O'Neill friends have received word of the marriage at Anaconda, Mont., on September 12, 1919, of William P. McBride to Miss Margurite Ann Robinson. He made seven trips across the water and on his last voyage was given shore leave over

Dan Swanson, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, was up from Lincoln last Wednesday looking after some of the state school land in this county. Mr. Swanson took office last January and since that time has raised the valuation of the school lands in the state over $1,000,000 which will add greatly to the school fund of the state. He left for Cherry county Wednesday afternoon.

Frank has an interest in a drug store in that city and has made his home there since his discharge from the army several months ago. His many O'Neill friends tender him and his bride their best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

The Sixth Annual fair of the Holt County Fair Association closed last Friday and it was the most successful fair ever held in this county. The attendance this year was larger than ever before, the crowd in this city last Thursday being about 6,000 people. It was by far the largest crowd that was ever in the city and the receipts at the fair that day were about as much as the two best days other years. In the amusement line the free acts, roller skating, by two of America's cleverest roller artists, and the minstrel boys, were greatly appreciated. On Thursday the wrestling match between Stecker and Pinto was the great sporting event and was enjoyed by the spectators, that is those of them that could get a view of the contestants. Stecker won the first fall in fifteen minutes and the second fall and the match in six minutes. Ball games were provided each afternoon and were enjoyed by large crowds. In addition to these amusements there were horse races, foot races, etc., besides the tented show of the Justus-Romain Co. Friday the attendance was not nearly as large as on Thursday. On this day there was to have been aeroplane flights but that afternoon the management received word that the aviator had had bad luck the day before and broke his machine, so he would be unable to appear. This was disappointing, but the cause for the non-appearance of the plane was unavoidable. The exhibits in the agricultural hall and the stock barns were fine. An exceptional large exhibit of hogs were on display and there were some splendid animals there. This fair has proven that we can have a year if everyone puts their shoulder number one fair in this county each to the wheel and boosts.

Bishop Peter J. Muldoon

Chairman of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council.

SAID:

"The beauty and sweetness of The Salvation Army can never be forgotten and cannot be emphasized too strongly. However fine the other organizations, The Army is bright and brilliant."

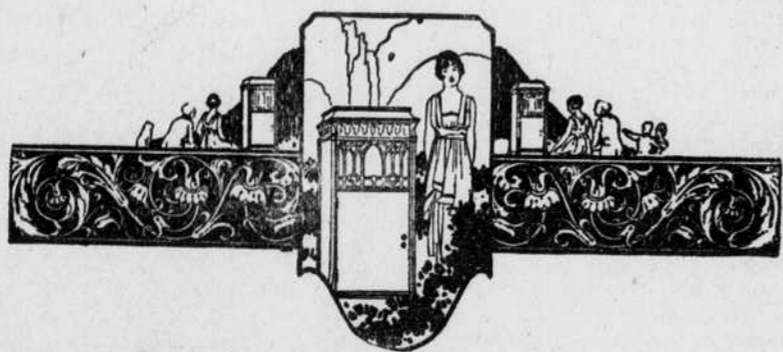

The Salvation Army has won millions of friends—In all churches and all walks of life—because it knows no creeds and has no prejudices. It stands forth as the champion of the weak and the humble.

The "Beauty and Sweetness of The Army" as Bishop Muldoon expressed it, "has been carried into slums to lighten the burdens of misery and poverty."
