

LOCAL MATTERS.

D. L. Jouvenat was down from Atkinson Monday.
Col. Barney Stewart was up from Page last Monday.
Attorney W. E. Scott was down from Atkinson the first of the week.
Allen G. Fisher, of Chadron, was in the city Monday looking after some business matters.
L. C. Chapman left this morning for Winner, S. D., to look after a few business matters.
English services at the Lutheran church Sunday, June 17th, at 10 a. m. Everybody is welcomed.
Miss Grace Stanley, of Sioux City, arrived in the city the first of the week for a short visit with friends here.
Mrs. M.-R. Pound arrived here last Sunday from Blair, Nebr., and will for a short time visit with her son, K. A. Pound.
Webb Kellogg went down to Omaha Sunday morning on a short business trip. Mrs. Kellogg joining him Wednesday.
Miss Mary Stannard left Sunday morning for a week's visit with relatives and friends at Omaha and Lincoln.
Senator I. A. Albert, of Columbus, was an O'Neill visitor last Tuesday, looking after legal matters in the district court.
County Judge Malone left the first of the week for a short trip to the southern part of the state to visit some relatives.
Mrs. Layton, a W. C. T. U. speaker, will speak at the union services to be held at the Methodist church next Sunday evening.
Miss Donald Barker, of Gregory, S. D., arrived here Friday afternoon for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Walter Stein.
Edward White, 47, and Miss Pearl Coledge, 30, both of Amelia, secured a marriage license from the county court on Wednesday.
Gilbert E. Morgan and Miss Edna B. Griffin both of Atkinson, obtained a marriage license from the county judge on last Monday.
Mrs. Neil P. Brennan left the latter part of last week for Albia, Iowa, where she will spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. W. P. Hombach left last Thursday morning for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where she will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.
Ben Powell, one of the pioneers of the Mineola country, was a caller at this office last Monday, advancing his subscription another notch.
T. J. Doyle, of Lincoln, one of the prominent attorneys of Lancaster county, was in the city Monday attending the opening of district court.
Clyde E. Keller, age 22, of Orchard, and Miss May M. Palras, age 18, of Ewing, obtained a marriage license at the county court chambers last Monday.
John B. Larson and Miss Cora E. Rochl, aged 22 and 21 respectively, and both from Stanton, secured a marriage license from the county court Thursday.
L. C. Peters is now the owner of an automobile and he is busy these days burning oil and gas in the jitney. He says that he is able to qualify as an expert chauffeur.
William Evans, one of the hustling and energetic farmers of Peasantview township, was a caller at this office last Wednesday, renewing his subscription to this household necessity.
Henry D. Grady went down to Omaha last Tuesday morning for a few days visit. Before leaving Hank said that he would probably go over to Lincoln today to hear Roosevelt.
Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Gilligan and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stout went down to Tekamah Sunday morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. P. Latta who was buried in that city Tuesday.
George M. Latzel, aged 37, and Miss Mollie M. Babutzka, aged 21, the former residing at Ewing and the latter at Newboro, secured a marriage license from the county judge on last Thursday.
Judge R. R. Dickson returned from Omaha last Friday afternoon where he had been attending the Masonic Grand Lodge. Mrs. Dickson, who went down with him, remained for a few days visit with friends.
Frank Moore, Neal Whitman and Ed Flood, of Emmet, left last Sunday morning for Omaha, where the former went to join the Fourth Regiment of the Nebraska National guard and the two latter went to join the navy.
Clarence Malone, son of the County

Judge, took up his duties the first of the week as stenographer in that office. Clarence has been going to school for some time at Fremont, where he was taking a course in shorthand and typewriting.
Dr. W. P. Hombach went down to Omaha and Council Bluffs Sunday morning on a short business trip. Dr. Hombach is thinking some of joining the Red Cross for service in France and will look into the matter while in the city.
C. M. Gruenther, clerk of the district court of Platte county and one of the prominent democrats of the state, was in the city the first of the week, disposing of a piece of land in the north part of the county at referees' sale last Tuesday.
District court convened in regular session in this city last Monday morning. As there were no cases ready for trial court was dismissed and there will be no spring term this year. Judge Dickson will hear several equity cases during the next ten days.
Lincoln is putting on a celebration this week in honor of Nebraska's semi-centennial and today Theodore Roosevelt is guest of honor. He delivered an address this afternoon on Americanism. The people of Lincoln are looking for a monster crowd today.
The county board are in session this week as a board of equalization. Several complaints on taxation have been filed and we understand that several residents of the county will be asked to appear before the board and give reasons why their assessment should not be increased.
C. O. Jantzi, one of Shileds township's prosperous farmers, was a caller at this office Wednesday and ordered The Frontier sent to his address for the ensuing year. Chris said that he had to keep posted and he knew of no better way than by joining the Frontier's family of readers.
A. E. Bowen, R. M. Miliard and J. C. Young went down to Omaha last Friday morning and enlisted in the navy. Mr. Bowen enlisted as a musician. Mr. Bowen returned Saturday and is cleaning up his business affairs here and will leave the latter part of the week for Omaha.
J. F. McGraw, who has been a resident of this county for the past two years, left Monday morning for Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he will look over the county with a view to locating. Mrs. McGraw and the children are visiting relatives at Geneva, where they will remain until he has selected a location.
William Shaunessy went down to Sioux City last Thursday with his son, Lawrence, whom he has placed in a hospital there for throat treatment. Young Mr. Shaunessy has been in pretty bad shape recently and it is hoped that a few weeks in a hospital there will be the means of restoring him to his old normal self.
Hans Jacobson, of Emmet, was a caller at this office this morning and had his name enrolled on The Frontier's list of readers. Mr. Jacobson says that some of the corn on the low land south of Emmett is just being planted, it being impossible to get on the land before on account of the excessive rains this spring.
Stephen B. Benson and Miss Angie O'Neill, of Ancar, were united in marriage at Fremont, Neb., last Thursday. This young couple are from two of the most prominent families of this county and will make their future home on the farm of the groom northeast of this city. They have many friends in this county who will wish them happiness and prosperity.
King Constantine of Greece was compelled to abdicate the throne to his second son, Prince Alexander. The fall of this once popular ruler was the outcome of his refusal to join the entente in the world war. His opposition aroused the governments of England, France and Russia—the protecting powers—and in response to their demands, the King abdicated Wednesday.
Lt. Francis M. Brennan U. S. A. left Monday morning to join the Third Infantry to which he has been assigned. The location of the different regiments is not disclosed by the war department and Lt. Brennan left for Omaha where he will receive orders where to join his regiment. The Third is one of the crack regiments of the army and it is indeed a tribute to Mr. Brennan's ability to be assigned to this regiment.
Mr. and Mrs. Chist Anderson and little son, of Bristow, were in the city last Tuesday. Mrs. Anderson spent the day visiting with her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Chapman, while Crist toured the city greeting his many friends here. Crist says that crop prospects are fine in Boyd county and also in Gregory county, South Dakota, even if the spring is very backward. Small grain he says, is looking particularly good in that section. They left for home Wednesday evening.

William Nollkamper, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday, coming up Tuesday evening for a few days visit with old friends and to look after his vast business interests in northern Holt and in Gregory county, South Dakota. While in the city William made this office a short call and extended his subscription to this family journal. Since his removal to Omaha Mr. Nollkamper has taken life easy but says he likes to get back to O'Neill and meet his old-time friends, and that this city will always be more like home to him than Omaha.
Charles Merithew, of Central City, Neb., arrived in the city last evening for a few days visit with old-time friends. Mr. Merithew was a resident of this city for several years, having been employed as a baker in the J. Bentley bakery. Some eighteen years ago he left O'Neill and since that time has made his home in the eastern part of the state, for the past eleven years at Central City. Charley says that there is a wonderful change for the better in O'Neill since he left here and he is pleased to get back and greet old friends after years of absence.
Arthur Wilson was down from Emmet last Tuesday. He announced that there would be a base ball game in this city next Sunday afternoon between the Emmet and Newport teams. A week from Sunday Atkinson and Emmet will cross bats upon the local diamond. Both these games promise to be good interesting contests and will be well worth witnessing. Several of the Emmet ball players have joined the army and more will join shortly and Mr. Wilson says that he expects that the team will have to disband after July 4th as they will not have enough men to fill their team. Give them a good crowd at the games Sunday and a week from Sunday.
Ed. Graham received a telegram Tuesday evening announcing the death of his brother, Morris, that afternoon at San Jose, Calif. Mr. Graham was taken with an attack of appendicitis about a week ago and Ed received a letter from Mrs. Graham three days ago saying that Morris was operated upon for appendicitis and that the operation was successful and the news of his death was a hard blow for Ed. Mr. Graham was 47 year of age and lived on the old farm north of this city until 1890 when he went to Omaha and learned the stero typers' trade on the old Omaha Republican. In 1891 he went to California and has been a resident of that state ever since. Mr. Graham was here on a visit seven years ago, on his way home from a meeting of the National Stereotypers' Association, which was held in New York, and which he attended as a delegate from San Jose. Deceased leaves a wife and several brothers and one sister to mourn his death. The Frontier joins the friends of the family in extending condolence.

nineteen members, but about forty had signified their intention to join the order.
The base ball game at Atkinson between the Atkinson Reds and the O'Neill Unions, resulted in a score of 17 to 9 in favor of Atkinson. On account of the rain only six innings were placed.
Twenty Years Ago.
S. J. Weekes was nominated by the president for registrar of the O'Neill land office. John will probably get into the traces about July 15th.
The following officers were elected in the Elkhorn Valley lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F., for the ensuing term: J. P. Gilligan, N. G.; Emil Sniggs, V. G.; O. O. Snyder and J. C. Harnish were elected representatives to grand lodge which meets in Lincoln in October.
The Commencement exercises of the O'Neill high school were held in the opera house last Friday evening, and were listened to attentively by a large and appreciative audience.
Clyde King returned from Oregon last Tuesday evening. Clyde says prospecting in that section is not what it is cracked up to be. He must have encountered some startling adventures on the trip as some silvery hairs now glisten on his brow, where only locks were visible when he left O'Neill. He had a pocket full of rattles which he killed while prospecting for the yellow metal on the mountains of California and Oregon. Charlie Milliard will return in about a month.
Fred Swingley went to Atkinson Sunday evening to take charge of the new bank which was opened up for business Monday morning. We wish him success.
Several Holt county farmers have been compelled to replant their corn on account of the destructive little cut worm.
Albert Van Connet and Miss Cora Snell, both of Page, were granted a marriage license by the county judge last Friday.
M. T. Rowland, G. W. Short and E. R. Maxam left for Chicago last Saturday where they expect to invest in an Edison vitascope and exhibit the same through the country.
Jake Hershiser came up from Norfolk Tuesday and will spend several days in the city looking after his business interests.
Charlie Stout left for Blair Sunday morning, where he goes to attend the wedding of his brother. He will take in the sights in Omaha before his return.

Ten Years Ago.
Secretary of War Taft will go through O'Neill on the Northwestern at 10:20 Sunday evening, June 16th, instead of coming to O'Neill over the Great Northern the 15th as previously announced. Arrangements have been made for the Secretary to deliver a short address in O'Neill.
B. E. Sturdevant of Atkinson, has been recommended for the appointment as registrar of the O'Neill land office, to take the place of S. J. Weekes resigned.
A very pleasant surprise was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rouse on Friday last, the occasion being the 73rd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rouse. All of the children and grandchildren were present. At noon a bountiful repast was served to which all did justice.
Arrangements have been completed for a Holt county matinee and sporting carnival at O'Neill, Nebraska, Saturday, June 22, 1907. Horse racing and base ball will constitute the program.
Miss Mable Snyder came home from Lincoln Friday evening, where she has been studying music in the State University the past year.
Miss Georgia Hall is visiting in Sioux City.
James Davidson had business in Omaha a few days this week.
Four persons were drowned at Wunders Lake eight miles southeast of Page about noon Wednesday as the result of a small row boat being over loaded and capsizing. The dear are: Clinton Sampson, aged 44 years; Morris Sampson, aged 21 years; Miss Blanche Tracy, aged 30 years; Miss Alice Drum, aged 20 years. They all lived in the neighborhood four miles northeast of Page, and were members of a party of some forty persons who had gone to the lake for a day's outing. Five grown people and a baby were in the boat when it capsized. They were Mr. and Mrs. Sampson and their baby, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Tracy and Miss Drum. They had just pushed off from the shore and were out only about twenty feet when the end of the boat in which Mr. Sampson and Mr. Tracy sat tipped to the waters edge quickly filling with water. Mrs. Sampson and Mr. Tracy were rescued with fish poles by those on the bank.
The commencement exercises of St. Mary's academy will be held at the opera house on next Thursday evening beginning at 8 o'clock. The following is the list of graduates and the title (Continued on page eight.)

Royal Theatre

Tuesday, June 19th

Presents Selig's 12-reel Masterpiece
Deluxe Edition, 12-reels, 12,000 Feet

The Spoilers

With a Stellar Cast Including

William Farnum
and Kathlyn Williams

Rex Beach's Thrilling Tale of the ALASKAN GOLD FIELDS

The story now Completely Told in 12,000 Feet of Film

Admission, 20c and 35c.

ANCIENT HISTORY.

Compiled from Frontier Files.

Thirty Years Ago.

E. H. Benedict has formed a co-partnership with H. M. Utley and L. A. Sissley in the law and real estate business and will hereafter be found in the offices of the latter.
A social party was given last evening at McCafferty's hall by Mrs. D. A. Hooker in honor of the friends visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Small. There was a goodly company present and a most enjoyable evening spent, reflecting much credit upon those who had the evening in hand.
Drs. Connolly and Bedell have associated themselves together as partners in their profession, with offices over Dr. Connolly's drug store.
O'Neill market report: Rye, 25; eggs, 7; wheat, 50; corn ear, 25; flax, 60 to 70; new oats, 25; barley, 20 to 30; hogs, $3.50 to $3.65; butter, 10 to 12; corn shelled, 25; fat steers, $3.00 to $3.50; fat cows, $2.50 to $3.00; potatoes, 55.
The Crystal Ice wagon, owned by Thomas Carlon, now makes the rounds of the town with a good supply of congealed element that gives comfort these warm days.
O'Neill property is certainly in the upward tendency when four or five lots will bring nearly six thousand dollars. On yesterday the sale was made by Mr. Haggerty to P. Fahy and the money paid over. Mr. Fahy has a valuable piece of property.
A number of members of the Knights of Pythias of this place went to Ewing last Thursday and instituted a lodge of their order at that place. The lodge was organized with

FOR ALL Next Week.

Men's	Good	Ladies'	Children's
German Dyed Overalls $1.25	Brooms At 65 Cents Each	$1.50, $2.00 House Dresses 98 Cents	Dresses At 35 Cents Each
1 Quart Mason Jar	Lemons At 18 Cents Dozen	Kraut Two Cans For 25 Cents	Peas At 15 Cents Can
Dry Peas At 12½ Cents Pound	Bacon Squares 32 Cents Pound	Coffee At 19 Cents Pound	Men's Oxfords $1.98 Pair
Straw Hats At 10c Each	Oranges At 13 Cents Dozen	Old Potatoes For Sale	Navy Beans For Seed

J. P. Gallagher