The K. C. Ball Team will go to Randolph Sunday to play a return game with the club at that place. The locals are positive that they will give a better account of themselves in the game next Sunday than they did in the game at home a week ago. It was thought for a time that there would be a special train run from here to Randolph on that day and many planned going, merely for the trip. But those in charge of the special train movement were obliged to abandon it as they could not secure enough local enthusiasts to put up $2.80 each to make up the amount asked for the special train, $207.

Wilfred R. Diercks has filed suit in the district court asking for a judgment of $10,000.00 from the Burlington Railroad Company for injuries alleged to have been received at Dixon, Neb., on July 24, 1916, while in the employ of the road as a brakeman. He alleges that on the above date while on top of a car, between 11 and 12 o'clock at night, trying to apply the brake to stop the car, that on account of the defective condition of said brake he was unable to apply it and the car struck with some force against another car on the track with the result that he was thrown to the ground and was severely injured. That as a result of said injuries he will ever be lame in the left leg. He asks for judgment in the sum of $10,000.00 and costs of suit.

Herman Rosenthal, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, recently told the members of the American Ad Club, one of the methods by which that company extended its trade. He said: "We have a bureau whose duty it is to read each week the country papers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over those papers and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper, we immediately flood that territory with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where local merchants all the time use their local paper." This clearly shows how the catalogue house gets a line on local advertising conditions.

The county board has been in session this week attending to routine business. The levy for the coming year was made and is seven-tenths of a mill larger than it was last year so the board will have more money to spend during 1917 than they had in 1916. The levy this year is 14.90, while last year it was 14.20 mills. The levy for the several funds and the amount of money that will be raised by the levy is as follows: General fund 7 1/2 mills, amount raised $38,088.30; bridge fund 2 1/2 mills, amount raised $20,318.76; emergency bridge 1 mill, amount raised $5,078.44; road fund 1 mill, amount raised $5,078.44; road dragging fund 1 mill, amount raised $5,078.44; soldiers relief fund .20 of a mill, amount raised $1,015.86; judgment fund .20 of a mill, amount raised $1,015.68. Total amount that will be raised by the levy of 14.90 mills $75,668.74.

A ball game that promises odds of fun for the spectators and sore fingers and weary limbs for the players will be pulled off on the local diamond next Sunday afternoon. A delegation of local players who have styled themselves the "Has Beens," but whom some wag dubbed the "Never Wasers," will play a team from Blackbird, which will be composed of C. A. Hoyer, Steve Hicks, Will Harvey and other star players of the "days of the long ago" in northern Holt. The local team will be composed of the following players: Fitzgerald, c.; Biglin, W., 1b; Reardon, 2b; Hiber, ss; Biglin, F., 3b; Grady, lf; Hombach, rf; Nolan, cf. Their mound artist has not as yet been selected, but the chances are that they will have at least a dozen men in training for the honor of twirling this game. It is expected to have at least a dozen substitute players on the field, so that in case of serious accident, or the inability of one of the carded players to "come back" after a hard run, a substitute can be put in and the game continued. The "Has Beens" are feeling rather cheery but we opine they are in for a good drubbing. The umpire has not yet been selected but whoever does officiate will expect to hold the players to a rigid observance of base ball rules.

Randolph 11—O'Neill 2.

Last Sunday on the O'Neill diamond the Randolph Base Ball Team met and defeated the O'Neill team, in a one sided game, by a score of 11 to 2. In the first inning Randolph came up to bat, the first man got a clean single, the next struck out, the third man got a hit which should have resulted in a single, but which ended in a home run. In the third inning Randolph scored again by bunching three hits and on account of the open playing of the O'Neill team. They scored once in the fourth and five times in the seventh, making their total score 11.

In the third, Sullivan, for O'Neill, came up and succeeded in getting a hit. Watson the next man got on and scored, when Brennan got a two base hit. They scored again in the sixth when H. McGoff got a hit, went to second on an error of third, and scored when B. McGoff connected for a good single.

Following is the score:

Hanley, cf	4	0	2	1

the club house. Those who came were: H. J. Boyle, Ed. M. Gallagher, S. J. Weekes, J. F. O'Donnell, D. A. Criss, Arthur Ryan, B. S. Mullen, Thomas Hutchison, William Biglin, Hugh Birmingham, R. R. Morrison, William Simpson and J. A. Brown.

The O'Neill delegation "framed" a job on O'Donnell. O'Donnell had made a bet at O'Neill that he would beat the man he played in Norfolk. He's one of the sharks of the O'Neill club, and under ordinary circumstances he might have won the bet easily. But the friends from O'Neill asked that a man be pitted against O'Donnell who would be sure to trim the visitor. Byrl Beeler, who holds the ground record with 38, was selected. And then O'Donnell nearly turned the tables. At the end of the ninth hole Beeler was 3 up but O'Donnell won the next four holes straight and gave Beeler the battle of his life to finally win out.

A Norfolk Criticism.

In discussing the invasion of the O'Neill golf players last Sunday, the Around Town Man of the Norfolk News remarked thusly:

"At last we have met Jawn Weekes of O'Neill on the golf battlefield and the first battle has resulted in a draw. Jawn's wife told him that if he let the A. T. M. beat him at Norfolk he needn't come back home. With that stinging rebuke to urge us on, we went out the first round and cleaned Jawn up by seven strokes. That left Jawn in an awful predicament. He couldn't go back home and he hadn't come prepared to make an extended stay. So he took the logical alternative and issued a challenge for another round, and this time he cleaned up the A. T. M. by four big strokes and a dime. In view of the fact that Jawn got a dime of our money and in view of the further fact that we got three strokes the best of the argument for the whole day, we agreed to call it a draw and fight it out some time this summer on the O'Neill links. We have been challenging Jawn for several years and every time he got within gunshot he says the A. T. M. ran away and hid. Personally, we shall always feel that the failure to beat him was due to a lesson taken last week from the professional instructor.

It Helps Your Neighbors

Today all our affairs are so closely related that circumstances and conditions which have a bearing on the welfare of your neighbors are usually bound to have some effect on your own personal affairs.

For example, if several farmers in the county were obliged to sell their property at a sacrifice this would have a tendency to hold down the price of your farm along with the rest.

On the other hand, if it becomes a subject of general talk that farms in this vicinity are producing well and farmers and stock growers are making money, you can see it helps the entire community.

Money deposited in the Bank by your neighbors helps you. WHY? Because to a large extent the prosperity of a community is judged by many business and financial interests by its general bank deposits.

If your county as a whole has a favorable reputation it benefits all because it gives us a better credit standing and leads to business being done on a more liberal basis which is bound to help each of us.

It is pretty sound judgment to state that the Depositors' State Guarantee Fund of Nebraska is having its effect for the general good of every resident of the state.

The safety which it assures any depositor in a State Bank is bringing large increases in deposits to all banks under State Supervision. That helps you and your neighbors.

NEBRASKA STATE BANK, O'NEILL

Obituary.

Jehn Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Holland of this city, died at his home in Butte, Mont., on Monday, August 14th, of valvular heart trouble, after a very short illness.

The remains were brought to this city last Thursday night, being accompanied by his uncle, Stephen Holland of Butte, and were interred in the Catholic cemetery here last Thursday morning, the funeral being held from the Catholic church.

John Holland was born on the old Holland homestead, five miles west of this city, on January 19, 1885, and was in his thirty-second year at the time of his death. He remained on the old home place until some twelve years ago when he started for the west to seek his fortune and since that time has made his home in Butte, Mont. Some two months ago he suffered a severe attack of pneumonia but had recovered from the attack, but it left his heart in such a weak condition that he succumbed to a sudden attack of heart trouble.

Deceased was unmarried and leaves besides his aged father and mother several brothers and sisters to mourn the passing of a kind and loving son and brother.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends and neighbors who extended words of sympathy and so kindly assisted during the burial of our loving son and brother, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks. Mr. and Mrs. M. Holland and Family.

WILLIAM DAWSON

William was left a small fortune. He began to live magnificently. He had no idea until he came into his fortune how many friends he had. In a few years time he had spent his fortune and had accumulated considerable debts. He and his friends had literally eaten up his fortune. He had no idea how few friends he had until he had spent his fortune. If you have a small fortune keep it at this Bank and as long as you do so the world will go well with you and you will have a host of friends.

Every time you yield to the temptation to spend a dollar you weaken your will to bank a dollar.
