This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders and we are a member of The Federal Reserve Bank. Capital, surplus and undivided profits $100,000.00.

returned home Monday morning, while Mrs. Wade will remain for an extended visit here.

The silver tea, given by Mrs. J. E. Freeman for the benefit of the Red Cross a week ago, was very successful and the sum of $16.00 was made for the Red Cross fund. As well as being a financial success it was a social success and the ladies present spent a very pleasant afternoon.

The O'Neill High School have organized their Foot Ball Team and will open the season a week from Friday, when they will meet the Spencer team on the O'Neill grounds. The O'Neill team has been practicing for some time now and will be in good condition, so an excellent game is looked for by the fans.

Henry J. Hart, of Inman and Miss Nora Hayes, of Atkinson, were granted a marriage license in county court last Monday. These young people are members of pioneer Holt county families and are both natives of this county. Their many friends will extend congratulations and good wishes.

Senator J. A. Robertson came up from Omaha last Tuesday night. The exemption board for this district, of which he is a member, has about completed their labors for this call, there being a few counties that have to call extra men to fill their quota and work on these applications will not be ready for the state exemption board for a week.

E. M. Leach, who has farmed the T. T. Waid farm east of this city this year, threshed 581 bushels of oats from a ten acre field, 58 bushel to the acre. A couple of weeks ago Mr. Waid sold this farm for $66.66 an acre so that the oat yield on the ten acres would bring about $35 per acre, or more than half the purchase price of the land.

Frank Charles, of Carlyle, Iowa, was in the city last Tuesday visiting his many old time friends. Mr. Charles was for a quarter of a century a resident of Chambers, leaving there three years ago for Iowa, where he has since made his home. Mr. Charles just returned from a visit to his son-in-law at Upton, Wyoming, and says that things are booming in that state.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church have contracted for the Midland Lyceum Course and they will present the first number at the Royal Theatre on Thursday evening, October 11. The entertainers that evening will be the Lillian Ringsdorf Concert Company, one of the best musical companies now on the road. You are requested to attend these entertainments and put in an evening of rare enjoyment.

Thirteen head of horses were burned to death at Stuart last Saturday night when fire destroyed a large livery barn there. In addition to the horses ten rigs, an automobile and an automobile truck were also burned. Most of the horses belonged to farmers near Stuart who had them in a barn while they were attending a show. The fire occurred at 11 o'clock. The barn was worth several thousand dollars and was insured for $1,500.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowen arrived in the city last Tuesday evening for a short visit with relatives and old time friends. They have just returned from a visit to Canada, where they went to look over the country. George says Canada is a great country but you can see evidence of the world war upon every hand. They will visit here for a few days and will then go to Oakdale, where they own a moving picture show, which they leased last spring when they started on their tour of the country.

S. J. Weekes, cashier of the O'Neill National bank has been selected by the secretary of the treasury as chairman for Holt county for the second liberty loan. Mr. Weekes will have charge of boosting the liberty loan in this county and will appoint assistants in different parts of the county. It is a responsible position and one that carries lots of work but John will be equal to the emergency and we predict that under his leadership Holt county will make a splendid showing in the number of Second Liberty Loan bonds sold.

A card received here from Lieut. M. P. Kane, who is in the Dental Corps of the Navy, tells us that he is feeling fine and enjoys his work. Those of his friends who wish to write him, can reach him at this address: U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. Dental Office.

Dr. Edwin J. Oxford and Miss Gladys Baker, both of Chambers, were united in marriage at Chambers last Sunday. Dr. Oxford has been a resident of the south country for several years and enjoys a splendid practice and is known and loved by all the residents of southern Holt. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker, of Chambers, and is a native of southern Holt. She is a graduate of the O'Neill high school and has a large circle of friends in this city, as well as the southern part of the county. The many friends of this estimable young couple wish them long life, happiness and prosperity.

From the Boys in Kansas.

Camp Funston, Kan., Sept. 30. The football season opened in Camp Funston yesterday in a game between Companies E and F. The opening was especially significant to the Holt county boys because "Cheese" Conklin carried the ball over for the first and only touchdown of the game.

The teams were by no means second class. In Company E there were several university foot ball men. Among them were Frank Prince, all state tackle of Hastings College, Cecil Laverty an old Nebraska Wesleyan foot ball star and other equally famous. No less spectacular than the playing of these veterans was that of "Cheese" and "Kelly." The game was refereed by Major Kistler, one of Yales most famous foot ball men. All lines of rank disappeared when the game started and officers and men joined in wild cheers as they urged their respective teams on to cross the goal. The old fighting spirit flamed up in the Major's face as the teams surged back and forth across the gridiron. Then in the last few minutes Prince shot a beautiful forward pass to "Cheese" who broke through all interference and went for the winning goal.

Athletics are in the camp to stay. Every morning and afternoon a half hour period is devoted to games. Captain Symes, an old Yale man, at the institution of the play periods, said, "We want to give the men something to break the monotony of military drill. We want them to forget work during this period and let themselves out in play." He went on to say that he was strongly in favor of athletics, which tended to put the men in physical fitness. The boys surely take advantage of this period and all kinds of races are pulled off. Wrestling, leap-frog, foot ball and everything to test the muscles.

The supervision of Camp Funston is a splendid tribute to Americanism. Everything is being done to make the life here pleasant and to give the men clean, wholesome entertainment; something to occupy their spare moments and at the same time give them recreation. Some of these are lyeum entertainments, swimming pools, theaters, billiard tables and many other things. The Y. M. C. A. is doing much for the boys away from home. Each regiment has one. In fact everything is being done to combat the popular conception that army life is on a lower moral and mental plane than civilian life, and its certainly succeeding.

Thursday it rained and the barracks of Company E took on the aspect of a Krupp gun factory. So far the boys have had no rifles to practice with so for bayonet drills all the men in our company made wooden imitations, and mighty good ones too. The company made quite a military appearance when marching to the parade grounds with one hundred and fifty wooden guns and bayonets attached. "Cheese" Conklin, "Kelly" Martin and Joseph Laundis, of the first Holt county quota, have been promoted to corporals. This is quite a responsibility as they have a guard of eight men under them. It is the duty of the corporals to watch the men around the barracks, to see that they are neat in appearance, that they are punctual at calls and in fact responsible for their military conduct. The corporals are also drilling their squads on the parade grounds in the school of the soldier and the school of the squad.

All the boys are looking forward with great anticipation to the next foot ball game. Company F, under the guidance of Gordon Beck, famous ex-Cornhusker foot ball star, is determined to clean Company E, but our boys have it doped out to the contrary. L. E. Wertz.

Leave For Camp Funston Sunday.

Next Sunday morning the third installment of Holt county's quota of the national army will leave this city for the training camp at Camp Funston, Kansas. The men are ordered to report to the local board at 5 o'clock next Saturday afternoon.

The boys will be entertained by the citizens of this city next Saturday evening. They will be served a banquet at the Golden Hotel, and the popular management will spread itself to make this one of the best feasts ever served at this popular hostelry. After the banquet the soldiers will march to the opera house where a patriotic meeting will be held. S. J. Weekes will preside at this meeting and the address of the evening will be delivered by Mayor E. H. Whelan. Besides the speaking there will be music by the Chambers Cornet Band, which has been secured for the occasion, and singing by the local glee club, besides several solos by leading soloists of the city.

All residents of the city and vicinity are requested to attend this meeting and bid the boys God speed on their journey.
