 Antone Toy left Sunday morning for Omaha, Kansas City and the eastern markets to purchase his fall and winter stock.
 Chris Kennell, who removed to Seward county early this year, arrived Tuesday for a short visit with Holt county friends.

Lincoln is attempting to modernize its police department and is installing shower and tub baths at police headquarters. Members of the force will be required to bathe regularly during hot months.
 James Crowley's Pumpkin Center baseball team crossed bats with the Dorsey team at Star Sunday. Owing to the absence of Captain Crowley the Pumpkin Center's were defeated by a score of 14 to 11.
 The city's little red fire wagon made its second run Wednesday morning to the John Harmon residence, called there when Mr. Harmon's car caught fire as he was trying to start it. The blaze was extinguished without much damage.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Horiskey the last week, returned to their home at Salina, Kansas, Tuesday morning enroute.
 A most interesting program, including a baseball game, a wrestling match and dancing in the evening, drew a large attendance at the annual picnic at Emmet Wednesday. A number from O'Neill were in attendance.
 The rainfall in O'Neill Monday evening and Tuesday morning amounted to .33 inches. At Chambers but a slight fall was recorded, but between Chambers and O'Neill, about nine miles south of town, more than an inch fell.
 Mike Kirwin, Donald Gallagher and Mr. Gallagher's guests, Thomas and William Ronville, of Chicago, returned Monday evening from a week's fishing at Lake Ades, S. D., during which they caught several hundred of the finny tribe.
 L. D. Montgomery of Golden township was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday. Mr. Montgomery reports that the rain fall at Ewing and in Golden Monday night was about the same as at O'Neill and that it was accompanied by considerable electric disturbance.
 Omaha and Norfolk representatives of one of the large auto truck manufacturers are engaged in a three weeks demonstration and tryout of their truck in the sand country between O'Neill and Valentine with a view to establishing the truck's ability as a hay and produce hauler on sandy roads.

 Archdeacon W. H. Mills, of Chadron will hold services at the Episcopal church, this city, Sunday evening. He is visiting the several missions of this and the Valentine parish, served for a number of years by the Reverend Wells of Valentine. A successor to the Reverend Wells, who recently resigned, has not yet been selected.
 Mr. and Mrs. John McCaffrey and daughters, Regina and Bernadette and also their grandchild, Edward Dular, jr., are visiting John Donlin, father of Mrs. McCaffrey. They expect to spend the balance of the summer here. Mrs. Kathryn Shorthill accompanied the McCaffreys from Pittsburg, Pa., and she is now visiting her son, James Shorthill, at Emmet.

James Crowley, jr., and James Matthews, returned Tuesday evening from South Dakota, where they had gone last Friday to secure homesteads at the opening of the Standing Rock Indian reservation in the western part of the state, scheduled for opening Monday morning. At the last minute Monday morning, the government cancelled by wire the opening of the reservation and announced that later the lands will be sold at public auction.
 Mike Horiskey is enjoying another annual vacation, the second in the last two months. It all happens because the postoffice department now designates when railway mail clerks take their vacations. Mike was required to take his vacation for the fiscal year of 1918, ending June 30, in June, and the other day was notified to start in on his 1919 vacation at once, which will result in a further depletion of the fishing resources of Holt county and Lake Andes.

Injured Automobilists Recovering. Members of the automobile party injured last Thursday evening when the big White car of Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Richard turned over while enroute to the Old Settlers' picnic are able to be about again. The party, including Mr. and Mrs. Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harty, Miss Agnes McPharlin, Miss Vera Dimmitt, Ted Cooper and Pat Harty, were thrown from the car, on the road north of the Marr place five miles north of town, when the front left wheel gave way. The car was overturned, lighting on the right rear wheel, which also was crushed, but righted itself before coming to a stop. Mrs. Ben Harty sustained a severe contusion at the base of the skull, and several minor injuries; Mrs. Richard's arm was fractured and she was badly cut behind the ear; Miss McPharlin was cut about the face and Miss Dimmitt sustained a fractured rib and a sprained knee; Ted Cooper was injured about the back and chest; Ben Harty's thumb was dislocated and his hand and wrist sprained; Pat Harty's arm was wrenched and Mr. Richard received several cuts and bruises. The injured ones received first aid from Dr. Finley at the scene of the accident and later were brought to town. Mrs. Harty, Mrs. Richard and Mr. Cooper were the most severely injured and Mrs. Harty was able to be up for the first time since the accident Monday.
 George Bowen had two head of work horses killed by lightning during the storm Monday night.
