O'Neill Land Office Abolished.

Orders received from Washington announce the discontinuance of the O'Neill land office December 31. The office will be consolidated with the government land office at Lincoln. At the same time the Valentine and North Platte offices will be discontinued, their business being taken over by the Broken Bow office.

Foch, Poincare, Clemenceau and Others Will Take Over Great Fortress.

Omaha Daily News: Paris, Nov. 14.—The Americans have occupied Briey, center of the famous iron basin twenty-eight miles northeast of Verdun, twelve miles northwest of Metz and three miles from the German frontier. The American advance follows the German withdrawal, in accordance with the armistice terms.

Strassburg, Metz, Colmar and towns in Alsace-Lorraine are expected to be occupied on Sunday.

Marshal Foch, in behalf of the allies, will take possession of Metz and Strassburg in the presence of President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau and other French ministers.

French Take Over Administration. A council of ministers has been appointed for administration of affairs in Alsace-Lorraine during the armistice. State Councillor Maringer will be high commissioner of Alsace-Lorraine and regional commissary of Strassburg. M. Tirman will be commissary of Metz and M. Poulet of Colmar.

Reoccupation of the restored provinces will be carried out precisely the same as that of northern France. Alsace-Lorraine has been occupied by the enemy forty-eight years instead of four years.

American troops are co-operating with the French in the work of repatriation. The Germans have complained officially of the hostile attitude of the inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine as they withdrew.

Call for German Army's Guns. French military officials have asked the German Seventh army to send an officer to Chimay at 2 p. m. today to arrange handing over of that army's guns and materials. Chimay is in Belgium, fourteen miles northeast of Hirson, and only six miles from the allied lines as established on November 11.

Force of Habit.

While in a certain government office recently Sir Evan Jones, British transport board chairman, overheard the following dialogue between two fair typewriter tappers:

"Isn't it terrible the way we have to work these days?"

"Rather! Why, I typed so many letters yesterday that last night I finished my prayers with 'yours truly'."

Female Curiosity.

"Have you read about Cinderella and her glass slipper, Florence?" asked the mother.

"Yes, mother," replied the six-year old daughter.

"And why did she wear a glass slipper, do you suppose?"

"So she could see what her corn was doing, I suppose, mamma."—Exchange.

Resourceful.

An American girl in Paris once halted her millionaire father before a jeweler's shop in the Rue de La Laix and pointed to a tiara surmounted by a coronet.

"Pa, buy me that!" she said.
"Buy you that?" her father chuckled. Why, girlie, you've got to be a duchess to wear that."
The girl tossed her head.
"You buy it," she said. "I'll find the duke!"
