O'Neill, : : : Nebraska

Daniel A. Doyle filed his petition in the Probate Court of Holt County, Nebraska, in which he alleges that John Kearney died intestate at his residence in Holt County, Nebraska, prior to the 23rd day of January, 1889; that he died seized in fee simple of the North half of the Northwest quarter of Section Twenty-five (25), Township Twenty-nine (29) North, Range Twelve (12), West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Holt County, Nebraska. And the petitioner alleges that the said John Kearney left him surviving as his sole and only heirs at law, the following named persons who are related to him in the manner hereinafter indicated, to-wit: Margaret Kearney, his widow, Luke Kearney, his son, Thomas Kearney, his son, John Kearney, Jr., his son, and Mary Griffith, formerly Mary Kearney, his daughter.
 The petitioner alleges that by good and sufficient deeds of conveyance he has acquired all the right, title and interest of said named heirs at law; that he is now the owner of said described real estate, and alleges that more than two years have elapsed since the date of the death of said deceased; that said real estate is free and clear of all liens, claims and charges of every kind and description, and prays for a decree determining the time of the death of said deceased, and the heirs at law of said deceased and degree of kinship and right of descent of the above described real estate.
 You are further notified that the hearing upon said petition will be had in the county court room in O'Neill, Nebraska, on Saturday, the 22nd day of February, A. D., 1919, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., when and where you will show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY. Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in O'Neill. No O'Neill resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.
 H. W. Ritts, carpenter, O'Neill, says: "I suffered for two years from weakness in my back and I was in such a bad way that every time I stooped, sharp twinges darted through me. A dull sort of pain through the small of my back bothered me day and night. Lots of times when I sat down, it would only be with great effort I could get up again. I took only two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Gilligan & Stout's Drug Store, and they cured me. That cure was made five years ago and I have never had any trouble with my back since." (Statement given August 25, 1909.)

THE RESULTS LASTED. On June 20, 1916, Mr. Ritts said: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills even more highly than ever, because the cure they gave me is still lasting. I feel that I owe my good health to having used this medicine."
