From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pittsburgh, Pa .- "For many months was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backacha and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me.
After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—

Mrs. JAS. Rohrsberg, 620 Knapp St.,
N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Rohrberg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

A Skilled Juvenile Artist.

Bassie is a bright one. The other day er teacher set her and her schoolnates to drawing, letting them choose their own subjects. After the teacher and examined what the other children and drawn, she took up Bessie's sheet. "Why, what's this?" she said. "You haven't drawn anything at all, child."

"Please, teacher, yes I have," returned Bessie. "It's a war picture-a long line of ammunition wagons at the front. You can't see 'em 'cause they're camouflaged."

"Cold In the Head"

is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Persons who are subject to frequent "colds in the head" will find that the use of HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will build up the System, cleanse the Blood and render them less liable to colds. Repeated attacks of Acute Catarrh may Repeated attacks of Acute Catarrh.
lead to Chronic Catarrh.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System.
All Druggists 75c. Testimonials free. $100,00 for any case of catarrh that HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will not

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

She Landed One.

Patience-You know she did want to get married for years.

Patrice-She should have used the right kind of bait. "She did."

"And din't he bite?" "He did-the poor fish."

good grocers sell it .- Adv.

RED CROSS STORY. Red Cross Ball Blue and what it will do seems like an old story, but it's true. Red Cross Ball Blue is all blue. No adulteration. Makes clothes whiter than snow. Use it next washday. All Censorship.

"What's your idea of censorship?" "Nothing to talk about and a whole lot to think about."

The trouble with most stories is that it is customary to add-a few lies to make them interesting.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fain to oure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles
First application gives relief. 60c.

Modesty is a principal ingredient in thecomposition of a rtuly great man.

To acquire a profound knowledge of men, study women.

Body Terribly Swollen Mr. Madara's Condition Was Critical Until Doan's Were Used. Health Was Restored.

"For six months I couldn't walk, I was so swollen as the result of kidney trouble," says Geo. T. Madara, 15 Mt. Vernon Ave., Pitman Grove, Camden, N. J.: "Backache drove me nearly wild

N. J.: "Backache drove me and big lumps formed over each kidney. I bloated until I weighed 407 pounds, and I was a sight to behold. The water in my system pressed around my heart and I sometimes felt as if I was being strangled. if I was being strangled.

The kidney secretions were scanty and contained a thick sedi-

Mr. Madara "No one can imagine how I suffered in finally went to the hospital, but when an operation was suggested I would not consent and came home.

"I heard how Doan's Kidney Pills had helped others, so I discarded all the other medicines and started taking the other medicines and started taking the consent of the second distance of the se ing them. The second day I began to improve and as I continued, my back stopped paining and the swelling went down. The other kidney troubles left, too, and I was soon as well as ever."

Sworn to before me, Philip Schmitz, Notary Public.

DOAN'S HIDNEY FOSTER-MILBURN CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

STOP YOUR COUGHING No need to let that cough persist. Stop the

WHAT TO SEND

BOYS IN CAMP

our boys become very tired of eac-ing "government straights," as they call the army rations, and are glad indeed to get boxes from home. The government rations are putritious and plentiful, but they lack the home touch. Fortunate, indeed, is the boy who has a mother or devoted sister—yes, or a sweetheart—who supplements this plain living with "eats" from home.
The boys in the training camp are learning to be soldiers, and they, like the full fledged soldier, have few civilian recreations so that when we attempt to introduce a bit of joy into our boys' life we fall back upon "eats." If our boys had a pet food at home we at once think of sending him that food. If he is nearby we send him cake and

Our boys become very tired of eat-fancy breads, cheese and even roasted chicken if the weather permits. If the boy had his way he would ask for the luxuries such as jams, jellies, cakes, cookies, pies, doughnuts, candies. etc., to supplement "government straights."

The writer recently saw a letter which a soldier in the regular army wrote his sister to thank her for a box of food she had sent nim. After telling her how good it all was, he added: "Any time you feel inclined to send me 'eats.' be assured they will be fully appreciated. None will spoil and none be wasted."

In general select food which the boy enjoys, which lends itself to packing and which "holds up" in transporta-

Pies are out of the question; so also is roasted chicken unless the distance is short and the weather very cold. But instead of pies we can send him canned fruits such as peaches or pineapple, jams and marmalades. If he is particularly fond of chicken we may send ticularly fond of chicken we may send him a quality brand of canned chick-en. In that case be sure to send him some home-made bread to serve with Potted cheese may be sent in a sim-Potted cheese may be sent in a similar way. Home-made cake of his favorite variety should occupy a place of honor. If distances are great a fruit cake or a chocolate nougat cake has the necessary "keeping qualities." These "keeping qualities" will not be necessary after it has once reached its destination.

Cookies may well be wrapped and used to fill up the spaces in the box. They are sure of a hearty welcome from our boy and his comrades in camp.

Candy is welcome for it answers the natural "boy craving" for sweets. Some boys crave tart foods and these will appreciate a bottle of quality pickles.

We have a wide variety of food from which to choose. Our particular boy's preferences and the amount we have to spend are practically our only limita-

Better send less each time and send often.
Pack the food attractively as well as substantially.

Although our boys are soldiers they are boys with the same appetites which emptied our cookie jars so rapidly.

They are sure to appreciate the box of

EARLY DAYS OF STRIFE DISPLAYED IN PICTURES

eats for our boys in camp.

(By Reciprocal News Service.) London (by mail)—The cinema the aters, which are packed just now, are not the most pleasant places. The special attraction is Pathe's "History of the War," the first chapters of which show England's preparations in August, 1914.

With the permission of the British government, these pictures have just been released in England. They comprise recruiting station scenes taken rise recruiting station scenes taken few days after the declaration of war, the embarkation of the first ex-peditionary force, "the contemptible ittle army," the landing in France and the retreat from Mons.

Widows and bereaved mothers and sisters see or hope to see in these pic-tures living flashes of their beloved hero dead. With the greatest tensity they lean forward to search the screen their boys swinging along with resolute comrades. As the world knows, this first army was almost totally sac-ificed in barring the way to Paris and temporizing until reinforcements could be organized in England, so that neary every face in these moving pictures holds tragic interest for some woman. Some go away in tears, some return to make sure and some sit through several performances without being satisfied.

The Graveyard of Reputations.

The Balkan-Macedonian campaign is a graveyard of military reputations for altied chieftains. The fame of several British generals was buried on the shores of the Dardanelles. When the center of activity in that region was transferred to Saloniki the British general command, having re the British general command, having received a very black eye, stepped aside and the French general, Sarrail, who had won an excellent fighting reputation in France, and particularly at the battle of the Marne, was put in absolute charge. General Sarrail has had a long trial-since October, 1915. A little more than a year ago he operated a brilliant offensive at Monastir. He seemed to be the sive at Monastir. He seemed to be the right man in the right place. He showed wisdom and firmness in the handling of the Greek situation while King Constantine was still on deck. But since Monastin he has not perceptibly advanced the allied

Whether it is the esential difficulty of ; mountain country that has balked him or whether he is inherently unfit for hit difficult task, no doubt only the verdict of difficult task, no doubt only the verdict of history can decide. But in any case his government has given him up. He has been displaced, and will go home a fail ure—perhaps an honorable failure, but a failure nevertheless. The painful paths of this war are now decorated with the ruins of another military reputation.

The man who takes Sarrail's place, General Guillemet, cannot be congratu-

General Guillemet, cannot be congratu-lated. He has a task that may prove insuperable. Military critics long ago agreed that the allies cannot hope to force their way through the mountains into old Serbia or into Bulgaria. If Guillemet should ever succeed in doing this he will nave proved his possession of military genius. Perhaps the allies have reason to apprehend a great German offensive toward Saloniki, and are preparing for a defen-sive campaign there can. In either case, they need the best ability they can get in the Saloniki command.

Passing the Wind.

From the Detroit Free Press. William Jennings Bryan said in a tem-perance address in Kankakee: 'A little boy once asked his father at dinner:

"'Pa, what makes your nose so red?" "The wind, of course, the father answered gruffly, 'Pass me that can of beer, and don's have so much to say.'
"'Yes, Willie,' said the mother with the sweetest of smiles, 'pass your father the wind, and be very careful not to spill any on the table cloth."

> Repetition of Styles. From the Washington Star.

"I hear they are wearing paper clothing in Europe."

"Which shows how fashions repeat themselves," observed Miss Cayenne. My grandmother used to wear quantities of newspaper when bustles were in style."

THE TEETH OF THE TIGER

MAURICE LEBLANC

TRANSLATED BY ALEXANDER TEIXEIRA DE MATTOS

CHAPTER ONE-(Continued).

The voice died away. He repeated several times, as though in a nightmare:

"The teeth! the teeth! They're closing!

Then his voice grew fainter still; and inarticulate sounds issued from his pallid lips. His might go and fetch him. Meanmouth munched the air like the mouth of one of those old men who seem to be interminably chewing When he returned, five minutes the cud. His head sank lower and lower on his breast. He heaved two or three sighs; a great shiver passed through his body; and he noved no more.

And the death rattle began in his throat, very softly and rhythmically, broken only by interruptions in which a last instinctive effort appeared to revive the flickering life of the intelligence, and to rouse fitful gleams of consciousness in the dimmed eyes.

The prefect of police entered his office at 10 minutes to 5. M. Desmalions, who had filled his post for the past three years with an authority that made him generally respected, was a heavily built man is neither here nor next door.' of 50, with a shrewd and intelligent face. His dress, consisting of a gray jacket suit, white spats, and a loosely flowing tie, in no way suggested the public official. His manners were easy, simple, and full of good natured frank-

He touched a bell, and when his secretary entered, asked:

"Are the people whom I sent for here?" "Yes, Monsieur le Prefet, and I gave orders that they were to wait in different rooms. "Oh, it would not have mattered if they had met! However, perhaps it's better as it is. I hope that the American ambassador did said, it might be as well for you to not trouble to come in person?" No, Monsieur le Prefet."

"Have you their cards?" "Yes."

The prefect of police took the five visiting cards which his secretary handed him and read: "Mr. Archibald Bright, first secretary United States embassy; Maitre Lepertuis, solicitor; Jean Caceres, attache to the Peruvian fet?" legation; Major Comte d'Astrig-nac, retired."

The fifth card bore merely a name, without address or quality of any kind-

Don Luis Perenna.

........ "That's the one I'm curious to interests me like the very devil! case." Did you read the report of the foreign legion?"

"Yes, Monsieur le Prefet, and I confess that this gentleman puz-should think he was trying to play zles me, too." zles me, too."

"He does, eh? Did you ever hear of such pluck? A sort of heroic madman, something absolutely wonderful! And then there is that nickname of Arsene Lupin which he earned among his messmates for the way in which he For he must have told you that used to boss them and astound there is a double murder planned them! * * How long is it since the for tonight?" death of Arsene Lupin?"

Prefet. His corpse and Mme. used. Kesselbach's were discovered under the ruins of a little chalet and down the room, with his hands which was burnt down close to the behind his back. He stopped at a Luxemburg frontier. It was found small table. at the inquest that he had strangled that monster, Mrs. Kesselbach, whose crimes came to light afterward, and that he hanged himself after setting fire When conversing lately with an American to the chalet."

"It was a fitting end for that-I confess that I, for my part, much america at what my friend described as prefer not having him to fight the "criminal attitude" of the British against. Let's see, where were we? Are the papers of the Mornington inheritance ready for me?" high command will not allow their young soldiers to visit London when this can "On your desk, Monsieur le Pre-

"Good. But I was forgetting: is Inspector Verot here?'

"Why, what's the matter with

"He struck me as being in a queer state-rather ill." "How do you mean?"

The secretary described his interview with Inspector Verot.

a worried air. "Where is it?" "Among the papers, Monsieur le Prefet.

"Very odd: it's all very odd. Verot is a first rate inspector, a very sober minded fellow; and he doesn't get frightened easily. You while, I'll look through my letters.

later, he stated, with an air of astonishment, that he had not seen Inspector Verot. "And what's more curious still," he added, "is that the messenger who saw him leave this room saw him come in again almost at once and did not see him go out a second time." 'Perhaps he only through here to go to you."

"To me, Monsieur le Prefet? I was in my room all the time." "Then it's incomprehensible."
"Yes * * * unless we conclude that the messenger's attention was distracted for a second, as Verot "That must be it. I expect he's gone to get some air outside; and he'll be back at any moment. For that matter, I shan't want him to start with. The prefect looked at his watch. "Ten past 5. You might tell the messenger to show those gentlemen in * * Wait, though-M. Desmalions hesitated. In turning over the papers he had found Verot's letter. It was a large, yellow, business envelope, with "Cafe du Pont-Neuf" printed at the top.

The secretary suggested:
"In view of Verot's absence, Monsieur le Prefet, and of what he see what's in the letter first."

M. Desmalions paused to reflect. "Perhaps you're right."

And, making up his mind, he inserted a paper knife into the envelope and cut it open. A cry es caped him.

"Oh, I say, this is a little too "What is it, Monsieur le Pre-

"Why, look here, a blank * * sheet of paper! That's all the envelope contains!" "Împossible!"

"See for yourself-a plain sheet folded in four, with not a word on it."

"But Verot told me in so many words that he had said in that letsee!" said M. Desmalions. "He ter all that he knew about the

"He told you so, no doubt, but there you are! Upon my word, if I didn't know Inspector Verot, 1

"It's a piece of carelessness. Monsieur le Prefet, at the worst.' "No doubt, a piece of carelessness, but I'm surprised at him. It doesn't do to be careless when the lives of two people are at stake.

"Yes, Monsieur le Prefet, and "It happened two years before under particularly alarming condi-your appointment, Monsieur le tions; infernal was the word he under particularly alarming condi-

M. Desmalions was walking up

(Continued Next Week.) Pershing Prohibition in England. From the London Daily Chronicle

To the Editor Daily Chronicle-Sir: officer who holds an important position in the American army, I was startled to rascal," said M. Desmalions, "and find that there is a very pronounced and growing feeling of hot indignation in possibly be avoided. The demoralizing atmosphere of our big cities forms a danger zone which Americans feel their sol diers ought not to be permitted to enter This is sufficiently humiliating for us "Yes, Monsieur le Prefet. I expect he's in the infirmary getting something to pull him together."
"Why, what's the matter with the matter with the wholesale corruption of their soldier boys for the sake of filling the purses of British brewers and shareholders of brewing interests. My friend admitted it is not the business of Americans to interfere in British legislation, but he added, "it is our business to protect our own soldiers, and we shall do it."

Rev. L. Winther Caws. Folkestone.

"And you say he left a letter of pumpkin sold in a Red Cross auc for me?" said M. Desmalions with tion sale in Elma, Ia., brought $567.85.

ART STUDENT TELLS SECRET

Epsy Method by Which He Secured Clean Shirt Without Incurring Bills for Laundry.

Harry Lachman, the young American painter, whose work has captivated toth London and Paris, said in a Picadilly restaurant:

"We American art students are so accustomed to privations while pursuing our studies that the privatious of the trenches should be nothing to us. "I know an art student who claims hat he can always have a clean shirt without ever getting any washing done. As such a secret would be valuable to our young soldiers at the front, I ooked the student up and asked him about it. "'Yes,' he said, with no little pride, it's quite true. I only own two shirts, et I can always change to a clean one, nd my laundry bill is zero. The heme, you see, is this. You put on a hirt and wear it a week or two. Then on put on the other one and wear it hree weeks, or till it's so dirty that the first one seems clean by comparison. You then go back to the first shirt, and so on indefinitely."

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP

will quiet your cough, soothe the inflammation of a sore throat and lungs, stop irritation in the bronchial tubes, insuring a good night's rest, free from coughing and with easy expectoration in the morning. Made and sold in America for fifty-two years. A wonderful prescription, assisting Nature in building up your general health and throwing off the disease. Especially useful in lung trouble, asthma, croup, bronchitis, etc. For sale in all civilized countries .- Adv.

A Fly in the Ointment.

It is possible to derive comfort from he fact that the weather man has routed the bore whose tales of oldfashioned winters once oppressed us; but this is counter-balanced by dread of the yarns that will be spun in the future about the cold weather of Derember, 1917.

Cuticura Stops Itching.

The Soap to cleanse and Ointment to soothe and heal most forms of itching, burning skin and scalp affections. Ideal for toilet use. For free samples address, "Cuticura, Dept. X, Boston." Sold by druggists and by mail. Soap 25, Ointment 25 and 50.-Adv.

Indirection.

"My dear, we can't afford to keep Fifi and the cook." "Do you think I will give up my precious poodle?" "Certainly not. That was merely my diplomatic way of saying we'll have to discharge the cook."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills put up 40 years ago. They regulate liver and bowels. Ad.

Life's pleasures are not so numerous that you can afford to snub one.

Alx Senna Rochelle Salts Anixe Seed Peppermint Bi-Carbanate Soia Worn Seed Soia Worn Seed Soia Water Stagar Wintergreen Favor

Subdued.

They were celebrating the pastor's birthday at Ebenezer African Methodist church, and the Ladles' Aid society was giving a party. Salina wastalking to her mistress about the preparations-which were elaborate-and the dress she was going to wear, which was a delicate pearl gray.

"Yessum," said Salina, who is very black and maybe sixty years old. "Yessum, Doctor Green, de pastor, am a middle-aged man. So we done decide we wouldn't w'ar no bright colorshit seem mo' suitable and respectful Jaik to w'ar quiet colors. And we ain" g'wine w'ar no low dresses, caze Doctor Green, he say he like 'em high in de-

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Any druggist cam put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

He Got the Girl.

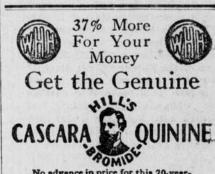

"I am amazed that you should propose to my daughter. You have not: known her a week."

"Yes, but I have known you for some time, and everybody says your daughter takes after you." Some people make an awful fuss about a man's being his own worst enemy-but why should they care?

Try to live right and don't worry about how you are going to die.

No advance in price for this 20-yearold remedy—25c for 24 tablets—Somecold tablets now 30c for 21 tablets—Figured on proportionate cost per tablet, you save 9½c when you buy Hill's—Cures Cold
in 24 hours—grip
in 3 days—Money back if it fails.
24 Tablets for 25c.
At any Drug Store

At any Drug Store SIOUX CITY PTG. CO., NO. 4-1918.

Net Contents 15 Fluid Drachn 900 DROPS Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria ALGOHOL-3 PER GENT. Always AVegetable Preparation for As similating the Food by Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of Bears the INTANTS, CHILDREN Signature Thereby Promoting Digestion Cheerfulness and Rest Contains neither Opium, Morphine not Mineral. NOT NARGOTIC Recipe of Old Dr. SAMUELPITATER A helpful Remedy for Constipation and Diarrhoea and Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP resulting therefrom-in Infancy. Fac-Simile Signature of Thirty Years Cat H. Fletcher. THE GENTAUR GOMPANY. NEW YORK. At 6 months old ... 35 Doses 35 Cents

As Age Advances the Liver Requires occasional slight stimulation.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS CONSTIPATION

Breut Good

Colorless or Pale Faces usually indicate the absence of Iron in a condition which will be greatly helped by Carter's Iron Pills