Substitutes:

Barley Flour, Oat Meal
Rice Flour, War Flour

Use these and save wheat for our soldiers

We Also Have on Hand Sal-Vet.

Sal-Vet is invaluable to hog raisers. It keeps the stock in excellent condition, but while it will not cure either cholera or swin plague, we have scores of letters highly commending it.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Model T One Ton Truck is really the necessity of farmer, manufacturer, contractor and merchant. It has all the strong features of the Ford car made bigger and stonger. It has the powerful worm drive, extra large emergency brakes acting on both rear wheels and controlled by hand lever, 124 inch wheelbase yet turns in a 46 foot circle, and has been most thoroughly tested. We know it is absolutely dependable.

Church Attendance and Happiness.

Behold a steeple of ringing bells ringing out the invitation to worship God. In the foreground a huge automobile, with the man underneath making the necessary adjustments, underneath the picture the question: "Where is the old fashioned man who used to go to church on Sundays?" This is a cartoon which is supposed to be funny. But underneath the fun is a heart tragedy, and while it is unfair to apply the criticism to all men indiscriminately, people must be hungry before they can be expected to eat, so we must realize we have souls and are soul hungry before we go to church very much. If a man thinks bodily comfort is the highest, the body will get all the attention and the soul will starve for the dregs do not satisfy in the long run nor in the deep needs of life.

The Court of Domestic Relations in Chicago has discovered some interesting relations between church attendance and divorce. Judge John Rooney of that court has been analyzing the causes of divorce and has said that three out of every four appeals for divorce coming before his court have been as the result of neglect of either husband or wife or both to attend church services. The judge says: "I do not care what church one attends, but I do think any man or woman could spare an hour a week to pay reverence to the Omnipotent. Every day I have parents before me neither one of whom attends church. They are discontented and very unhappy. How can they expect their children to have any moral training if they themselves do not set any better example before them?" We may want to vary the proportions but the judge of the Kansas City Divorce Court says: "Three fourths of the divorce cases coming before us are persons who do not attend church."

More attendance at church does nothing, but the spirit it brings of contentment, of forgetting self and thinking that selfish pleasure is the supreme measure of life; the spirit of obedience to our All Father; the spirit of looking away from self and thinking of others; the feeding of the soul with soul food, instead of husks; all of these come to our help and give us strength and help for the burden we must bear, in that sense of the word it is true: "A Sunday well spent, means a week of content." "Come to Church
