Let him inspect your feet and tell you how to overcome your foot troubles. He has helped thousands of others and probably can help you to obtain permanent comfort, too.

He is not a so-called "corn-doctor." He does not cut corns or callouses—he performs no operations. He simply inspects your feet and tells you how you can obtain instant relief and permanent comfort by mechanical means, using Dr. Scholl's wonderfully successful scientific appliances and preparations to produce the most desirable results.

And remember, there is no charge whatever for this service. You will not be asked to buy a single thing. Neither need you be a customer of this store.

come early will be more certain of his most careful and thorough attention. So do not put off your visit until the last minute—you may be too late then. Drop everything else, if need be, and come early. If you are now wearing arch supports, let him readjust them for you. It will cost you nothing.

Bring the Children

Little weaknesses in children's feet may develop into serious and painful foot ailments if allowed to progress. Let the Scholl foot expert see their feet and show you how to take care of the little ones and prevent possible foot troubles. Let him tell you how to select shoes for the children—how to be sure that their little feet will have plenty of room to grow correctly.

Don't Let this Opportunity Slip by You

This is an opportunity that no one should overlook. It may mean permanent freedom from the annoyance, the discomfort, the pain of foot ailments. It is an opportunity that comes but seldom to most of us and you should lose no time in taking the fullest advantage of it. There are no strings attached to this offer—you will not be asked to buy a thing. So do not hesitate to come.

O'Neill's Poet Laureate.

O'Neill, for years noted for her orators, has lately developed a writer of no mean ability who is commending, through newspaper dispatches and stories, the attention and admiration of the reading public throughout the whole country. The gentleman is a native born O'Neillite, has resided here all his life and has been engaged in literary work for but about two years. He is John B. O'Sullivan. Mr. O'Sullivan is a regular contributor to several eastern sporting magazines with national circulations, and represents Kansas City, Lincoln, Norfolk and St. Louis newspapers in this locality, and is, at present, having some prose and verse published in book form by the Huse Publishing Company. He is especially adept at depicting natural life as it is and his works on these subjects are eagerly sought after. He is a constant and hearty booster for O'Neill and never fails to put in a good word for O'Neill or O'Neill people whenever possible. The poem following, written by Mr. O'Sullivan, was taken from a recent issue of the Kansas City Journal:

If I Had A Million.

If I had a million dollars and a costly touring car,
I'd go sailing 'round America and see how the people are,
For there must be lots of natives who a fellow ought to see,
In a land that keeps them guessing what the next thing's going to be.

If I had a million dollars and a costly touring car,
I'd go scooting for the country like a little shooting star,
For I've heard there's mighty waters that are just as clear as glass,
Where the ranchers fatten cattle on the water and the grass.

If I had a million dollars and a costly touring car,
I'd take a trip to Songbird Land—where the pretty singers are;
Then I'd roll around the mountains, where the air is pure and crisp—
Where the jackals fight and frolic and the playful zephyrs hiss.

Now I've got a million dollars and a costly touring car,
And I do not want for anything; (thank you for this cigar),
Yes, I sail around the city, where the stylish people are,
For, I've got a million dollars, and, a costly touring car.
