

LOCAL MATTERS.

John Wenner of Sheridan township was a business visitor in this city Tuesday last.

Mrs. Anna Pray, and two children, are visiting at her mother's, Mrs. Mary Flynn, at Stuart, Iowa.

Dougal Allen and Arthur Wilson of Emmet were taking in the sights at the Sioux City fair last week.

An entirely new version of what a penny will buy, at The Rexall Store, October 19, 20, 21. Gilligan & Stout.

John Sullivan of Shields township was on the market with several loads of hogs Tuesday. They brought $9.50 per hundred.

Th Blue Ribbon Club met with Mrs. R. H. Mills Wednesday. Luncheon was served and a very nice time was enjoyed by all.

A. A. Driggs of the McGinnis Creamery company departed Wednesday for a week end visit with Minneapolis friends.

Lemuel Blair, aged twenty-two, of Page, was granted a license to wed Gladys Booth, aged nineteen, of Council Bluffs, last Saturday.

Ernie Reed, who is now a resident of Riverton, Wyoming, arrived in the city last week to spend a few days visiting old time friends.

Our toilet line is the best the market produces. One cent will buy up to two dollar's worth at The Rexall Store, October 19, 20, 21. Gilligan & Stout.

Edward Gatz, who is now attending the Pharmacy School at Fremont, arrived here Thursday night and left Sunday afternoon after a visit with his folks.

Raymond McBride left the first of the week for Superior, Wis., where he will remain for some time visiting with his brother John, who resides there.

Joe Miller, whose home is in Omaha, but who has been working in Tilden for some time, arrived here Monday and began work in the Gilligan & Stout Drug Store.

Edward Steckmyer, who resides fourteen miles northeast of O'Neill, was transacting business in the city Wednesday and called at these headquarters and extended his subscription for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rigdon left Monday morning for a three weeks automobile tour during which they will visit relatives at Sioux City and other Iowa points, and also at Kirksville, Mo., Mrs. Rigdon's old home.

O. O. Snyder left Wednesday morning for York, Neb., where he goes to attend a meeting of the board of governors of the Odd Fellows Home, Mr. Snyder being a member of the board. Mr. Snyder will also visit Lincoln and Omaha before returning home.

Save your pennies: They'll be worth up to two dollars at the Rexall Store, October 19, 20, 21. Gilligan & Stout.

Siders and Powell made this office a short call one day last week and report grain poor in most parts where they have threshed, but report a good run in the John Brady country west of Dorsey, also threshed some Alfalfa and Colver seed for Brady of a very fine quality.

George Gaughenbaugh is feeling fine since the fair, and he has good reason for feeling so. At the fair the flour of the O'Neill Roller Mills won first and second prizes on both bread and buns. George is of the opinion that there was glory enough in that achievement for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Evans and Sanford Parker captured the trout record for Holt county for this year Monday afternoon. On a fishing excursion to the Eagle each of the gentlemen succeeded in snagging fifteen trout of various sizes, while Mrs. Evans captured five large ones. Tuesday evening, with several friends, they enjoyed a trout feed at the Golden hotel.

John Chmela was in town the latter part of last week. John has finally decided to re-engage in business in this city and in company with Ben Grady will open an exclusive boot and shoe store in the building formerly occupied by D. Abdousch just east of Gilligan & Stout's drug store. Both these boys are popular young fellows and The Frontier predicts that they will be successful.

L. E. Skidmore of Ewing has been appointed a member of the county board, to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Th. D. Sievers. Skid has been a member of the county board before and The Frontier desires to congratulate the county board upon selecting a man of ability to represent that district. If Holt county had more men of Skid's ability upon the county board the county would be better off.

G. L. Hoppe of Francis, and C. H. Johnson of Chambers, were callers at this office last Tuesday morning and extended their subscription to this disseminator of current events for another year. Mr. Hoppe is a resident of Wheeler county but says that he would be lost without the weekly visits of The Frontier. Mr. Johnson was hauling out cement which he expects to use in improving his farm buildings in Conley precinct.

We saw the police called in to handle this sale in Chicago; let us be reasonable. At The Rexall Store, October 19, 20, 21. Gilligan & Stout.

Pat O'Malley came over from Creighton last Wednesday to take in the Holt county fair and incidentally look after his real estate interests in this county. Pat is one of the staunchest democrats in the state but says that he will vote for Hughes this year, as he is convinced that he is the man best fitted for that position. When such enthusiastic democrats as Pat O'Malley desert the democratic ship it is a sure sign that she is badly leaking.

Jack Taggart, one of the pioneer settlers of the south country, dropped dead in his barn on his place last Tuesday evening at about 10:30. Mr. Taggart and his wife had been to Chambers and upon their return home Mrs. Taggart, on account of Mr. Taggart's infirmity, put the team away. While she was doing that she heard him fall up against the barn door and called to him and he responded and said that he felt down. She went to him at once but he was dead when she reached his side.

Last week R. M. Strickland sold his home in the southeastern part of the city to Wilson Abbott, who has been a resident of the south country for several years. Mr. Abbott expects to move to this city in a few weeks and make his future home. Mr. Strickland expects to go to Wyoming and look over that country with a view to locating. The Frontier is sorry to see such an estimable family leave the city but will join their many friends throughout the county in wishing them happiness and prosperity wherever they may locate.

Cyril Erychleib and family were over from Spencer last week, taking in the Holt County Fair and incidentally visiting relatives. While in the city Cyril was a caller at this office and extended his subscription to this household necessity for another year. Cyril says that he was a resident of this city for so many years that it would now be impossible for him to keep house unless he had this disseminator of current events visit his home at least once a week. Cyril is one of Boyd county's leading merchants and Spencer's leading citizens.

Last week Walter Stein purchased the Frank Campbell garage, taking possession last Monday morning. He is one of Holt county's popular young men and is well versed in the automobile business and The Frontier predicts that he will make a success of this business. Frank Campbell was enjoying a good business there but for the past five or six months his health has not been the best and he was forced to retire from the business. Frank has not decided what he will do, but says that he intends to rest for a month or two at least and will then probably go on the road and sell automobiles.

Sheriff Grady broke all jitney records in a trip to South Dakota last Saturday morning. He left here at 4 o'clock in the morning drove to Fairfax, S. D., secured a prisoner and returned to O'Neill with his man, reaching here at 10:30 a. m. The man he brought back was L. L. Lee, who was arrested upon complaint of J. M. Michaels, a merchant of Atkinson. Lee is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. Another reason why Grady should be re-elected: He always gets his man, even if he has to make a drive in the middle of the night.

Our stationary values will be wonderful: A pound of paper for one cent. The Rexall Store, October 19, 20, 21. Gilligan & Stout.

Township Caucus.

The republican electors of Grattan township are called to meet in caucus in The Frontier office in the city of O'Neill in said township on Saturday afternoon, October 7, 1916, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a township ticket and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

H. L. PAGE, Committeeman.

Selecting A Legislator.

Lincoln Trade Review: It will be regrettable, if in the election of a legislature this fall, strong, capable men who have been building for themselves character and integrity, are refused an election and some narrow, incompetent men of no ability are elected in place of them because of the contentions that are in evidence on both sides of the prohibition amendment question. Nebraska is becoming a great state—great in wealth, great in volume of business, greater even yet in opportunities for growth and development. This state needs a legislature of broad minded, large men who have large conceptions of Nebraska and a vision of its future. A legislature of this kind can do much for this state—can lay foundations deep and broad for the development and the upbuilding of the state in many ways. It will be—ought to be, a matter of common regret if we shall sacrifice strong, honest men for narrow, little men because they may have convictions on the prohibition question on either side that they are not small enough to surrender for the sake of securing office.

Every member elected to the legislature, takes the oath that he will support the constitution of the state. If the prohibition amendment, by the votes of the people, is made a part of the constitution of the state, the real men of strength and character who take that oath will be efficient advocates of supporting the constitution as it is amended, regardless of what their personal preference might have been. Real men of integrity and character are large enough, to subvert private judgment to the judgment of the majority in government. What an outlook there is to enlarge the growth and business of Nebraska through wise and just legislation; what opportunities there are for 133 strong capable men to do things for this state that will reach for its betterment far into the future years, what waiting opportunities for wise legislation along the line of public improvement, the bringing of capital to the state, the development of unused resources, confronts us today.

What a disappointment there will be if we sacrifice the best material in the way of men that are candidates for the legislature because, perforce, they do not make one question of public policy the dominant one with them. What a hopeful outlook it would be for results in this state if the people in every district voted for the man of the highest integrity and character; of the largest ability; of the best judgment, regardless of his personal politics or his individual belief on any one question. A legislature made up of men of this character would do more effective work for any new legislation required, than a whole army of narrow minded men of little calibre, meager ability and whose principal asset would be their own exaggerated ideas of their personal greatness.

That is not a large weekly wage. But then you are young. You will soon grow older and as you grow older you should be worth more and get more. But just now say you put in an Account here each week 35c. In a year that will amount to $18.20.

Anderson, 2b	1	1	1	Mr. Kennedy not only discussed in a most convincing manner the weak vacillating policy of the present democratic administration during the present crisis in world affairs, and the upbuilding of the country under republican rule, but referred pointedly to makeshift and misleading legislation enacted by the present congress in an effort to cover up the deficiencies of mal-administration. He declared unequivocally in favor of a rural credit system by which the government would loan the funds of the postal savings system to deserving farmers rather than to Wall street.

William Lahey Dies Suddenly.

William Lahey of O'Neill, a witness in the case of Haffner against Devlin of Plainview, in district court at Pierce, died at 2 o'clock last Thursday morning at the Pierce hotel after a stroke of paralysis suffered at noon Wednesday.

Mr. Lahey had been brought to Pierce from O'Neill as a witness for the plaintiff and he was eating dinner when the stroke overtook him. The plaintiff desired his testimony and with the lawyers on both sides Judge Welch went to the hotel in the afternoon where he was examined and was entirely rational although his speech was affected by the stroke. Attorney E. H. Whelan of O'Neill, attorney for the defendant, who was in Norfolk on his way home Thursday, declared that owing to Mr. Lahey's condition he asked him but one question in cross examination. Leamy of Pierce and Blezek of Plainview were attorneys for the plaintiff.

The suit involved a dispute over a real estate commission and the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

The remains were shipped to this city Friday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the Protestant cemetery Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Merritt Martin of Riverton, Wyoming, a daughter of Mr. Lahey was present at the funeral. "Bill" Lahey was one of the old time settlers of this county and was a lovable character. At one time he was fairly well to do but after he and his wife separated William continued to go down hill financially, until at the time of his death he was depending upon the wages of his daily toil for his livelihood. He was a good citizen, a kind and faithful friend, and what man could be more.

Kennedy Addresses O'Neill Voters.

Hon. John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, addressed the voters of O'Neill at a well attended meeting at the pavilion Saturday evening. Mr. Kennedy held the closest attention of his audience during a forty-five minute address. The meeting concluded a series of three in Holt County, at Stuart, At-

A surprise party was given Ellisworth Mack last Thursday evening on the occasion of his twenty-fifth birthday. The company, to the number of about fifty, assembled at the house, but the room being somewhat limited they adjourned to the rink, where they tripped the light fantastic for several hours. It was a very pleasant party and all present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Taken from the files of The Frontier of October 1, 1896:

Mrs. Thomas Waldron left this morning for Scranton, Pa., where she will spend a few weeks visiting relatives.
