The match began at 4 o'clock and at 9 o'clock Ed Smith, of Chicago, the referee, announced it a draw. The crowd, estimated at 18,000, be-and began to cry "coward" and "make him wrestle" at Lewis. Then, as Lewis continued to evade Stecher the crowd became angry and hurled cushions into the ring. Some of these struck Stecher and some hit the referee. Police removed several persons.

$30,000 Estimated Receipts.

Gene Melady, promoter of the match, said receipts would approximate $30,00, which will be divided 60. 40 between the princapals and promoters, leaving about $18,000 to be divided between Lewis and Stecher.

The match was finished by lantern light. The original intention, as announced, had been to make it a finish match, but the tactics of Lewis made this impossible.

Large sums of money are reported to have been wagered on the match, the betting being mostly that Lewis would stay a stated time with the Ne-
