Only the Fourth.
 The minister was filling in the marriage certificate. "Let me see," he murmured to the bride, as he came to the date, "this is the 7th, isn't it?" She flushed hotly. The impertinence of the man! She stammered. Then she found tongue. "No," she answered, sharply; "it's only my fourth."

Knights of Columbus Initiation.
 Eighty-five candidates were initiated into the local council of the Knights of Columbus last Sunday afternoon. This is the largest class ever inducted into the local council. The first two degrees were put on by the local council, while the third degree was in charge of district deputy, E. H. Whelan, assisted by a degree team from Omaha.

A banquet was tendered the candidates and visiting Knights by the ladies of St. Patrick's parish, the banquet being served in the old John Brennan store building. Owing to the lateness of the hour the banquet was reached the literary part of the program started with the "eats" and continued throughout. John A. Harmon presided as toastmaster and performed that duty in his usual inimitable manner. Master McCarthy favored the guests with a couple of selected recitations. A quartette composed of the Misses Stout, Gilligan, Biglin and McNichols rendered a couple of selections that were heartily applauded, as was also a song rendered by little Miss Sanders and one by Miss Genevieve Biglin.

Rev. John Palubiski, of Stanton, who served in the army as chaplain and who returned from France a few weeks ago, gave a splendid address about scenes at the front and told of the great admiration the men of the United States Army had for the Knights of Columbus for the work they had done for the men in France. Father John is a splendid orator and his address was greatly appreciated by the banqueters Rev. Christopher Murphy, of Sioux City, Iowa, president of Trinity College, spoke on the "Problems of the Day." Father Murphy is also a speaker of exceptional ability. He was profuse in his praise of the Knights of Columbus and for what they stand for. He said that he was glad of the opportunity to come to O'Neill and see the beautiful little city of which he had heard so much and congratulated the people on the splendid institutions we had in the city. Father Murphy delighted his audience with his address and many regretted that the lateness of the hour prevented him from delivering a more extended one. D. H. Cronin spoke briefly on legislation that had been enacted at the recent session of the legislature. E. H. Whelan closed the banquet with a short address. Ed. is a prime favorite as an after dinner speaker, but the hour being late he spoke very briefly on this occasion. With the banquet over all departed for home feeling that they had spent a very pleasant evening and many of the out of town Knights expressed the hope that they would soon again have the opportunity of enjoying the hospitality of the O'Neill Knights.
