

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXXVII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1916.

NO. 2.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

PATRIOTISM DAY —that's a good name for the 4th of July; a day when all good citizens should re-affirm their allegiance to our country.

In the meanwhile, if you are preparing to make the day a holiday, and if your preparations include any of the things men wear, you'll want the co-operation we can give you in getting the right things. You may want clothes—a suit for outing wear; one of the new pinch-back or belt-back styles; extremely popular with young men, and with some older men. Maybe you'd like a blue serge suit for more dressy appearance.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Or negligee shirts, or summer neckwear, or cool underwear; we're prepared to supply all such needs very promptly and to your complete satisfaction.

The Home of Good Mdse.

P. J. McMANUS

city last evening and will spend a few days visiting with old time friends in the city of his nativity. Gerald graduated a month ago from the arts and sciences department of Creighton University and while in college won a reputation as one of the best orators in that school.

George A. Miles, of the Independent, went up to Long Pine last Friday night to attend the annual meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial association, which was held in that city last Saturday. Editor Cronin of the Bugle was also in attendance. They report a good attendance and a lively and interesting meeting.

J. D. Scott came down from Rushville the first of the week and is assisting his brother, C. B. Scott, reporting in district court this week. The defendants in the damage case on trial in district court desired a copy of the testimony each day and Mr. Scott had his brother come down to assist him in getting out the transcript of the testimony.

Dr. O. K. Tickler returned the first of the week from a visit at the home of his parents at Harvard, Neb. Doc made the trip in his peace ship and he made the 185 miles, across country, in less than ten hours. He thinks that is some record and says that as soon as he becomes expert in the manipulation of the "pesky" thing that he will break all road records.

A. E. Wilson of Chambers was in the city last Friday. Last June Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left in a Ford car for a tour of the western states and decided to locate upon the coast, if they found the country suited them. But A. E. says he did not find anything that looked quite as good as old Holt and he came back about a month ago thinking more of good old Holt than he ever did before.

T. T. Waid, one of the thoroughbred hog raisers of this county, was a caller at these headquarters last Saturday and extended his subscription to this household necessity. Mr. Waid also left his order for an advertisement in the coming issue of the Holt County Fair book and says that he expects to have on display this fall one of the finest exhibits of hogs ever shown in this section of the state.

Miss Mary and Dorothy Horiskey left last Tuesday morning for Salina, Kansas, where they will spend a couple of months' visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. William Miller.

Cornelius Keyes, who has been attending Creighton College for the past year, came home last Monday night for the summer vacation. His sister, Miss Mary, who was visiting relatives and friends in Omaha the past ten days, returned with him.

Norfolk Press: Will Stafford, one of Norfolk's very finest young men and Miss Dorothy Testman of Grand Island have announced their engagement. The bride is the niece of the millionaire ex-Senator Kearns of Utah and is a talented musician as well as a handsome brunette. She has visited in Norfolk and it was here that she first met Mr. Stafford, although the two families are old friends. It is with pleasure that their friends express best wishes.

William A. Haynes, one of the Holt county pioneers but who has been working a gold mine in South Dakota for the past eight years, was a caller at these headquarters last Saturday and extended his subscription to this disseminator of current events. Billy still has unbounded faith in his gold mine and is of the opinion that within a few months he will strike it and be independent ever after. Well, here's hoping that this Holt county pioneer will make the strike.

Elmer Miller has filed suit in the district court asking for a divorce from Mary Miller upon the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. In his petition he alleges that they were united in marriage at Bassett on February 12, 1912, and that three children are the result of the union. He alleges that his wife has cruelly neglected to properly care for the children, the result of said marriage, and he asks for an absolute divorce and the custody of the children.

Nick Mechaley of Winner, S. D., was in the city the latter part of last week visiting relatives and old-time friends. Monday morning he left for Chicago where he will enter a hospital for an operation. This will make the fourth operation that Mr. Mechaley has undergone in the past eight years and he is of the opinion that he has had more than his share. Nick's many Holt county friends trust that the present operation will be successful and that he will soon be his old time self.

In sending a remittance on his subscription P. E. Keenan, who formerly lived six miles north of this city, but who is now a resident of Lamar, Mo., to which place he moved five years ago, says: "We are all well and prosperous. It has rained a great deal here this spring. We got 3/4 inches of rain here last Sunday night. Kindly remember me to all old friends. From the above it seems as if Holt county was not the only spot that was receiving more than its share of rain this spring."

District court adjourned last Friday night until this morning, when the damage case of Nellie O'Donnell, as administrator, vs. the Iron Mountain Railroad Company is on for trial. This promises to be one of the hardest fought cases tried at this term of court and the town is full of witnesses, who have been subpoenaed from southern Missouri, by both sides to the suit. The interests of the plaintiff is being looked after by M. F. Harrington while J. A. C. Kennedy of Omaha and Senator J. A. Donohoe of this city are looking after the interests of the railroad company. This case will finish the jury work at this term of court.

LOCAL MATTERS.

J. A. Furley was up from Ewing the first of the week.

P. J. McManus left Monday morning for a business trip to the Bone-steel country.

Attorney C. H. Kelsey of Norfolk was in the city Tuesday.

Remember the Cantata at Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Remember the Cantata at the Presbyterian church Sunday next.

Antone Toy made a business trip to Plainview the first of the week.

O. K. Wright of Ewing was a business visitor to this city last Tuesday.

L. W. Arnold returned last Friday night from a short business trip to Omaha.

County Attorney Hodgkin made a business trip to Boyd county the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grady are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter at their home.

Alex Searl was down from Atkinson yesterday looking after some legal matters in the district court.

Judge J. J. Harrington went down to Omaha last Monday morning, being called there by legal business.

Mrs. J. J. McCafferty left last Monday morning for Omaha, where she will spend a week visiting friends.

Clarence Simonson left for Newcastle, Wyoming, Saturday, to inspect business he contemplates investing in.

Miss Ida Chapman, who has been attending college at Lincoln the past year, returned home last Saturday night.

Miss Ruth O'Malley returned to her home at Creighton last Monday morning after a week's visit with old friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Murphy of Havelock, Neb., visited from last Thursday to Monday with Mr. and Mrs. William Beha.

Mrs. Bernard Mullen, of Deadwood, S. D., arrived in the city yesterday morning for a few weeks' visit with relatives and old-time friends.

Claude Hancock, Lloyd Gillespie and Dr. E. T. Wilson went up to Stuart last Friday evening and attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge at that place.

A. A. Driggs, manager of the McGinnis Creamery company, returned Thursday morning from a "business" trip to Norfolk and intermediate towns.

Rev. Zinneker, pastor of the Methodist church at Pierce, Neb., was in the city the first of the week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hodgkin.

Miss Vera Kelley, of Chicago, arrived in this city last Saturday evening for a few weeks' visit at the home of her uncle, John J. Kelley, and other relatives here.

This is the longest day in the year. Just think tomorrow the days will commence to get shorter again and we will be on our way to another winter and more coal bills.

Mrs. A. D. Myers and children of Caldwell, Idaho, arrived in the city last Thursday night for a two months' visit at the home of Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Snyder.

Antone Nissen, one of the hustling young farmers from the vicinity of Page, was a caller at these headquarters last Friday and extended his subscription to The Frontier for another year.

Gotlieb Reichert, one of the hustling and prosperous farmers of Iowa precinct, was a caller at these headquarters last Monday and extended his subscription to The Frontier for another year.

"Bob" Tate, capatlist and all-round good fellow of Omaha, came in Thursday morning from the west and after interests in Holt county departed in the afternoon for Omaha.

Mrs. James H. Riggs and daughters, Miss Zeffa and Marsha, of Waterloo, Neb., arrived in the city last Saturday evening and will spend a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meredith and old friends here.

The several friends of Mrs. Jas. A. Brown, will be pleased to learn that she was successfully operated upon, this Thursday morning, at Rochester. It is expected that she will be released from the hospital in possibly two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Campbell are rejoicing over the arrival of a nine and a half pound boy at their home. Clarence is feeling so good over the arrival of the little fellow that he has been wearing the smile that won't come off ever since.

Harry G. Jordan, local Buick agent, departed Sunday for Omaha, where he joined the special train of Buick excursionists for a trip to Chicago and Detroit. The Buick men will be the guests of the Buick factory management on the trip.

Verdigris Citizen: William P. Kelley, an attorney of O'Neill, was in Verdigris last week with expectation of locating in this city. Mr. Kelly is a brother-in-law of H. P. Hansen, who lives in the Sparta neighborhood. He went to Omaha Friday.

The Presbyterian Sunday School scholars will present a Cantata entitled "Spring Heralds," at the church Sunday evening, June 25th, at 8 o'clock. Come and see this pretty programme given in costume by all classes, from beginners to seniors.

Judge Dickson went up to Bassett last Monday evening and held a term of court after the arrival of the evening passenger. He untied several martial knots that had become burdensome to the bearers thereof, and returned home Tuesday morning.

John Chmeler, who is on the road for a shoe house, was in the city last Monday and Tuesday. John is still of the opinion that there is no place like O'Neill and intends to move back to this city and open up an exclusive shoe store, as soon as he can find a suitable location.

Gerald Laviollette arrived in the