

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXXVII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1916.

NO. 23.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Thanksgiving Day is coming
Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes have been here some time

There is a direct relation between the two ideas stated in our heading; because such clothes as these are a good cause for Thanksgiving.

In these troubled days, when the cost of everything we eat or wear or use is advancing, you must not forget that the temptation is very great on manufacturers to keep the prices of their products down by letting down a little on quality. That's just what's going on in the making of clothes as well as of other things.

And that's why you can be thankful for Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; the quality of all-wool fabrics, the fine tailoring, the smart style are all the more important; and these makers haven't lowered their standards in the smallest degree.

When you come here for these clothes, you'll get the best in the world.

P. J. McMANUS

"The Home of Good Merchandise"

LOCAL MATTERS.

O. K. Right of Ewing was in the city Wednesday.

Jim Shorthill was down from Emmet Thursday.

Attorney F. M. Ward was in Ewing Thursday on legal business.

Mike Froelick went down to Norfolk Thursday morning on business.

John Carr of Stafford was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday and Wednesday.

L. W. Arnold, wife and daughter went down to Norfolk Thursday morning.

John White of Blair, grandfather of Kenneth Pound, arrived here Tuesday for a short visit.

Con Keys returned Thursday afternoon from a combined business and pleasure trip to Omaha.

Frank Suchy left Wednesday morning for a few days visit with friends in David City and Omaha.

Editor and Mrs. Geo. A. Miles went to Omaha Wednesday morning for a few days visit in the city.

Concert, November 27th, at K. of C. Hall. Chorus of thirty-six voices, O'Neill's best vocal talent.

The local government weather station reported a temperature of six below zero Monday morning.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Naylor, Wednesday, November 22, at 2:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

Miss Virginia Testman went up to Bassett Friday and spent Sunday visiting old friends in that city.

All Home Talent Concert at K. of C. Hall, Monday, November 27th, Program will be published next week.

Mary Carney went down to Omaha Sunday morning for a short visit with relatives and friends at that place.

J. S. Jackson, the affable and talented editor of the Inman Leader, was in our city on business Wednesday.

Dennis H. Cronin left Saturday morning for Lincoln and other south eastern Nebraska points on a weeks' business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kellogg returned Wednesday evening from an extended sojourn in Chicago and other eastern cities.

Mrs. Ella Maher came up from Norfolk the first of the week for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrison.

Judge C. J. Malone came up from Inman Friday afternoon to attend to some business matters and get the late dope on the election.

A. L. Cowperthwaite will leave Friday morning for Long Beach, California, to spend the winter. He will return to O'Neill next April.

A. E. Biglin went down to Norfolk Sunday morning to take in the K. C. initiation and incidentally visit old friends. He returned Monday night.

Hugh Campbell, Homer Mullen and Kelly Martin went down to Norfolk Sunday to take in the K. C. initiation which was being held there on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Parker have closed up their residence on Douglas street and left Sunday morning for Omaha where they will spend the winter.

An exchange and light lunch, for the benefit of the St. Mary's Academy, will be held at Fitzsimmons Millinery Saturday, November 18, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m.

With eight counties yet to hear from at the time of his departure, Congressman Kinkaid's majority was over ten thousand, the largest he has ever received.

Jim Laviolette, formerly a resident of this city, but now located at Osmond where he is engaged in the drug business, was visiting old friends in this city Sunday.

Miss Bernice Golden left Thursday morning for Lincoln for a couple weeks visit with old college friends and incidentally to take in the remaining football games.

Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid departed Tuesday morning for a short visit at Denver, after which he will go to Washington for the opening of congress in December.

Joseph McClusky, formerly of O'Neill, but now residing on a claim north of Gillette, Wyoming, arrived here Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives and friends.

E. Roy Townsend of Upton, Wyoming, former O'Neill and Holt county citizen, arrived in the city Monday evening and will remain for several days. Mr. Townsend is enroute home from an eastern trip.

Herb. Jensen of Shields township, who has been hauling wheat for several days, has decided to hold the remainder of his crop for a time, in anticipation of another rise.

Attorney H. M. Uttley was called to Omaha on legal business Saturday, returning Sunday night.

The open season on all kinds of fish closed yesterday. Also the open season on quail, which in this state is but fifteen days. The open season on prairie chicken, sage hens and grouse closes November 30.

Paul Martin, stenographer to Congressman Kinkaid, who has been in O'Neill since the adjournment of congress, departed Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Sidney, Neb., after which he will go to Washington.

Editor L. J. Mayfield and wife, of the Louisville Courier, were in the city a few days the forepart of the week visiting at the home of their son, E. D. Mayfield. This office acknowledges a pleasant call.

T. V. Golden is remodeling his building on north Fourth street, formerly occupied by the Royal theatre, for a store building which will be occupied, when completed, by John Melvin, who intends to conduct a thoroughly up-to-date department store.

J. M. Foreman of Alva, formerly in the lumber business at that place, was in the city the forepart of the week where he concluded arrangements for the lease of Judge Harrington's ranch south of Stuart. Mr. Foreman contemplates moving his family up within the next month.

L. E. Harding was taken to St. Josephs Hospital at Omaha Tuesday morning where he will undergo treatment for Brights Disease. L. E.'s many Holt county friends will join with The Frontier in hoping that the treatment will be effective and that he will soon be able to be back among us.

The local council of the Knights of Columbus have taken over the Star theatre for next Monday night, and will show William Farnum in Fighting Blood as a benefit for the Sisters. The picture combines beautiful scenes with strong aggressive action and is said to be one of the most costly of the William Farnum productions.

The members of St. Patrick's Choir, assisted by their Musical Friends, will give a Concert at the K. of C. Hall on Monday evening, November 27th. The vocal part of the concert will be given by home talent, as only local singers will participate, and the instrumental selections and chorus accompaniments will be furnished by the Hall Orchestra.

E. H. Whelan went down to Norfolk Sunday morning to attend an initiation of the Knights of Columbus, and to preside, as toastmaster, at a banquet in the evening. Ed is the acknowledged toastmaster laureate of Western Nebraska and from what we are able to learn of his performance at Norfolk he acquitted himself in true Ed Whelan style.

Boyd county farmers will organize to procure a farm demonstrator or county agent for that county. A meeting has been called for next week, at Butte, to discuss the project. The meeting will be addressed by County Agent Leader A. E. Anderson of Lincoln. The government pays half the salary of county agents, the counties bearing the remainder of the expense.

Twelve of the city's most popular young society maids have organized, what they term, the Whist Whackers club. They hold meetings every Tuesday evening, the hostess being chosen by lot. Miss Mae Hammond drew the honor last week and the entertainment was so exceptional that the girls have decided she can have it every week. Miss Florence McCafferty won the prize at whist.

W. L. Alder, who has been at Lucedale, Mississippi, arrived in the city last Friday. He is moving back to his ranch northeast of Mineola; his car of stock and machinery is expected in a day or two. Mr. Alder likes the climate in Mississippi fine, but the dry weather, wind storms, hail, etc., is not conducive to good crops, so he is making the change. We are glad to welcome Mr. Alder back to old Holt.

Lieutenant Owen Meredith, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Meredith, Master Willard and Mrs. Meredith's father, W. H. Willard, arrived last evening from El Paso for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meredith, parents of Lieutenant Meredith. The lieutenant has been on a tour of duty along the Mexican border for the last nine months and has been recently detailed as professor of military science and tactics at the University of Minnesota. He will leave for Minneapolis and take up his new duties in a few days. Mrs. Meredith and son, and Mr. Willard, will remain at O'Neill for a time.