOSE SEEK SHOW DOWN WITH TEDDY

Progressive Convention, Few Minutes After Hughes Is Named, Nominate Roosevelt.

FORCE HIM TO REJECT IT

Moosers Suspend Rules and Jam Nomination Through With Rush—Action Long Foreseen.

ROOSEVELT SILENT.

Oyster Bay, June 10.—When informed the republicans had nominated Justice Hughes and the progressives had nominated him, Colonel Roosevelt refused to make any comment. He remained sequestered in his Sagamore Hill home. It is believed here that Colonel Roosevelt will accept the nomination.

Auditorium, Chicago, June 10.—At the moment that the news was flashed to the auditorium that the republicans had nominated Justice Charles E. Hughes as standard bearer of their party, Chairman Robins today was announcing that the progressive convention had nominated Theodore Roosevelt for president.

The action of the progressives followed an all night and early morning attempt of conferees of both parties to unite on one candidate. The progressives lost their last chance to compromise last night when they refused to get together with the republicans on either Hughes, Cummins or Root. This morning the republican conferees refused to consider any name but that of Hughes.

Timed Nomination.

It was evident from the moment the delegates began to gather this morning that they would jam the Roosevelt nomination through. They timed their progress to make the announcement simultaneous with that of the Hughes' announcement.

The progressives, following the nomination of Roosevelt, recessed until 3 o'clock.

Mr. Roosevelt was nominated by Bainbridge Colby and the nomination was seconded by Governor Hiram Johnson. The vote was by acclamation.

When George W. Perkins, one of the conferees, announced the result of the harmony efforts there was no holding the bull moosers any longer.

Mr. Perkins read a telegram from Colonel Roosevelt, urging the two parties to get together and nominate Senator Lodge.

"I ask you members of the progressive convention to make those words good by deeds," Colonel Roosevelt said. "In view of the conditions I present the name of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts," said Mr. Perkins.

Loud cries of "No, no," came from the floor and interrupted the reading of the telegram.

At the conclusion of the reading of the telegram, again loud cries of "No, no," came from all parts of the hall, mixed also with loud cheers and applause.

The convention evidenced its approval of Mr. Perkins' action with a prolonged burst of cheers.

Mr. Perkins said, "In common honor of fairness we cannot vote and place Mr. Roosevelt in nomination until his communication is submitted to the other convention."

Chairman Robins took the floor from Geo. W. Perkins who followed Mr. Colby by recognizing Governor Hiram Johnson as soon as it was announced that the republicans earnestly proceeded with a third ballot. The discourtesy to Mr. Perkins was howled down, and Governor Johnson at once yielded to Mr. Perkins to inform the convention of the withdrawal of the coliseum of a number of favorite son candidates.

Mr. Perkins argued earnestly to defer action until the republican convention receives its committee report.

"That's right," shouted several delegates.

Colonel Parke of Louisiana, who followed Mr. Perkins said one of the "greatest crises in the country's history was at hand today."

Chairman Robins then recognized Chairman O'Connell, of the New York state delegation, to move to suspend the rules and proceed to nominations.

Hamilton Fish, jr., of New York, denied that Chairman O'Connell represented the delegation.

At 10:43 Chairman Robins began pounding the gavel. There was a show of haste to proceed to nominate before the republican convention should convene at 11 o'clock.

BRISTOW IN CHICAGO WORKING FOR CUMMINS

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—Former Governor E. Bruce Bristow, of Kansas, arrived here yesterday to work for Cummins. He volunteered his services. He at once got busy with the bull moose leaders and urged them on second choice to take Cummins. Bristow told the bull moose leaders Cummins was the best man in the whole list of candidates from the standpoint of progressivism.

CONFIRMS SINKING.

London, June 10.—The report that the German battle cruiser Derfflinger had been sunk is reiterated in an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. It says travelers arriving in Amsterdam from Berlin say they were told in Germany the Derfflinger sank after the North sea battle while being towed to Wilhelmshaven.

WOMEN'S SUIT PRICE WILL BE ADVANCED

Strike of Garment Workers Will Afford Chance, Says Schlesinger.

New York, June 12.—Higher prices for women's cloaks and suits next fall as a result of the strike and lockout in the garment industry in this city were predicted today by Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union.

In fact, Mr. Schlesinger, said the lockout of 30,000 workers by the Manufacturers' association was to provide an excuse to raise prices. The union had cited the garment strike in 1911 as a parallel case, saying that the prices of cloaks and suits were increased in some cases as high as 50 per cent at that time.

OFFICIALS FEAR MEXICAN RIOTS

Washington Receives Word That Demonstrations Are Seen Along Border—Need Trucks.

Washington, D. C., June 12.—Administration officials were uneasy today over continued reports of anti-American demonstrations in northern Mexico. Americans fearing serious riots are making their way to the border in great numbers and those seeking to return to Mexico are advised against such action by border agents, acting under orders.

Most demonstrations have gone no further than mass meetings and speeches by agitators, who resent the presence of American troops on Mexican soil. Carranza troops have sought usually to disperse such gatherings. Officials fear public opinion may flare into open rioting directed against American citizens although no fear is felt for the safety of General Pershing's forces.

In the states of Chihuahua, San Luis Potosi and Nuevo Leon, anti-American demonstrations have been particularly numerous and attacks on American property were reported from Chihuahua and Monterey where there are no consular agents.

NEED TRUCKS.

Washington, D. C., June 12.—More motor trucks are needed by the American force in Mexico especially, will be supplied, General Funston reported today to the war department that bad roads and continual use of trucks in hauling supplies had caused a number to break down. The rainy season, now starting, makes ample transportation facilities urgent, he explained. More than 300 trucks and about 100 other motor vehicles are now with the American expeditionary forces, army officials declared. General Funston did not state the exact number of those which have broken down.

THREAT BY CARRANZA.

Columbus, N. M., June 12.—American scout patrols with General Pershing's army in Mexico, have been threatened with an attack by Carranza troops, according to authoritative information received here today. A column of Carranza cavalry is said to have dashed forward upon an American detachment south of Nampiqua, rifles in hand. The Americans are said to have averted a clash by standing their ground. According to the report the Mexicans withdrew, tauntingly.

HOSTILE DEMONSTRATIONS CONTINUE ALONG BORDER

Washington, June 12.—Anti-American demonstrations in northern Mexico continue, according to official advices today, particularly in the states of Chihuahua, San Luis Potosi and Nuevo Leon, and, although the manifestations thus far have been confined mostly to speechmaking, consular agents have reported that the temper of the people appears such that any eventualities might be possible.

Americans are leaving for the border in steadily increasing numbers. Under general instructions, state department agents in Mexico are giving every possible aid. In addition, border agents have been instructed to urge those seeking to return to Mexico to stay on the American side of the border for the present.

Army officials have no fear for the safety of the American expedition. It is so closely concentrated as to be fully able to defend itself in any emergency and also to lend protection to a wide stretch of the border. No new troop dispositions were in progress, Secretary Baker said, and General Funston's reports have been of a routine character for several days past.

The spread of the anti-American agitation may delay the sending of a reply to Carranza's note demanding recall of the American troops. Creation of an international commission to discuss all difficulties is known to have been suggested under existing treaties, and it is understood that the proposal still is before President Wilson.

CAVALRY PATROLS.

San Antonio, Tex., June 10.—A squadron of Texas cavalry entrained for Laredo early today to strengthen the troops on patrol duty in the Laredo district. Horses will be sent later, General Funston here intended the squadron of militia cavalry for service in the Big Bend country, but the activities of De La Rosa, south of Laredo, caused a change in plans.

Republican Choice For President

IOWA'S FAVORITE MOOSE REJECTS "DRY" PLATFORM STIRS DELEGATES

Speech, In Which A. B. Cummins' Name Is Placed Before Convention, Enthusiastically Received.

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—When the 1916 convention has closed and political historians take up their work of recording the truly memorable events of the gathering, they may well devote special time and space to the reception accorded the name of Iowa's favorite son, Albert Baird Cummins.

Nominated by the eloquent ex-congressman, N. E. Kendall, the presentation of the Cummins cause was in good hands. When his name had been presented, the crowd began to show its enthusiasm. It was not a rehearsed demonstration. It was a hearty display of loyalty and devotion. The demonstration lasted for 18 minutes and might have continued to greater length had not the chairman rapped for order.

Mr. Kendall's nominating speech was one of the best of the afternoon's program. He held the attention of his hearers, as few other had been able to do. The seconding speech was made by S. E. Wilson, of South Dakota.

Part of Mr. Kendall's remarks follow: "Of all that is good Iowa affords the best." As her representative this afternoon I offer to the reunited party in the nation a candidate whose nomination in June will be equivalent to election in November.

Duty of the Hour.

"What is the imperative duty of this hour? No delegate here can be indifferent to the overwhelming responsibility which solemnizes his action this afternoon. The importance of this convention to country and party cannot be overestimated in its gravity. However, if there be fears, there are also hopes. Within our ranks there are conflicting opinions, conscientiously cherished and honestly defended, but they may all be generously tolerated without sacrificing any of the essential principles of the party. Let us search for grounds of cohesion rather than for causes of dissension.

"Who can most certainly enlist the earnest cooperation of all those who deeply believe that these principles should be speedily crystallized into the law of the land? The judicious answer to this inquiry will be discovered in your dispassionate selection of the man who is most acceptable to all the forces of progress and enlightenment and righteousness upon which republican supremacy must always depend. We offer you a statesman familiar with the past, acquainted with the present, forearmed for the future. Of approved ability, of seasoned experience, of unblemished character, he is unexcelled in his equipment for the presidential office.

His Achievements.

"For more than a generation he has stood in the forefront of the battle for popular government; for the direct election of senators, for a tax on incomes, for the regulation of railroads, for the restraint of corporations, for the enlargement of the rights and privileges of the average man; and he was engaged in the advocacy of these salutary reforms when men less fearless were reluctant to volunteer in the unpromising struggle. Throughout his extended and versatile career he has never hesitated to espouse the right no matter how sorely beleaguered, nor to attack the wrong no matter how strongly entrenched. Without patronage, without publicity bureaus, without electioneering contrivances, his candidacy has gradually advanced in the approbation of the country because he is acknowledged to be fit and worthy and available. Thrice governor of the imperial Hawkeye commonwealth, and thrice invested with her commission to the senate of the United States, his testimonials are a private life that is irreproachable, and a public service dedicated to the welfare of his fellow men. By the unanimous mandate of the 300,000 enthusiastic and militant republicans of Iowa, I present him to your friendly favor: Albert B. Cummins."

PRISONER SENT FROM CITY IS PAROLED

Des Moines, Ia., June 10.—Governor Clarke today paroled William Crossley, sent to Fort Madison for three years on a charge of conspiracy with Sioux City. Crossley is suffering with tuberculosis. He was taken to his home at St. Joseph by his mother.

ROOSEVELT AT LAST HOUR THROWS SUPPORT TO LODGE

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 10.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, in a telegram sent this morning to the progressive convention at Chicago, suggested the name of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, as a compromise candidate upon whom both progressives and republicans could unite.

Colonel Roosevelt said that at 5 o'clock this morning he was notified by the progressive conferees that they had come to no conclusion with the republican conferees and that the republican conferees had again asked for any suggestion of a name for a candidate from the progressive conferees. He then wrote to the progressive conferees stating that he deeply appreciated their loyalty to him and their efforts to get him nominated, but that the time had come when carrying out the spirit of the statement of the progressive national committee in January and the statement made by him in Trinidad in February, it was their duty to present an alternative name on which he hoped the republicans and progressives could unite. He presented the name of Henry Cabot Lodge.

HUGHES TO ISSUE STATEMENT TODAY WILL URGE TEDDY TO BACK HUGHES

Justice Informed of Party's Action By News Men—Will Make Statement Later.

Washington, June 10.—Justice Hughes was told of his nomination for the presidency by newspaper men at his home, where he had been at work all during the republican convention in decisions to be handed down Monday, probably his last day as justice of the supreme court.

He received the news without evident emotion, saying: "I have nothing to say at this time; will make a statement later in the day."

VICTORY BY RUSS SEEMS COMPLETE

Military Observers Regard Lutsk Triumph as Brilliant Event—Austrians Were Well Entrenched.

Petrograd, June 12, (via London, 8:30 p. m.)—Five days of furious offensive by the forces of General Brusiloff has crumpled their opponent's lines from the Kovel-Sarny railway line to the Bukovina, driving them back an average of 15 miles.

In the Lutsk section the Russians appear to have completely broken through, turning the left flank of the Austrian armies and the right flank of the German forces and capturing Lutsk, the center of a number of radiating roads and railways. At several points the attacking Russians have crossed the Ikwa and Styr rivers and farther south they are approaching the Strpa river.

The victories are attributed largely to the avalanche of gun fire, which swept away dozens of lines of entanglements and opened the way for troops, who swept through in irresistible numbers. In some places the Russian barrier cut off large Austrian units which surrendered.

This accounts for the large number of prisoners officially reported captured.

The operations began in the vicinity of Olyka, where skirmishing has been frequently lately. Both sides appeared to have been feeling for a week spot in their opponent's line. The Russian advance from this point, which is 25 miles from Lutsk was accomplished in two and one-half days.

During the long period of inactivity the Austrians constructed strong fortifications in this section. The topography of the country also formed strong natural defenses.

Military observers regard the operation as an extraordinarily brilliant achievement and emphasize the able leadership of General Brusiloff who conducted the Carpathian campaign and made a record for prisoners, guns and munitions captured.

SOUNDS LIKE INSTANCE OF "LET GEORGE DO IT"

New York, N. Y., June 10.—William Rurry, 108 West Thirty-ninth street, is a firm believer in preparedness insofar as it relates to the enlistment of his elder brother.

He wrote to the United States Marine corps recruiting station in this city that he has "a bigger brother who does not want to work unless someone takes him to a job," and that he is very anxious to have this elder brother join the marine corps to try it out as sort of a pioneer for the family. If the elder brother liked the service all right, William added in the letter, why then he, himself, might join the colors later on.

William neglected to state in his letter whether his elder brother's name is George, but the marine corps recruiting officers are making no effort to find out.

"SQUARES" GERARD.

Berlin, (via London), June 10.—Count Friedrich von Westarp, conservative leader in the reichstag, has accepted the statement of the American ambassador, James W. Gerard, that the interview with the ambassador alleged to have been given to a representative of the National Zeitung was a fabrication. As a consequence Count Westarp today published a statement withdrawing criticisms of the American policy which he made in the reichstag and which were based on the alleged interview.

DENOUNCES INTERVIEW.

Washington, June 10.—Ambassador Gerard, at Berlin, cabled the state department today admitting the authenticity of an interview with him on peace published by a Munich paper two weeks ago, but denouncing as spurious a somewhat similar story credited to him by the Berlin Evening National Zeitung, June 3.

The English language has 82 sounds.

PROGRESSIVES AND BULL MOOSERS PLAN TO VISIT ROOSEVELT TO URGE SUPPORT FOR JUSTICE.

Chicago, June 10.—Now that Justice Hughes has been nominated by the republican convention and Colonel Roosevelt by the bull moose, the supreme question is whether Roosevelt will decline the third party nomination and will support Hughes. It is the general belief of the republican leaders that Hughes will make such a statement of his views that Roosevelt will support him.

Important conferences will soon be held between certain republican leaders and Colonel Roosevelt. Senator Borah will go east Sunday morning and while ostensibly headed for Washington it is understood he will soon have a heart to heart talk with the former president. He will urge Roosevelt to support Hughes. Senator Borah is convinced that Hughes will get Roosevelt's support.

Other republican leaders will also urge Roosevelt to support Hughes and Oyster Bay will be the scene soon of important conferences and it is generally assumed that Roosevelt will await a statement of Justice Hughes' views and if he can endorse them, will decline to run himself.

PEOPLE OF CHINA ARE FAVORABLE TO NEW RULER

Washington, June 10.—Willing acceptance by all of the Chinese people of the new president, Li Yuan Hung, was indicated in official dispatches reaching the state department. They said all of the northern provinces had recognized him. The southern provinces some time ago designated him as the legitimate president, but today's dispatches indicated they probably would demand some changes in the cabinet.

Mackinac Island, one of the country's show places, has lost its famous mayor, Colonel W. E. Preston, who has served 17 intermittent terms, beginning back in 1877. Colonel Preston was ill at the recent election and some one beat him out, but he expects to fight his way right back there another year.
