visiting friends in the city Saturday.

LOCAL MATTERS.

KARO SYRUP, 10 POUNDS NET WEIGHT OR ONE GALLON CAN

Mail order houses and retail stores waste thousands of dollars daily sending expensive post cards, circulars and catalogues to people that don't mean business. This basket store eliminates this waste and sells for less.

Here is your opportunity to become a customer of a real Cash Grocery that can save you big money on groceries every day in the year. Indications point to unheard of high prices on all lines for the next 90 days. Our customers can and will be protected.

Save 1-3 to 1-2 city, the forepart of the week for $41

GROCERY ASSORTMENT NO. 2 Money back if you are not more than pleased. $1.00 Gallon Pail Karo Syrup$0.49 .01

.05 Package Yeast Foam35 Pound Pure Baking Pdr..... .29 business trip. .65 Pound Pure Black Ground Pepper .30 Large Can, 3 lb. Tomatoes .25 1.80 2 lb. Fancy Green Tea 1.59

.20 Box Raisins .25 Can Fancy Corn ... 1.50 Large Bottle Pure Vanilla Extract

$6.80 Usual Retail Price. Our Rock $4.79 Price. Approximate Saving to You of

$2.04

NOTE.

We reserve the right to return all money sent us for orders, contrary to our selling plan.

BUY MEN'S UNDERWEAR HERE. WHY PAY MORE?

:	$2.25 Men's Summer Union Suits	$1.39
-	$2.75 Men's Summer Union Suits	$1.79
	$3.00 Men's Summer Union Suits	$1.99
	$1.50 Men's Summer Work Shirts	94c
	75c Men's Straw Hats	35c
	$2.50 Men's Summer Overalls	$1.89
	50c Men's Dress Hose

57 STEPS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tomsik, of At-Miss Nellie Walker, of Page, was kinson, were in the city Monday even-

> Miss Alice Hickey spent a few days visiting friends in Norfolk the latter part of last week.

> Harry Campbell left last Thursday evening for Chadron where he expects to make his future home.

> A large-number of O'Neill people ateended the carnival and dance in > Atkinson last Friday night. Mrs. Eva Zeimer and daughter, Miss Marsa, visited relatives in Atkinosn the latter part of last week.

Miss Veronica Lorge came up from Omaha last Saturday evening for a week's visit with relatives and friends

Mrs. Claude Hancock and children visited Mrs. Hancock's parents in Inman a few days the latter part of last

S. J. Weekes left Tuesday evening for a week's visit with friends at Casper, Cheyenne and other Wyoming

It is reported that Paul Kottka sold his farm, nine miles northeast of this

Ice cream social at the M. E. church Friday night. Everyone invited to come and have cake and cream for 15 cents.

Walter Hodgkin and Henry Grady .35 Large Package Gold Dust .24 left Wednesday evening for Lusk, and other western points on a week's > John Gilligan returned home last night from Lincoln where he has been studying medicine at the State University the past year.

Harry T. Moore, of Gregory, S. D., and Miss Amelia M. Krueger, of Inman, were granted a marriage license .35 Large Jar Petroleum Jelly .19 in county court last Monday.

Miss Cleta Harrington arrived in the city Wednesday evening from Lincoln where she has been attending the State University the past year.

M. F. Harrington and J. F. O'Donnell made a business trip to Casper, and other Wyoming towns the latter part of last week, returning Monday.

Gordon O'Keefe, who has just been discharged from the Navy after a year and a half's service, was in the city the last of last week visiting old friends and relatives.

We understand that the John J. Kelley farm, four miles northeast of this city, was sold the first of the week for $65 per acre.

were in the city last Wednesday morning with a truck load of hogs. They said they were satisfied with the price paid by the local dealers.

The Misses Irenaeia and Genevieve Biglin went down to Sioux City Tuesday morning for a short visit with their sister, Sister Julia, who is nursing in a hospital in that city.

Mrs. John Hunt, of Omaha, arrived in the city last Tuesday evening, having accompanied the remains of her mother, Mrs. Marsh, from West Point, where she died Monday morning.

William Laviolette came up from North Bend the first of the week to spend the week here looking after his SELLS FOR LESS property interests and pursuing the

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES Nineteenth Year

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY O'Neill, Nebraska

Monday evening, June second, nineteen hundred nineteen, at eight o'clock

Programme

Class March Piano I—Misses Helen Biglin, Piano II—Misses Miriam Gillig	Irene Sutherland gan, Clare Biglin
Chorus—"The Call of Summer"	Club len Biglin Macy
Salutatory	Miss Ina Hirsch
Piano Quartette—"Dance of the Winds" Piano I—Misses Marie Berry, Piano II—Misses Helen O'Kief	Veronica Kirscht , Catherine Carr
Reading—"The Leper"	Miss Bessie MacLeod
Reading—"The Leper"	send Weber
Chorus—"The Heavenly Song"	Club Gray
Piano Duo—"Grand Caprice Hongroise" . Piano I—Miss Esther Piano II—Miss Marie
Piano Solo—"Rhapsody Hongroise No. 12 Miss Beryl Ede
Valedictory	Miss Helen Townsend
Piano Solo—"Rigolleto"	kuehler Liszt
Chorus—"The Stars and Stripes Forever" St. Mary's Glee (Accompanist, Miss Hel	Club en Biglin
Conferring of Honors	Very Rev. M. F. Cassidy
Address Rev. John Palubiski,

Class of 1919

Marie B. Berry, O'Neill, Nebraska Catherine F. Carr, Stafford, Nebraska Mary V. Carr, Stafford, Nebraska Helen M. Connelly, O'Neill, Nebraska Greta M. Dolan, O'Neill, Nebraska Beryl E. Edens, Colome, South Dakota Teresa P. Harrington, O'Neill, Nebraska Ina E. Hirsch, O'Neill, Nebraska

Veronica E. Kirscht, Pueblo, Colorado Marie T. Langer, Norden, Nebraska Bessie M. MacLeod, O'Neill, Nebraska Catherine P. Morrison, O'Neill, Nebraska Helen M. O'Kief, Wood Lake, Nebraska Helen I. Townsend, Page, Nebraska Elizabeth M. Vosskuehler, Phoenix, Ari Esther H. Wilkerson, Rapid City South Dakota

Eighth Grade Graduates

Lenora Barker, Gregory, South Dakota Gertrude Bowman, Stafford, Nebraska Mary Bazar, Spencer, Nebraska Dorothy Chadwick, Stanton, Nebraska Miriam Hallock, Springview, Nebraska Mary Heelan, Arabia, Nebraska Katherine King, O'Neill, Nebraska George McCarthy, O'Neill, Nebraska

John MacLeod, O'Neill, Nebraska Leonard McManus, O'Neill, Nebraska Maxine O'Donnell, O'Neill, Nebraska Thelma O'Kief, Wood Lake, Nebraska Loretto Phalin, O'Neill, Nebraska Mildred Sparks, O'Neill, Nebraska Leah Thierolf, O'Neill, Nebraska Catherine Tully, Omaha, Nebraska Marie Welch, O'Neill, Nebraska Marguerite Welch, O'Neill, Nebraska

Several of the boys have been out pickeral, but so far, while several the home of her parents northeast of good catches have been made, none this city last Thursday morning after have been able to duplicate Doc Wil- an illness of several years. Deceased kerson's feat by landing a ten and a was born on December 9, 1890, and half pounder. Guess we will have to was twenty-eight years, five months dig up our line and try "our luck." and thirteen days old at the time of Miss Cora Meredith, who has been teaching in the High School at Saturday morning from the Catholic Ogalalla for the past year, arrived in church and the remains were interred the city Monday afternoon. After a short visit at home Miss Meredith will friends of the family tender condolengo to Norfolk where she has accepted ces in their hour of sorrow. position with Dr. Pettibone, now loated in that city.

Thomas Keyes arrived in the city Saturday morning from Fort Russell, Wyoming, where he had just received his discharge from the army. Tom served overseas some ten months principally with the Liberty Divison. In July, while fighting in the Argone-Meuse drive he was slightly wounded in the right arm just above the wrist.

Edward O'Donnell went down to Omaha this morning to witness the nomecoming welcome to the boys of the 89th Division which is being held ir that city this week. He also expects to see his brother, Frank, and he other O'Neill boys who are members of that division.

very little improvements and this figure sets a new price for unimproved land that far from town.

died in that city a week ago last Satprominent and old-time settlers of will regret to learn of his death. Butler county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Timlin and his office to bona fide buyers and nonis now managing the Fairmont acres, located about s county friends.

Cronin fifteen years ago for $700; he farmers. received $12,800 for this same quarter the first of the week which shows how the value of Holt county real estate has increased during the past few years.

To Whom it May Concern:

The County Board of Equalization will meet at the Supervisors' office in O'Neill, on Tuesday, June 10, 1919, at

A. F. Souser, who lives seven miles A. F. Souser, who lives seven miles northwest of this city, sold his farm the latter part of last week for $135 an acre, receiving $48,020 for his real estate holdings here. Mr. Souser is to give possession the first of next than three days nor more than twenty days.

Anyone having business before said Board of Equalization will please be governed accordingly.

E. F. PORTER, to give possession the first of next

Mrs. C. J. Malone went down to March. Mr. Souser had one of the Omaha this morning to meet Judge finest improved farms in the county Malone on his way home from Kansas and we believe the purchaser received and to attend the home coming cele- a real bargain. He purchased this bration for the Nebraska soldiers, land some eight years ago and received members of the Eighty-Ninth Divis- a nice increase on his investment, beion, who will arrive in Omaha tomor- sides receiving eight good crops from the land.

Margaret L. Murphy, daughter of the past week after the elusive Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murphy, died at her death. The funeral was hald last in the Catholic cemetery. The many Deputy State Engineer Shaw, of Lincoln, and two assistants, arrived in the city last Monday and are now surveying the road a mile west of the cemetery for the O'Neill-Spencer-Butte federal and state aid road. The road a half mile east of this city and the road a mile west, along the west side of the cemetery, have already been surveyed and the survey is now being run on the line a mile west of the cemetery. After this survey is completed the road will probably be permanently located on one of the three surveys.

Word was received the first of the week that George W. Trigg died in a hospital at Spokane, Washington, last Sunday. George Trigg was for over The first of the week George Para quarter of a century a resident of owned about seven miles northeast of years ago for the west and has since this city, for $64,000.00, or $50 an ington. George was a carpenter by acre straight through. This land has trade, and a good one, and was working in the ship yards on the coast last summer when the scaffolding gave way giving him a nasty fall in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wrede Sr., re- he sustained a fractured leg. He was turned last Friday evening from sent to a hospital but the fracture did David City, Nebr., where they had not seem to heal and gangrene set in been attending the funeral of Mr. and another operation was necessary. Wrede's brother, Julius Wrede, who He never fully recovered from the second operation and passed away the urday. Mr. Wrede was seventy-two first of the week. George had many years of age and was one of the friends in this city and county who children returned Sunday night from optional sales, the A. F. Souser farm a ten day vacation trip spent at Fair- northwest of O'Neill and the Duhaime mont, Minn, and different points in farm in the same locality, as well as Iowa. While in Minnesota Mr. Timlin closing a deal on the William Cronin saw S. J. B. Johnson, formerly with 400 acre farm. He has also purthe McGinnis Creamery in this city, chased for himself the Graham 320 Creamery in that city. He says that west of town and has also bought the Mr. Johnson and family are doing Charles Morgan ranch south of Red splendidly and asked to be remember- Bird. The sale price on the land that ed to their many O'Neill and Holt Mr. Daly reports has ranged from $65 to $135 per acre. Mr. Souser's William Cronin sold his farm the first of the week to W. Miller, of These buyers seem to be very favor-Leigh, Nebr., for $80 per acre or $32,- ably impressed with the land that 000 for the 400 acres. This land is they have bought and while the loss located five and a half miles north of of some of these valuable citizens this city and is a fairly well improved farm. One of the quarters in this farm was purchased by Mr. by very substantial and reputable

C. M. Daly reports the sale through

NOTICE.

OUR POLICY The management of this institution aims to conduct a careful and conservative business. It extends to its patrons such accommodations as their accounts and responsibility warrant. It solicits the business of those who appreciate a modern and upto-date institution. We are a growing bank, therefore we are opening new accounts and would be pleased to confer with you. THEO'NEILL NATIONAL BANK Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $130,000 This Bank Carries No Indebtedness of Officers Or Stockholders. O'Neill, Nebraska.

AND COMPLETE

festive trout out on the Eagle. Bill district court for a divorce from Fred section of the state.

from Dodge county and later chief of ant resides in Douglas county. the "booze slueths" under Governor Neville, was an O'Neill visitor last and Miss Hazel M. French, of Page, Friday, on his way to Boyd county.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Barrett, of day evening for a short visit at the school of agriculture at Lincoln. home of Mr. Barrett's parents, Mr.

Stannard left the latter part of last Mrs. Curt Spelts. Mrs. Spelts passed week for Wyoming where they expect away a couple of days after the arto spend a short time visiting rela- rival of her parents. tives and friends at Lusk and other points.

M. J. Sandars, of Norfolk, commerthe interests of his company in this for $46.25 an acre.

Word just received from Wm. Banrard and Wm. Stannard, who recently left here for Lusk, Wyo., indicate that Mr. Barnard is now prectising law and Mr. Stannard is selling insurance in that city.

Ellen Johnson has filed suit in profession.

says that business is fine down in his N. Johnson alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Johnson is now Wallis Wilson, former state senator a resident of Ewing while the defend-

Edgar M. Brouse, of Lincoln, Nebr., were granted a marriage license in county court last Tuesday. Mr. Greeley, arrived in the city last Fri- Brouse is one of the professors in the

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowden reand Mrs. Pat Barrett, south of this urned last Thursday from Yuma, Colorado, where they had been called by Mrs. J. B. Mellor and Mrs. Dave the serious illness of their daughter,

Through R. H. Parker the H. R. Henry farm of 480 acres, fifteen miles northeast of this city, was sold cial superintendent for the Nebraska the first of the week for $35 per acre. Telephone Company for this district, Mr. Parker also sold the Ernest Henry was in the city Tuesday looking after farm of 160 acres to the same parties

> Doctor Madeline Doyle, daughter of D. A. Doyle, who recently was graduated from the Des Moines Sill College of Osteopathy, arrived in the city Thursday evening. Dr. Doyle exjects to spend the summer at home before locating in the practice of her

PATRIOTIC BURDEN OF THE FARMER

The burden is upon the farmer. Placed there by world-war and crop shortage.

Loyalty and high prices demands big crops.

The American farmer can more than fulfill his duty with adequate aid in tilling and harvesting. Let the people help.

The Nebraska State Bank offers sound and safe financial facilities and a personal service to farmers that reaches farther than the usual confines of banking.

Use us—we are always at your service.

Mebraska State Bank