

REVISED "DRY" LAW IS MADE LESS DRASTIC

Hope For "Wets" In-Senate Action—Home Brewing and Homemade Light Wines and Cider Authorized In Bill.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Prohibition enforcement legislation advanced another step in congress today when the Senate judiciary committee began consideration of the bill passed by the House last June, as amended and liberalized by the judiciary subcommittee.

The sub-committee eliminated several drastic house provisions and modified others. In its work the subcommittee, comprising Senators Sterling, republican, South Dakota, chairman; Fall, of New Mexico, and Norris, of Nebraska, republicans, and Overman, of North Carolina, Walsh of Montana, and King, of Utah, democrats, first revised the Senate enforcement bill and then incorporated the House bill.

The subcommittee left unchanged the House definition of intoxicating beverages as those containing 1/2 of 1 percent or more of alcohol.

As revised the bill will not interfere with storage and personal use of intoxicating liquors in homes.

Home Manufacture.
Probably the most liberal amendment to the House bill is a provision exempting from penalties any person "manufacturing non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices exclusively for use in his house."

This would permit home manufacture of light wines and cider for personal consumption, as the amendment, except for implication in connection with the definition of intoxicants does not define "non-intoxicating" beverages.

Stricken from the House bill was the provision making it unlawful for persons to be intoxicated or to drink liquor on trains, street cars, jitneys, boats or other public conveyances.

Another relaxation of the House bill was made in changing its provision for penalizing persons having "reason to believe their property is being used unlawfully." The Senate amendment requires "personal knowledge" of such use.

The House provision declaring that after February 1, 1920, the possession of liquor unauthorized by the law shall be prima facie evidence that it is being kept for sale is retained and strengthened by an addition providing that, in proceedings under this section, the burden of proof shall be on defendants to prove that such beverages do not contain more than one-half per cent alcohol.

Retain Exemptions.
The sub-committee revision retains the following exemptions as provided by the House:

Denatured alcohol, medical purposes, patent medicines, toilet and medical preparations, flavoring extracts, syrups, vinegar and fruit juices. The subcommittee, however, struck out the House clause that such articles should be "non-potable" prescribing merely that they must be "unfit for beverage purposes."

A House clause requiring alcoholic content of toilet, medicinal and anti-septic articles to be labeled was stricken out.

Retaining the House provision prohibiting manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation or prescription of intoxicants without a permit from the internal revenue commissioner, the revised bill contains a provision that such acts shall be expressly authorized upon receipt of permits.

Extend Permit Limit.
The House limit of 10 days on permits to purchase intoxicants also is extended in the revised bill to 90 days. Pharmacists may sell at retail and licensed physicians only may prescribe liquor.

The House requirement for physical examination by physicians of applicants for liquor prescriptions, however, was eliminated.

The House provision limiting physicians dispensing to one pint of liquor in 10 days to the same person is retained, but modified to provide that such limitation shall apply only to prescriptions "to be taken internally."

More rigorous provisions guarding transactions in wines for sacramental and religious purposes are provided by a provision requiring issuance of such permits only to ministers, rabbis or other ecclesiastics.

Advertising Provisions.
House provisions regarding advertising of beverages are made more stringent in some respects and more liberal in others. The sub-committee struck out provisions prohibiting sign or bill board advertising, but added a clause penalizing advertisement of intoxicants anywhere by any means or method.

Also stricken out was a House clause authorizing obliteration of liquor advertising or the use of pictures of a distillery, bottle, keg, barrel or other receptacle in advertisements. A new clause permits manufacturers and druggists to advertise alcohol in trade journals.

Retaining the House provision against advertisement of compounds, preparations or formulas for manufacture of intoxicants, the sub-committee strengthened this section by prohibiting also the advertisement of any "utensil, contrivance or machine" for such purposes.

THINK BAKER WANTS TROOPS FOR MEXICO

Persistent Rumors In Army Circles That Intervention By U. S. Becoming Likely.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Rumors persist here of a change in the administration's Mexican policy. Not only is it said the government will be more firm in its diplomatic stand, but there are even rumors of armed intervention current in army circles. It is understood this government will take a more positive stand from now on against outrages on Americans and that if the present Mexican presidential campaign flares up into a new revolution and turmoil is threatened, serious consideration will be given to more drastic measures in some quarters.

The demand of Secretary Baker and the war department for 510,000 troops is thought to be made with Mexican possibilities in mind.

THOUSANDS OF SHOPMEN BACK

Rail Administration Reports Return at Most Points—Chicago and New England Districts Remain Strike Centers.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Between 15,000 and 25,000 unauthorized railroad shop strikers returned to work this morning in response to President Wilson's decision that there would be no wage conferences while the men were out, it was said at the railroad administration today.

Reports here were that practically all men are back at work west of the Mississippi; more than 50 per cent still out in Chicago, Ohio and Central West; all back in the south except at Atlanta, and that New England shops still are almost without workmen. According to telegrams received at the railroad administration, 6,000 men returned today at Baltimore and 5,000 at Kansas City.

All shops are operating, officials said, on the Seaboard Airline. Other towns where men are reported to have gone back to work are Macon, Ga., Richmond, Nashville, Lexington, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Columbus. Some it was said, have returned to shops at Indianapolis.

Strikers also went back at 25 points in Wisconsin.

STRIKERS LESS RADICAL.
Chicago, Aug. 11.—A spirit of conciliation was apparent today among striking railway shopmen in the Chicago district, although it was decided last night no immediate answer will be made to the administration's request that men go back to work before their demands are taken up.

In a telegram to subdivision councils, J. D. Sanders, secretary of the Chicago council, invited delegates to a meeting Thursday night to discuss the situation. It was stated the men would waive all other grievances if the wage demand was granted.

Twenty-eight thousand men were reported still out. Sanders denied reports that men in great numbers were returning to work.

"They are ready to go back," he said, "when Washington authorities are ready to talk business."

Widening of the breach between local units and the international organization made apparent with the receipt of a telegram from E. M. Jewell, head of the railway division of the American Federation of Labor, declaring that striking locals would not be permitted to cast ballots in the vote being taken on the question of a strike August 24.

Reports were received at council headquarters that strikers had burned some of the ballots sent out from international headquarters.

STOLE YACHT AND TWO GIRLS, CLAIM

Seven Young Men Alleged to Be Holding Abducted Girls Aboard Vessel on Lake Michigan.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Chicago police today received a telegram from the authorities at Grand Haven, Mich., asking them to search for the two masted yacht the Briar, which they declare was stolen by seven young men in the Michigan port yesterday. The men also are said to have kidnaped two 16-year-old girls, who are being held prisoners on the boat. The yacht is believed to be stocked with a quantity of liquors stolen from a residence in Grand Haven.

LAWYERS BOOST PRICES.

Bend, Ore., Aug. 12.—The cost of litigation in Desputh county took a 50 per cent jump, when attorneys of the 18th judicial district, organized the Central Oregon Bar Association and adopted a standard fee scale. The advance was deemed necessary because of increased living costs.

7 CHARRED BODIES TAKEN FROM FIRE

Montreal, Quebec, Can., Aug. 11.—Seven bodies, charred beyond identification were at the morgue here today, following last night's fire at Dominion Park, an amusement resort. It is believed three of the victims were men, three women and one a small boy. A cigarette stub is supposed to have started the blaze.

TAKE GUARDS OUT OF STOCK YARDS

Action in Chicago Fails to Stop Strike—Unions Demand Consent to Organize Negroes.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Five hundred policemen, 250 deputy sheriffs and the last of the state troops assigned to race riot duty were withdrawn from the stock yards today in the hope that the striking employes of the packers might be induced to return to work.

About 1,000 patrolmen and 100 deputy sheriffs still are on duty in the vicinity of the stock yards.

President Martin Murphy, of the stock yards labor council, said the men would not return to work until every guard had been withdrawn and permission granted labor organizers to unionize the 9,000 negroes employed at the plants.

Statement to Shippers.
President Everett C. Brown, of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange, issued the following statement this afternoon on the strike situation in the packing houses:

"The yards are cleaned up of all state and fresh stocks and the killers are doing business in all the larger plants. A conservative estimate is that we can handle 15,000 hogs a day, or about 90,000 a week under present conditions, against 120,000 as the normal figure at this season of the year.

"With the active demand for cattle for shipping it is estimated that the market can handle 12,000 cattle a day. It is generally believed that shippers who can get their stock to market during the strike will receive more than when all the workers come back."

Union officials declare that of 43,559 employed in the stock yards, 36,500 are out, while the packers insist that not more than 10,000 are on strike. They reported that the large plants still are operating, but admit they are not running more than 50 per cent of capacity.

If the unions press their claims and the police guard is not withdrawn, it was predicted 70,000 men will be thrown out of work, and the meat industry tied completely up. The strike would affect the whole country, since shipments of livestock to the Chicago yards would have to be curtailed or entirely stopped.

SHERIFF CAPTURES MOUNTAIN BANDIT

Alleged Leader of West Virginia Outlaw Band Arrested After Search By Posse.

Bluefield, W. Va., Aug. 11.—Manderly Farley, alleged leader of an outlaw and moonshiners' band in the Flat Top mountains, and charged with desertion from the army and abduction of the 14-year-old daughter of Kenneth Abshire, a farmer, was arrested Saturday by the sheriff of Raleigh county. He was captured in the mountains with his brother Maitland and the girl whom it is alleged he abducted. The three were placed in jail at Beckley, W. Va.

When arrested the Farleys, though armed, made no resistance. Deputy sheriffs are searching for the remainder of the band. Following the girl's disappearance her father went in search of her. He found her in company with Farley on the mountain trails. Shots were exchanged and both men were wounded. Abshire was left for dead and the girl remained with her alleged captors.

HERE'S HEALTH RECIPE.

Bloomington, Ind., Aug. 11.—"Eat plain wholesome food; sleep at least eight hours each night; don't use tobacco in any form, and take some form of physical exercise every day, being careful not to over exert oneself at the start." This is the recipe for 100 per cent perfect physical condition outlined by John W. Kyle, Indiana university football player, who recently was described as 100 per cent perfect physically in an army medical examination. Kyle, whose home is in Gary, Ind., is the most perfectly developed man in the university, according to records in the office of the gymnastic instructor.

To show that he believes in his own receipt, Kyle asserts he never has smoked a cigarette. For his daily exercise this summer he is swinging a sledge hammer in a Gary steel mill. He weighs 190 pounds and is 5 feet, 11 inches in height.

Kyle is expected to be a star on this year's varsity eleven and probably will do most of the kicking, as he punted 50 yards consistently in spring practice. He is also a basketball star, having been picked for a position on the all state team when in high school.

How He Gauged Speed.
Bide Dudley breezed into the Friars the other day from his country home in Connecticut. He was in front of the village post office when an old timer with a long shock of whiskers drew up in a brand-new flyver.

A crowd got around and began to inspect the new machine with more or less jealous approval. One thin, gaunt fellow with a busy Adam's apple looked it all over and finally said in a very cynical manner:

"Where's your speedometer?"

"Don't need it," snapped the owner with finality.

"How you goin' to tell how fast you're goin'?" he was asked.

"Well," he said, "when I'm goin' ten miles an hour my whiskers hang straight. When I'm goin' fifteen they fly out to one side. There was a wait. And then he snapped out: "Parted—thirty-five."—New York World.

Case of Poor Judgment.

Just outside of the aviation grounds we came upon a group of urchins crowded about one of their number who was crying bitterly, while being plastered with mud on his face, arms and legs by his frightened companions. When asked what had happened a bright-eyed little chap quickly answered: "Why Sammy, he's been 'vestigating a hangar that belongs to a wasp.'"—Chicago Tribune.

ERROR AND MADNESS ALLIED

But There is an Important Distinction Which Must Always Be Kept in Mind.

There is a certain similarity between error and madness. All mad action is erroneous, but erroneous action is not necessarily mad, and it is very important to find the true distinction between them, for in practice they are often confusing.

The distinction is this: A sane person who does a mistaken act recognizes, by the failure of the act to achieve his purpose, that the action is mistaken and alters his mode of action accordingly. At the least he refrains from pursuing that mode of action as soon as it appears manifest that it will not achieve his purpose.

The madman who does a mad act does that which is mistaken—that which will not achieve his ultimate purpose, that which fails to adjust or readjust himself to his circumstances or his requirements. But when his action fails to achieve his purpose he does not change it. He persists in it.

This is the important difference between sane mistake and madness. The one can be corrected by the actor, the other cannot; and by observing whether the action is, on the face of it, useless, undesirable, or harmful, or whether, if not so on the face of it, it is persisted in even after its ultimate uselessness, undesirability, or harmfulness is become plainly apparent, we may judge without fail whether the action is sane or mad.

A Mistake.

A private who had been assigned to guard duty near the White House, on the night President Wilson returned to Washington, with orders to let no one pass him, was approached by a doughty officer who desired to pass. When the private proved obdurate, the officer began to try to be friendly.

"Why, my dear fellow, you look very familiar to me," the officer said. "I must have met you some place during the war."

"I am afraid you are mistaken, sir," the private responded, "I was in the fighting zone."

The officer curled up like a roll of wall paper and departed silently.

Skeptical Jury.

An Idaho lawyer tells of a case tried in that state some years ago, on which occasion the judge, an Easterner who desired to display his learning, instructed the jury very fully, laying down the law with the utmost authority. But the jurors, after deliberating some hours, found themselves unable to agree. Finally the foreman asked for additional instructions.

"Judge, here's the trouble," said he. "The jury wants to know if what you told us was really the law or only just your notion."—Harper's.

Sartorial Expedient.
