"The Kaiser Will Never Dominate the World."

Evangelist E. L. Cook.

"The German kaiser will never dominate the world, nor even affairs in Europe. His ambitions will be blasted, because the Word of God specifically declares that all his efforts to establish a universal empire will come to naught. No matter how desperate may be the efforts of the kaiser to subdue the nations fighting against him, yet he will fail, just as rulers before him have failed, because the prophet was shown that after the fall of the Roman Empire would come this divided state, which would continue until the day when Christ would set up an everlasting kingdom."

So declared Evangelist Cook, Tuesday night at the tent, in his Biblical lecture on "The Crash of Empires, or the Kaiser Doomed in His Ambitions to Establish a Universal Empire."

Evangelist Cook, who for many years has been a close student of the Bible prophecies relating to presentday events, based his remarks on the second chapter of Daniel, which he said gives a comprehensive record of the history of the world from the days of Babylon down to the setting up of the fifth universal kingdom, of which Christ himself will be the king. He continued:

"Twenty-five centuries ago, Daniel the prophet, while in the courts of Babylon holding the position of premier of that mighty empire, interpreted a dream given to Nebuchadnezzar the king, which portrayed the rise and fall of nations from the days of Babylon down to the establishment of God's everlasting kingdom. This is recorded in the second chapter of Daniel. In this dream the king was shown the image of a man, whose head was of gold, breasts and arms of silver, sides of brass, legs of iron, and feet part of iron and part of clay. Each division represented an empire: the head represented Babylon, the breasts and arms Medo-Persia, the sides Grecia, the legs Rome, while the toes represented the ten kingdoms of Western Europe when Rome became divided. As iron and clay will not adhere one to the other, neither will these nations be fused into one. Men have attempted to unite them into great empires, Napoleon Bonapart being one of them."

"Notice the significance of that part of the prophecy which says that they would mingle themselves with the seed of men, that is, they would intermarry. Is it not true that all the royal families of Europe are related through ties of blood? Notable among these are the king of England, the ex-czar of Russia, and the kaiser of Germany, who are first cousins. 'In the days of these kings,' declares Daniel, 'shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.' We are rapidly approaching the time when this everlasting kingdom will be established; and just as surely as the Word of God was fulfilled of old, and as it is being fulfilled by men and rulers today, just so surely will his promise to 'come again' be fulfilled."
