

JULY 4th

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

PATRIOTISM DAY —that's a good name for the 4th of July when all good citizens should reaffirm their allegiance to our country and resolve that they will do everything in their power to assist the government in the struggle now on so that victory will soon crown our efforts.

In the meantime if you are preparing to make the day a holiday, and if your preparations include any of the things men wear, you'll want the co-operation we can give you in getting the right things. You may want clothes—a suit for outing wear; one of the new pinch-back or belt-back styles; extremely popular with young men, and with some older men. Maybe you'd like a blue serge suit for more dressy appearance.

Or negligee shirts, or summer neckwear, or cool underwear; we're prepared to supply all such needs very promptly and to your complete satisfaction.

Mr. Hartly disposed of his interest in the Merriman & Herty store, at Page, to Elmer Merriman who, with his son Ralph, will conduct the business in the future.

M. L. Gordon, of Castana, Iowa, was in the city last Monday. Mr. Gordon is engaged in the real estate business at Castana and has some real estate holdings in the western part of this county. This was his first visit to this city and he expressed himself as surprised at the beautiful and prosperous appearance of O'Neill. He made this office a short call while here and will hereafter be a weekly reader of this household necessity.

The graduating exercises of St. Mary's Academy were held at the opera house last Thursday evening, with appropriate exercises, and the class of 1917 were presented their diplomas. The class consisted of eleven young ladies, as follows: M. Genevieve Biglin, Florence A. Brogan, Nellie Zeone, Helen Harrington, Marie L. Johnson, Verdi L. Jones, Rose V. Judge, Mary L. McCarthy, Margaret D. McManus, Helen C. McNichols and Helen P. Smoyer.

Judge C. J. Malone returned last Saturday night from a week's visit in the eastern part of the state. He was in Lincoln last Thursday and heard Theodore Roosevelt delivered his address at the semi-centennial celebration. The Judge says that Roosevelt stirred the people to great heights of patriotism and delivered a splendid address. It has been estimated that there were 40,000 people in the city to hear and see the former president, the largest crowd that ever assembled in the capital city.

The sale of Liberty Bonds was concluded last Thursday at noon, and according to advices from Washington the demand will exceed the amount of the bonds nearly a billion dollars. The citizens of this city and vicinity and the local banks invested $66,000 in Liberty Bonds. The First National took $30,000 worth of bonds; the Nebraska State Bank $5,000. The balance of the subscription was divided among 137 persons, ranging from $5,000 down to $50.

Emmet and Newport crossed bats upon the local diamond last Sunday afternoon and Emmet succeeded in carrying off the bacon with a score of 9 to 14. The game, while rather loosely played, was very interesting, as there was plenty of hitting. Emmet and Atkinson will cross bats next Sunday, upon the local diamond, and promises to be a very interesting game. They have played one game this season and Atkinson was the winner. Emmet say they are going to retrieve their honors in the battle next Sunday and a good game is looked for.

To The Public.

Having disposed of my practice to Dr. L. A. Carter, of Tyron, Nebr., it is my wish to have my accounts all settled as soon as possible. With this end in view I ask that all those owing accounts call and settle by July 10, 1917.

Let me here express my sincere appreciation of our many very pleasant and cordial business relations in the past. Very respectfully,
E. T. WILSON, M. D.

ONE SEED

If a farmer desires to raise a crop of corn and planted but one seed—what would you think of him? Speaking mildly you would think he was foolish—wouldn't you?

If a man desires to acquire a fortune and deposits $1 and never added to it—what would you think about him?

Yet lots and lots of people begin an account and never follow it up.

Start your account here with $1. That is well. Add to it each week. That is better. Do not draw it out for ten years. That is best.

Tickle your Bank Account with Pennies and it will laugh with Dollars.

THE SPIRIT OF 1917

It is the true American spirit, not a whit less ardent than that of '76.

It is the spirit that wins, that devotes all its energy and effort to the well-being of the nation.

On the battle-field, on the farm, in the shops and marts of trade, it is everywhere asserting itself.

And the Nebraska State Bank, in keeping with this spirit, offers its services and its resources for the welfare of the nation and our community.

We are strong and sound. We have adequate resources—which are at the command of our farm brigade. We offer safety to the thrifty and ample facilities for checking accounts and all banking transactions.
