

WHILE LOOKING THROUGH AN OLD TRUNK

a woman found some rare lace and a silk scarf, discarded years ago because of stains. She sent them to us for Dry Cleaning and we restored them to usefulness—returned them looking like new.

What have you in your old trunk? Something perhaps that can be renovated so that it will give you the service of a new garment. Some fine old silks, possibly, that can be cleaned and made over again.

Why not find out today? Then telephone 209 and have us call for them.

AN O'NEILL INTERVIEW

Mr. Zimmerman Tells His Experience The following brief account of an interview with an O'Neill man over nine years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

H. J. Zimmerman, proprietor of cream station on main street, O'Neill, says: "For about two years I was in bad shape from kidney complaint, in fact, I did not believe there was any hope of my being cured, as I had tried so many remedies without being helped to any extent. My back ached constantly. I often had to get up at night to pass the secretions and the passages were attended by a scalding sensation. Dizzy spells and pains in my head also caused me much misery. About four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all signs of kidney complaint." (Statement given July 25, 1907.)

On June 20, 1916, Mr. Zimmerman said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has proven permanent. It has been years since I have had need of them so I never fail to recommend them at any opportunity." 60c, at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ALL MILLS AND FEED MEN MUST GO UNDER LICENSE.

Omaha, Nebr., January 28.—Every mill in the state making wheat or rye flour must go under license, according to a proclamation issued by President Wilson. Up to the present time, only mills with a capacity of 75 barrels daily have been required to take out licenses, but the new order is sweeping, taking in all, for the purpose of securing conservation of wheat and rye.

These mills must make flour according to the Government standard, and must dispose of it according to the Government regulations. Another ruling says that all manufacturers, distributors and others handling live stock and poultry feeds must also go under license. Licenses must be obtained before February 15, and the applications must be made direct to the License Division, Food Administration, Washington. Failure to comply subjects the offender to a fine of $5,000 or one year's imprisonment or both.

Red Cross Items. The call for extra workers to make convalescent robes was responded to nobly by the women of O'Neill on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. On each of these days about fifty ladies were present. They not only came, but they brought their sewing-machines and the result was eighty-three robes finished ready to ship by Wednesday evening.

Surgical Dressings. Classes in Surgical dressings and bandages have been organized under the able leadership of Mesdames King, Weekes, Hodgkin, Donohoe, Gallagher and Evans, and the good work has commenced in earnest. More volunteers are asked to help with this work, for there is a crying need for surgical dressings in the hospitals in France. The classes above named meet at the court house every Monday afternoon from two to five o'clock. Other classes are being organized among the young ladies who can only work in the evenings. Those who are willing to assist in this work are requested to give their names to Mrs. Hugh Coyne or Mrs. J. B. Ryan. Those who are willing to work on Monday afternoons will please give their names to Mrs. Ed. F. Gallagher or any one of the ladies whose names are given above.

The Lunatic's Love Song. There's not a spider in the sky There's not a glowworm in the sea, There's not a crab that soars on high But bids me dream, dear maid, of thee!

When watery Phoebus plows the main, When fiery Luna bids the lea; As flies run up the window pane, So fly my thoughts, dear love to thee. —Judge.

Sweet Young Thing, to dance partner—And I'm sure you're doing something patriotic, too. Everyone should at this time.

Man—Yes, indeed. I'm letting my best girl knit me a pair of socks, and I carried her knitting bag for her the last time we went walking.—Judge.

You Can Get a Government-Irrigated Farm In The Big Horn Basin, If You Act Promptly.

Uncle Sam built this irrigating system; he gives you the lands and charges you only the actual cost of an ample and permanent water right. The mode of payment is nearly a gift—twenty years' time no interest; with three years' cultivation, these farms will be worth at least a hundred dollars an acre; excellent surroundings; on the Burlington's main line, near Deaver, Wyo.

THE BIG HORN BASIN: Because of the rich oil discoveries, the great irrigated areas, the heavy alfalfa and grain production, beet sugar factories, oil refineries, growing population, the Big Horn Basin teems with prosperity and a rapidly increasing development.

NEBRASKA AND COLORADO LANDS: For dairying, wheat raising, for livestock and general farming, these lands can be bought on good terms. They are cheap and should double in value, in the face of the world's demand for food stuffs.

Secure my services; they are free to you.
