Death of Mrs. Margaret Marsh

Mrs. Margaret Marsh died at St. Joseph's Home at West Point, Nebr., last Tuesday morning at 4:30, after an illness of several months of paralysis due to old age, at the age of 78 years and 9 months. The body was brought to this city Tuesday night and funeral services were held at the Catholic church this morning, interment in the Catholic cemetery at the side of her husband who passed away thirteen years ago.

Deceased was born in Ballina, County Mayo, Ireland, on August 28, 1840. She was united in marriage to Robert Marsh and ten years later they came to this country, settling at Scranton, Pa., where they resided until the spring of 1878 when they came to this county and settled on a homestead seven miles northwest of this city, where they remained until 1892 when they moved to town where she resided until last fall when she suffered an attack of paralysis that left her helpless. In order that she might have the best of care she was taken to St. Joseph's Home at West Point last September where she passed away Tuesday morning. Two of her daughters were at her bedside when the end came, Mrs. John Hunt, of Omaha, and Mrs. A. Jennings, of Park City, Utah.

Another of those hardy pioneers, who helped to make the present advancement and progress of this section possible, has passed to her reward. Mrs. Marsh and her husband were members of that pioneer band of Pennsylvanians who came to this county in the late seventies and assisted in the development of this section of the state. Forty-one years ago this spring they landed in O'Neill and Mrs. Marsh, like the other women of those days, had her full share in the development of this part of the country. She was a devoted wife and mother and was loved by all.

She leaves five children, besides several grandchildren to mourn the death of a kind and loving mother. The children are: M. J. Marsh, Bellingham, Wash.; Mrs. John Hunt, Omaha; Mrs. A. Jennings, Park City, Utah; Mrs. T. D. Hanley and R. J. Marsh, O'Neill.

Death of Ward Knapp.

Ward Knapp died at his home northeast of this city last Sunday morning, May 25, 1919, of tuberculosis, after an illness of but a few months, at the age of forty-eight years, five months and eleven days.

Deceased was born at Portsville, N. Y., on December 11 1870. When a young man he came west and settled in the eastern part of this state. On March 27, 1900, he was united in marriage at Palmer, Nebraska, to Miss Nora McManus, who is left to mourn the death of a kind and loving husband.

P. T. BARNUM SAID:

"You can fool all of the people some of the time, you can fool some of the people all of the time, But you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

WE SAY:

We don't fool any of the people any of the time, and our customers will verify what we say.

banu. In December, 1900, Mr. Knapp moved to this county and purchased a farm northeast of this city where he made his home up to the time of his death. He was a good citizen and had many friends throughout the eastern part of the county who will regret to learn of his death.

Besides his wife he leaves an aged mother, who lives at Palmer, Nebraska, and two sisters and two brothers, to mourn the death of a kind and affectionate son and brother. The brothers are: Frank, at Palmer, Nebr., and L. W. of this city. His sisters are: Mrs. Fanny Evans, Beulah, N. D., and Mrs. Mina Reese, Palmer, Nebraska.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church last Monday afternoon, Rev. Walker officiating and the remains were interred in the Protestant cemetery.

Death of Mrs. W. C. Spelts. Ivey Maud Spelts, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowden, northeast of this city, died at her home at Yuma, Colorado, on May 17, 1919, at the age of thirty-one years, six months and eight days.

Deceased grew to young womanhood in this county and on March 21, 1906, she was united in marriage to W. C. Spelts and a few years later they moved to Colorado where she made her home up to the time of her death. Deceased leaves to mourn her departure her loving husband and daughter, Lillie, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowden and five brothers and three sisters. Her sisters are: Mrs. Awalt Spangler, of Norfolk; Mrs. Andrew Wettlaufer, O'Neill; and Miss Susie at home. Her brothers are: Elvin E., of O'Neill; Chester R., of Yuma, Colo.; and Claude W., Guy R., and Harold M., at home.

Births and Deaths in Holt County.

Following is a list of the births and deaths in this county for the year 1918 and the number of births for the year 1917, as furnished this office by the State Department of Health:

1918:
Total number of births	401

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Motor Company will sell the genuine Ford Parts to any and every reliable Garage, making it an Authorized Ford Service Garage. Ford Dealers throughout the United States have been instructed by the Ford Motor Company to supply anything and everything in Ford Parts to responsible Garages, and to furnish such Garages with signs designating them as 'Authorized Ford Service Garages.'

While this opens the door to a very profitable business for the Garage men of America it also brings a reliable service close to the owners of Ford cars in all parts of the country. It assures them that the genuine Ford Parts, made by the Ford Motor Company, will be used in replacements when their Ford cars require tuning up; it means Ford quality in service, and that, of course, means economy in operation and extends the life of the car.

We believe the Garage man will quickly appreciate the profitable advantages this presents to him, and will speedily lay a large stock of genuine Ford Parts, and go after the Ford service business with vim and hustle.

The below named dealer will gladly take the order of any responsible Garage in O'Neill and make prompt delivery of genuine Ford Parts, and supply the Ford Service signs just as soon as possible.
