LOCAL MATTERS.

The Spencer band has re-organized for the coming season.

Walter Hodgkin returned Monday from a business trip to Bassett.

Barney Hines, of Coleman, was an O'Neill visitor the first of the week.

C. B. Jackson, of Redbird, held a clean-up sale Tuesday of this week.

Joseph Rhode, of Paddock township, will hold a sale April 9, and will remove to Colome, S. D.

Jacob Thompson, old time former resident of Atkinson, died at Winner, S. D., Friday, March 7th.

Mrs. A. L. Wilcox, of this city, was the guest of Mrs. Wallace Johnson, of Ray, Tuesday of this week.

The board of supervisors was in session the first of the week, adjourning Thursday evening until April 21.

Charles Arbogast and family, of Ewing, have removed to Clearwater, near which place they will farm this year.

Lloyd W. Benjamin, of Swan, has been appointed postmaster at that place to succeed E. B. Brotherton, resigned.

Miss Beatrice Cronin, Geraldine and Erwin, returned Saturday evening from a week's visit at Lincoln and Omaha.

C. E. Sholes and family, of Orchard, are new residents of Holt county, having gone to farming southeast of O'Neill.

H. M. Banks and family have returned to their farm near Atkinson after a couple of years residence in Missouri.

A letter received by relatives from Lem Hoxsie states that he is a member of the military police at Kyllburg, Germany.

Mrs. E. D. Henry and daughter, Elizabeth, went to Ewing today to visit with her brother's wife, Mrs. E. P. Smith.

Mrs. C. E. Tedrow left for her home in Des Moines, Iowa, this week. She was accompanied as far as Norfolk by her sister, Mrs. J. H. Shultz.

Mrs. Ella Riley, of Inman, was the only applicant who recently took the examination for postmaster before the civil service commission at this place.

Herbert Jansen, of Shields township, was on the Omaha market with a load of twenty-four steers this week, which averaged him slightly more than $200 a head.

Miss Hilda Gallagher entertained ten of her young friends at the residence of Miss Mayme Mier, Friday afternoon, the occasion being her tenth birthday anniversary.

Judge R. R. Dickson and Court Reporter C. B. Scott, who spent the week end at home, returned to Ainsworth Monday night to resume the sessions of the Brown county district court.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Kane, of Atkinson, who died Friday, March 21, was held from St. Joseph church, Atkinson, Monday morning of last week, burial being in the Catholic cemetery that city.

Miss Roberta Arbutnot was hostess to a number of her young friends, at the Arbutnot residence, Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being the celebration of her thirteenth birthday anniversary.

Guy Cole, of Emmet, was an O'Neill visitor Wednesday. The Cole brothers cleanup sale at Emmet last week was one of the most successful of the spring season, all the stuff bringing good prices.

John Henry Rehmsstandt, one of the old and prominent residents of Ewing and vicinity, died Monday of last week. The funeral was from the Ewing Methodist church, Wednesday of last week.

Relatives have received word of the promotion of Lieutenant Erwin Gallagher to a captaincy. Captain Gallagher is attached to the 52nd machine gun company, at present stationed in Belgium, as medical officer.

James Shorthill, enterprising Emmet merchant and well known blooded stockman, was an O'Neill visitor Wednesday. Mr. Shorthill was on the Omaha market the first of the week with a mixed load of cattle and hogs.

The Inman Community club has taken on a new lease of life and a campaign of civic improvements has been inaugurated for the coming season. Electric lights and a water system are among the improvements planned.

S. D. Galentine, of Maple Grove, has leased his ranch and will take life easy from now on. Mr. Galentine departed Thursday morning for Marshalltown, Iowa, for a brief visit with relatives, after which he will go to California.

John Anspach cream buyer for the Fairmont creamery, at Inman, has been elected chairman of the cream association of the territory from Norfolk west to the Wyoming line. The next meeting of the association will be held at Inman.

The county board of supervisors Thursday morning instructed the county clerk to record discharge papers of all returned soldiers free of charge. The recording fees of those who already have paid same will be refunded on application.

W. C. Joslyn, George W. Baird and Frank Oberle were on the Omaha market last Tuesday with a car load of hogs which netted them $18.50 per hundred. They were offered $17.80 by local buyers, but received $19.20 in Omaha, with the result stated.

S. J. Weekes, who has served as chairman of the liberty loan committee for Holt county during all the big loan drives and to whose untiring efforts the success of the loans in this district are largely due, has resigned. No one has yet been appointed to the vacancy.

The World Herald of Wednesday has a writup of Holt county on its real estate page in which it states that O'Neill is the largest town in Holt county and Atkinson the largest city. It must have readers in both places since the council of defense went out of action.

J. S. Weaverling, M. H. Dierks and S. E. Adrian are the members of a new general merchandising firm soon to engage in business in Ewing. The firm has purchased the property now occupied by the Ewing pool hall and barber shop and will erect thereon a new brick store building.

Editor Templeton, of the Page Reporter, evidently has displeased some of his readers, as some unknown last week broke into the office and threw a bucket or so of spoiled sauer kraut on the press, tables and desk. The Page Methodist church and the butcher shop also were like decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wills, of Boyd county, have received notice from the government that their son, Robert, who died from wounds received November 10, while in action on the Argonne forest front, has been buried in the American cemetery at Naurent, France, just across the Meuse river from Senay.

W. H. Simpson soon is to have one of the most up-to-date meat and vegetable markets west of Chicago and Omaha. Mr. Simpson last week let the contract for the installation of a Baker refrigerating and ice plant, for his place of business in the Naylor block. The plant will be the first plant of its kind in Holt county.

Foundations for the swimming pool and bath houses of the Lynch sanitarium already have been laid and the construction of the big cement pool now is under way. The pool will be 32x50 feet and will range in depth from two to fifteen feet. There will be fourteen private dressing rooms and baths in the structure.

Woidneck and Anderson, formerly of Spencer, have purchased the stock in the Stein garage and rented the building from Walter Stein. They will conduct the garage end of the business in the future and Mr. Stein will devote his time to the battery service station. The new firm formerly operated the Krotter garage at Spencer.

At the annual meeting of the Nebraska State bank, March 31, S. S. Welpton was re-elected president; J. A. Donohoe, vice-president; James F. O'Donnell, cashier. The old board of directors were re-elected and P. J. O'Donnell elected to membership. The annual dividend was declared. The year's business showed a material and very satisfactory increase over last year.

Several members of the Knights of Columbus lodge attended the funeral of Joseph Kafka, of Atkinson, at that place Wednesday morning. Mr. Kafka, who was one of the prominent and likeable young men of Atkinson, went to Chadron several weeks ago to become manager of the Red Cross pharmacy at that place recently purchased by Dr. Compton and the Compton Drug company, of Valentine. Shortly after his arrival at Chadron, Mr. Kafka was taken ill of influenza and pneumonia, passing away Monday. The funeral was held from St. Joseph church, Atkinson, Wednesday morning, burial being in the Catholic cemetery.

Our reputation for fair dealing and reliable goods, coupled with the De Laval record of service and durability, has made the De Laval Cream Separator the leader in this community.

USERS of De Laval Cream Separators have carried away every first prize awarded at conventions of the National Creamery Buttermakers' Association since their first meeting in 1892. The record is unbroken!

The reason is that De Laval bowl design, together with low speed, enables the delivery of butter-fat globules unbroken in their natural condition—thus insuring more and better butter.

The De Laval is the "blue-ribbon" separator.

You can buy a New De Laval from us on liberal terms. Come in, examine the machine and talk it over.
