Neb. Historical Society

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXXIX. O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1919. NO. 30.

Property Nebraska State Historical Society

JANUARY CLEARING SALE

In order to make room for Spring Styles, and to close out broken lines which it is impossible to replace, I am pricing these shoes so as to clean them up at once. As shoes for spring will cost decidely more than present prices, this will give you an opportunity of getting merchandise of value at the lowest price.

SALE RUNS FROM JANUARY 3 TO JANUARY 18, INCLUSIVE

LADIES' SHOES.

Cocoa brown boot, 9 in. fabric top, Louis heel, was $9.00, now $6.50

Brown kid novelty boot, Louis heel, was $12.00, now $8.50

Patent vamp boot, kid top, Louis heel, was $6.00, now $4.50

All leather Neubuck Novelty boot, leather covered Louis heel, was $10.00, now $6.50

Brown Military boot, was $8.00, now $6.00

Gray vamp boot, fabric upper, $8.00, now $6.00

Black kid button boot, was $7.50, now $6.00

Black gun metal shoe, cloth top, was $4.00, now $2.65

Black kid vamp, fabric top, was $5.00, now $3.75

Field mouse gray boot, fabric top, long vamp, was $8.50, now $7.00

MEN'S SHOES.

50 pair, men's gun metal lace and button, English lasts, sold at $6.50, now $4.85

25 pair, men's gun metal button, wide lasts, Goodyear oak soles, at $2.85

60 pair, men's Russian and black calf, lace and button, at $4.50

30 pair, tan Munson Army last shoe, steel reinforced heel, the kind that gives comfort to your feet, at $4.75

25 pair, Russian calf shoe, was $6.00, now $4.85

In order to introduce the Nunn Bush line of work shoes I am making a cut of 75c per pair.

Owing to the Closing of the Schools, I am Overloaded on Boys School Shoes. A Reduction of Fifty Cents a Pair on Boys' School Shoes.

NO CREDIT! NO RETURNS! NO APPROVAL!

ARTHUR RYAN

Cash Booterie O'Neill, Nebraska

LOCAL MATTERS.

Miss Mollie Linke, of Chambers, was in the city Monday visiting with friends.

N. O. Peterson, of Page, has returned from a two months visit with Colorado friends.

Miss Mayme Coffee came up from West Point and spent Sunday visiting with friends here.

Herbert Jansen, of Shields township, was a pleasant caller at The Frontier office Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harte, of Inman, were in the city a few days last week visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKenna left Sunday morning for a brief holiday visit to Omaha and Kansas City.

W. J. Hammond went to Omaha Sunday morning and will remain for a week attending to business affairs.

Ed Jones, who spent last week here visiting with his folks and friends, returned to Omaha Sunday morning.

Miss Winifred Hickey went to Norfolk Sunday morning to assist in taking care of "flu" patients at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Smith, of Ewing, arrived Friday afternoon for a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. E. D. Henry.

John Hoge, of Shields township, will read The Frontier for another year, having paid this office a pleasant call Saturday.

Will Biglin departed Saturday morning over the Burlington for a holiday visit with friends at Jackson, Nebraska.

The four week old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Rakow, of Page, died at the family residence in Page Sunday of last week.

Miss Helen Harrington returned to the university at Lincoln Sunday morning, after a short holiday vacation at home.

Miss Nell Armstrong returned to Winner, S. D., the latter part of last week after spending the holidays here visiting relatives.

Miss Mary Hanley, who has been spending her vacation at home for the past week, returned to Omaha Monday, where she is employed in the U. S. revenue office.

Will Harte, of Inman, has gone to Rochester, Minn., to consult physicians regarding his health and a possible operation.

Mrs. Frank Phalin departed last week for Prairie Du Chien, Wisconsin, for a holiday visit with her mother and other relatives.

Ben Rodenwold, who is attending the University at Lincoln, returned there Sunday morning after a short visit with his parents.

Mrs. Mary Swain, of Los Angles, who has been visiting her brother, H. W. Tomlinson, returned to her California home Saturday morning.

Bruce Clark, of Winona, Minn., who has been spending the summer with his uncle, Ed Clark, of Inman, has returned to his Minneapolis home.

True W. Poage, 25, of Lingle, Wyo., and Miss Vira Woolever, 22, of Atkinson, were granted a license to wed by the county judge last Thursday.

Holt county contained within its confines April 1 of 1918, 11,624 head of cattle, valued at $1,046,160, and 20,006 head of hogs valued at $600,-180.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor entertained a six o'clock dinner party last Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Max Janes, who is visiting with her parents here.

The state board of agriculture reports that fourteen head of goats were fed in Holt county in 1918. Fred Clift doesn't know who fed the other thirteen.

A trip to the Norfolk hospital was necessary last week for the removal of a piece of glass from the eye of the small daughter of George Craig of Inman.

The session of the legislature will convene next Tuesday, January 7, at high noon. Other elective officers of the state take their offices Thursday, January 9.

The young friends of Hardin Anspach, of Inman, home from the navy on a brief furlough, gave a dance in his honor at the Inman hall Christmas night.

Mrs. A. Lines, of Page, was called to Imperial, Nebraska, last week by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Effie David, whose death occured a few days later.

C. B. Scott and his brother, Jerry Scott, of Rushville, Nebraska, have purchased the Jordan lots and the store buildings recently destroyed by fire, as an investment.

Irving Harding, of Rock Falls township, was in the city Saturday for the first time in ten weeks. Mr. Harding and family have just recovered from a severe siege of influenza.

Coney Coleman, of Inman, has returned from an Omaha hospital, where he had undergone a surgical operation and will resume his position as an oil salesman in Wyoming.

Harry Jordan left Sunday morning for Burke, S. D., where he remained for a few days looking after business affairs, that being the place where he intends to make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kinsman, who have been visiting at the T. V. Golden home here for a week, left the first of the week with Miss Lillian Golden, for the Golden Ranch near Ewing.

Miss Margaret Donohoe, who is on the staff of teachers in an Omaha school, returned to her duties there Sunday after spending Christmas visiting with her folks and friends.

Roy Sivesind, of Star, was an O'Neill visitor Friday and Saturday, having driven down a bunch of cattle he recently disposed of to several ranchmen of the Chambers neighborhood.

John Kellogg, who has been visiting O'Neill relatives since his discharge from the army, will resume his college course at Trinity College, Sioux City, shortly after the first of the year.

The family of Wallace Johnson are reported ill of the influenza, which is again making its appearance in Rock Falls township. The family of Jake Ernst, of the same township, also is reported ill.

John Harrington, who is attending U. S. Naval Radio School at Harvard University, was at home to spend Xmas with his mother and relatives and returned to his school work Thursday morning.

Miss Mary Markey entertained the following guests at a six o'clcok dinner party last Sunday evening: Misses Sue O'Donnell, Anna McCafferty, Madeline and Margaret Doyle and Grace O'Malley.

Mrs. C. J. Malone spent Sunday in Inman visiting with relatives.

Miss Ethel McDonald, who has been visiting here during the holiday season, returned to the University at Lincoln Monday morning.

O'Neill has another grain dealer in C. E. Harden, who will officiate as deputy county clerk under County Clerk-elect Porter. Mr. Harden has taken out a license under the food administration act as a shipper of grain.

Memorial services for Roy Clifford Kintigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kintigh, who gave his life for his country, in action in France July 19, 1918, were held at Emmet Monday afternon of last week, the Rev. O. E. Richardson officiating.

"I don't feel satisfied without my old home paper," says Fred Guse, of Deshler, in a letter to The Frontier, renewing his subscription for a couple of years, and in which he also extends the best wishes of the New Year to his host of O'Neill friends.

Cyril Brown, who is stationed at the Great Lakes, left for there Sunday morning after a week's visit with his mother, He was accompanied as far as Omaha by his sister, Miss Violet, who will visit with friends there for a few days before returning home.

Miss Grace Woolever and True Poage, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Poage, were united in marriage Friday evening at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hershberger, of Atkinson. They will reside on the groom's ranch near Torrington, Wyo.

The present county board of supervisors begin its last session today, and will be in session several days winding up its affairs. The new board takes office Thursday, January 9, but, in accordance with the statutes governing, will not hold its first session until Tuesday, January 14.

Elmer Barnes, former resident of Holt county, now of Cody, Nebraska, who was severly gasssd while at the Chateau Thierry, on the night of July 19, has been released from the service and has returned to his home near Cody. Mr. Barnes is a nephew of Mrs. Charles Morgan and Mrs. Clate Messner of this county.

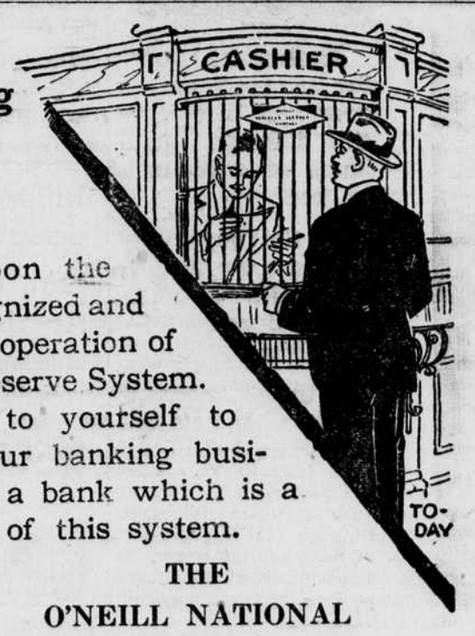
A letter received by relatives from Richard Burtwistle, of Deloit, recently reported missing in action, and dated November 28, brings the comforting news that he is again with his company after a thirty day sojourn in the hospital. Mr. Burtwistle enlisted from Wheeler county, residing just over the county line from Deloit postoffice.

A strict quarantine again has been ordered by the city board of health of Atkinson and public gatherings for pleasure are prohibited. Stores and other places of business also are required to each maintain a doorkeeper who is instructed to see that not more than six persons, exclusive of the clerks employed, assemble in any place of business at one time.

Richard C. Sweet, the only Nebraskan in the personal party of President Wilson on his present European visit, is a former resident of Atkinson. Thus Holt county gains the distinction of being represented in the peace parley. Mr. Sweet previous to going to Europe with the peace party was confidential secretary to Secretary of State Robert Lansing.

While returning from the Derickson sale, last Thursday, Z. T. France, of Dorsey suffered a serious and painful accident, when his car stalled on a hill, and, the brakes refusing to hold, backed down and off a grade. The car turned completely over several times, at last stopping upright. Mr. France was thrown out and sustained a broken leg and severe internal injuries.

Stuart Advocate: Commissioned by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, Doctor C. R. Gannaway has sold his property and practice in Stuart to Dr. Fred L. Wilson, of Springview, and with Mrs. Gannaway, expects to sail on a government transport as soon as one can be obtained, which will likely be in the early part of January. Their initial destination will be Asiatic Turkey, probably in or near the ancient city of Jerusalem, and all their work will be in the historical Holy land, the Biblical Garden of Eden. The doctor will be assigned to medical relief and re-construction work, and will be in charge of a hospital. Mrs. Gannaway will be subject to orders of the committee, and will do that work which is most needed.



The Banking Methods of Today

are based upon the principles recognized and applied in the operation of the Federal Reserve System. You owe it to yourself to transact your banking business with a bank which is a member of this system.

THE O'NEILL NATIONAL BANK

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $125,000.

This Bank Carries no Indebtedness of Officers or Stockholders.

START THE YEAR RIGHT

Financial progress comes from right methods—fully carried out.

That's where the Nebraska State Bank can have a strong influence for your advancement.

Our officers will suggest plans that will fit your needs, and will be glad to have you consult them NOW. No obligation—come in and talk things over.

Nebraska State Bank