

SUPPLYING YOUR NEEDS

The Nebraska State Bank studies the needs of its customers and provides for them to as great a degree as is consistent with sound-safe banking.

If you need money for any legitimate purpose and are entitled to it, you may obtain it from us at the lowest current rates and with the least possible trouble.

That is one way in which we serve our customers, among whom we hope soon to number you.

Nebraska State Bank

LOCAL MATTERS.

S. S. Sprague, of Inman, will remove to Omaha.

Frank Hunter, of Star, was an O'Neill visitor Monday.

Chambers Chautauqua dates for this year are June 8-12.

Hugh Birmingham returned Sunday night from California.

Mayor Harry Fox, of Meek, was an O'Neill visitor the first of the week.

P. D. Mullen returned Saturday from a brief business visit to Omaha.

The Plainview News has purchased and absorbed the Plainview Republican.

Ezra Moore and daughter, of Stafford, were O'Neill visitors the first of the week.

Another outbreak of flu is reported from Inman, a number of families being afflicted.

Allen Richardson has purchased the Sherrill farm near Inman and has taken possession.

Flora Bright has been appointed postmistress at Venus to succeed John H. Smyth, resigned.

John Wenner, Sheridan township ranchman and stockman, was an O'Neill visitor Monday.

A gun club has been organized at Butte and several clay bird tournaments are being planned.

William Hewett and family, of Dustin, have retired from farming and removed to Atkinson.

Mrs. R. R. Dickson and Mrs. J. A. Donohoe went to Omaha Wednesday morning to attend grand opera.

Seed potatoes through an error were quoted at $2.25 a bushel in the farm notes last week. The price is $1.25.

G. V. Mott, of the Scottville neighborhood, will retire from farming and held a cleanup sale at his farm Thursday.

Cliff Marquis, the enterprising Chambers merchant, again is able to be about after a severe tussle with the flu.

Jerome O'Connell departed Tuesday morning for a several weeks visit with Chicago and other Illinois friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Flannigan, of Stuart, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter Wednesday, March 19.

Harry Cless left over the Burlington Tuesday morning for Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where he will stay for some time.

Mrs. Dora A. Bakhaus, of Atkinson, has been granted a pension of $25 per month, according to announcement from Washington.

Hugh O'Connor and family, of Emmet, have removed to Atkinson, where Mr. O'Connor will engage in the insurance business.

Miss Beatrice Cronin, Geraldine and Irving, left Saturday morning for a short visit with Senator and Mrs. Cronin at Lincoln.

The famous Lynch concert band, one of the best bands in the state, has been reorganized and is getting ready for the summer work.

Sheridan Simmons, former chief of police and detectives, now is a member of the state booze hounds force stationed in Omaha.

The legislative bill prohibiting the display of the red flag in Nebraska, except as a danger signal, has been signed by the governor.

D. D. Butler and family, of Ewing, will remove to Merriman, Nebraska, in the near future, Mr. Butler having gone there to look up a location.

A hospital, sanitarium and bath house are among the improvements contemplated for Lynch this spring, and construction already has begun.

Shields township will add several miles to the graded roads of the township this year and also will round up a considerable mileage of old grade.

The Rev. Jordan, of the Methodist church at Inman, has resigned his pastorate and will remove to University Place, one of the suburbs of Lincoln.

W. H. Moore and son, of Inman, have gone to Gregory, S. D., near which place Mr. Moore has purchased a farm. The family will follow within a few weeks.

Mrs. Walter Hodgkin and mother returned Monday evening from Rochester, Minn., where the latter had been undergoing treatment at the Mayo hospital.

Floyd Bergstrom, who has been a member of the American expeditionary forces since last summer, has been discharged from the service and has returned home.

Section Foreman Frank Coleman, of the Northwestern at Inman, has been appointed acting roadmaster of this division during the absence of the regular roadmaster.

Martin Cronin, foreman of the Independent composing rooms, has resigned his position to engage in painting and paper hanging during the spring and summer season.

O'Neill now sets the price of hay for the world. Saturday the O'Neill market was the highest primary market in the country, the local dealers and shippers paying $33.50 per ton for top hay.

The Chambers high school students will give the play, "A College Town," at the Chambers band hall Friday night of this week. Several O'Neill parties are being organized to attend.

Frank Obermeier, son of Joseph Obermeier, of Catalpa, suffered a fractured ankle recently by being run over by a wagon while returning from school. He is at the Atkinson hospital.

The cigaret law as passed by the legislature, prohibiting the sale of cigarets to minors and providing a newspaper plant. A new Diamond press and a power plant to operate the presses are being installed.

The city auditorium at Ainsworth has been ordered closed for a period of thirty days because the management permitted dances to be held therein in violation of flu quarantine rules.

The Chambers Sale company has been organized at the thriving South Fork metropolis, for the purpose of holding weekly combination sales of stock and other merchandise at that point. A stock pavilion and sales ring are among the improvements contemplated by the Chambers boosters.

Automobile stealing at last has been recognized as a crime by the State of Nebraska. A bill signed by the governor provides for the offering of the same reward for an automobile thief as for a horse thief. The enforcement of the oldtime popular penalty for horse stealing would do much to eliminate car stealing.

Sunday was the sixth anniversary of the Omaha tornado, in which several hundred people lost their lives and millions of dollars worth of property was destroyed. Nothing now remains along the path of the big wind to indicate that such a catastrophe ever visited the metropolis, the entire district having been rebuilt.

Captain E. H. Whelan arrived home on sick leave Monday night and will return to Camp Funston the last of the week, when he will be formally

FOR TEN DAYS

We are going to offer this high grade New Home Sewing Machine to you for $40, Regular Price, $50.

This is your chance to buy a sewing machine at "Before the War" prices.

O. F. Biglin

license for the sale of cigars, cigarets and tobacco, has been signed by the governor.

The funeral of Mrs. Max J. Seger, of Stuart, who died at the Segers residence Saturday, March 15, was held Monday of last week from St. Boniface church, Stuart. Her husband and nine children survive her.

Rock Falls township has taken hold of the road problem within its jurisdiction and will partially solve it by grading eight miles of new roads. This will give the township a considerable mileage of graded roadway.

William Reninger, who recently removed from Chambers to Norfolk, came up Sunday evening and Monday drove his car to Norfolk. Mr. Reninger reports that the family are comfortably settled at Norfolk.

J. B. Worden, of Oak, Nebraska, one of the old time residents of Swan township, is visiting his son, Roy, of Swan, for the first time in several years. Mr. Worden was a pleasant visitor at The Frontier office Monday.

Mrs. Harry S. Helme, of Atkinson, died Wednesday of last week, at the family residence of ailments incidental to injuries she received in a Northwestern railroad wreck at Merriman last November. The funeral was Friday.

Preparing for the development of the reconstruction period following the great war, Editor Templeton, of the Page Reporter, is enlarging his mustered out of the service. Captain Whelan was injured at the big Rock Island arsenal fire, his injuries necessitating a surgical operation five weeks ago and which kept him in the hospital a good share of the time since.

Oregon press dispatches carry the announcement that Hans Kautzman, editor of the old Search Light in the early days of O'Neill, has been convicted of sending obscene matter through the mails in that state. Kautzman was fined $500 and six months in jail, the jail sentence to be suspended providing the fine was paid within twenty-four hours of imposition of sentence.

The Lynch Herald, successor to the Lynch Journal, one of the casualties of the great war, made its initial bow to the public Thursday, March 13, the editor, Ernest G. Miller, not being superstitious about the number 13. The Herald is a bright, readable publication replete with plenty of local news and editorial matter. It places Lynch once more upon the map and undoubtedly will do much to boost the town.

Notice to School District Electors. All voters of School District Number 7 residing outside the corporate limits of the city of O'Neill, will vote at the polling place of the Second Ward, Frank Campbell's office, adjoining the Western Hotel. JOHN C. GALLAGHER, City Clerk.

Royal Theatre SATURDAY

MATINEE AND NIGHT

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

In Aircraft Late Picture

"MODERN MUSKETEER"

—Also—

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

—In—

"SHOULDER ARMS"

Big Double Program, featuring two of America's Best Stars will be screened at Royal Theatre.

Saturday Afternoon at 3 o'clock; also Night.

People who have seen these programs say that we cannot recommend them too highly. They are both "A Number One."

Admission Afternoon, 16 and 25 Cents. Admission Night, 20 and 30 Cents. The above prices include the war tax.

Letter Writing Gets Results.

Neligh Leader: Victor Lawrence, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Vera E. Lewis, of Ewing, were married in Neligh Saturday, March 15, by County Judge Ingram. This is the culmination of a soldier romance. In answer to the appeal to write to the doughboys Miss Lewis wrote a letter. The recipient, not being long on letter writing induced a comrade, Victor Lawrence to answer it for him. Lawrence and Miss Lewis kept up the correspondence and on the return of the soldier from overseas he was sent to Camp Dodge, near Des Moines. He came to see Miss Lewis and the opinion each had formed of the other being confirmed by personal acquaintance the two took the train for Neligh and Judge Ingram made them one.

Lawrence has not yet received his discharge and was compelled to return to the army camp but expects to be discharged soon when the two will take up the ordinary labors of life together.

Frank A. Gaskill.

Frank A. Gaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaskill, was born near Bruno, Nebr., Feb. 9, 1894, and departed this life March 20, 1919, at Chambers, Nebraska, at the age of 25 years, 1 month and 11 days. In 1902, the deceased moved with his parents to a farm near Ulyses, where they resided until the year of 1915. At this time he and his brother Joe went to Chambers, Nebraska, where he was united in marriage on Oct. 18, 1915, to Mary Lucinda Fleck. To this union were born two sons, Eldred Edward, age two and one-half years and Robert Fleck, age ten months.

Besides his wife and children, he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gaskill, seven sisters and four brothers: Mrs. Wm. Cuzia, Seward; Mrs. Scott Fleck, David City; Wm. Gaskill, Ulyses; George Gaskill, O'Neill; Andrew Gaskill, Chambers; Joe Gaskill, Belden; Mrs. Wm. Maahs, Bennett; Mrs. Paul Jones, Raymond; Mrs. Irving Hickman, Seward; Mrs. Geo. Pres. Helden, and Miss Emma, of Seward, who were all present at the funeral.

Mr. Gaskill was a kind and loving husband, son and brother and made many friends wherever he went. He will be missed by all who knew him. Deceased passed away after an illness of six days, starting with influenza which developed into pneumonia. The body was taken to Seward on Saturday and funeral services were held at St. Vincent's Catholic church on Monday at 10 a. m., conducted by Father B. Sprall. Interment was made in North Cemetery. The four brothers of Mr. Gaskill were pallbearers.

To Organize Hereford Breeders Association

Fine stock raisers of Holt and neighboring counties are to organize a Hereford Breeders association, with headquarters probably at O'Neill. The territory to be included in the proposed association will comprise Holt, Antelope, Boyd and Knox counties and the purpose will be to arouse interest in good breeding stock and to make the territory a selling market for registered stuff. John L. Quig, who is one of the prime movers in the organization will call a meeting in the near future to perfect details and complete organizing. There are a number of Hereford breeders already in the district and included in the number are several in the business on a large scale. Of these Noah Peterson of Stuart, is perhaps the most prominent. At the recent Hereford sale of J. C. Osborn and sons, at Battlecreek, several Holt county buyers were in attendance and purchased a number of the best offerings. The several Holt county purchases, the purchasers and the prices paid, are as follows:

Noah Peterson, Stuart—Castor, $295; Beau Casper 4th, $260; Beau Casper 7th, $205; Domino 44th, $265; Domino 54th, $205; Domino 48th, $255; Domino 43rd, $245; Domino 57th, $225; Ginger, $195; Donovan 10th, $230; Gentry 5th, $175; Jupiter Jr. 8th, $270; Jupiter Jr. 13th, $230; Mark, $255; Bonnie Hermosa 1st, $195; Choice Boy, $185; Thomas, $175; Daisy Lark, $205; Beauty, $375.

C. B. Huston, Amelia—Beau Casper 5th, $800; Doctor, $800; Buffalo Bill 10th, $800. James Curtiss, Chambers—Lillie, $400; Lena E. Wilton, $450; Lady Wilton, $450. John L. Quig, O'Neill—Alton Donald, $200.

Keith Red Cross, No. 2, will hold a jitney social and raffle a Red Cross quilt at the Elmer Rouse school house, April 4, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

If you use "bogus" or counterfeit parts for replacements and repairs to your Ford car, you can't expect satisfactory nor durable service from your car. It's not fair to the car to repair with poor quality parts. Stick to the genuine Ford materials and have your Ford car cared for by men who know Ford mechanism and how to best keep the car in working order. Bring your Ford car to our shop where you're sure of the square deal; sure of Ford materials and sure of Ford low prices. Keep your Ford car running full standard.

Let Men Who Know Do It

J. B. MELLOR
O'Neill, Nebr.

You Can Assist

in perfecting our nation's banking organization by carrying your account with a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System.

THE O'NEILL NATIONAL BANK

Capital and Undivided Profits, $125,000

This Bank Carries no Indebtedness of Officers or Stockholders.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

